Aussie Captures Sculls; Russians Take 2 Trophies

HENLEY, England (CP) — A towering Australian sculler and four European crews dominated the finals of the Royal Henley Regatta Saturday.

Stewart MacKenzie, a six-foot, four-inch Australian, won the diamond sculls for the sixth consecutive time to set a Regatta record. He beat Bill Barry of Britain by three lengths in the final, rowing the one mile, 550-yard course in eight minutes, 38 seconds.

The Soviet Union won two of the seven major events. Britain took two and Germany and Belgium one each.

Russia retained the top regatta title—the Grand Challenge Cup for heavyweight eights — when its navy crew squeezed out a victory by one-third length over Italy's colorful Moto Guzzi crew. The winning time was 6:46.

The Stewards' Cup for fours without coxswain also fell to the Russians, as Trud Leningrad defended its 1961 title with a 1½-length victory over a Dutch crew from Amsterdam. The time was 7:43.

PICKS UP FIRST WIN

Germany picked up its first Henley win since the Second World War, when Wolfgang Neuss and Klaus Jordan won the Silver Goblets event for pairs without cox. They defeated S. A. Farquharson and John Lee Nicholson of England in 7:02.

Belgium's Force Nagate club captured the Wyfold Challenge Cup for fours with cox — the first European crew ever to win it.

Britain picked up victories in the double sculls and in the Thames Challenge cup competition for lightweight eights.

British champions George Jordice and Nick Brancker set a Henley record by winning the double sculls for the third successive year, with an easy victory over Oxford University opponents.

The strong National Provincial Bank crew won the Thames Cup in an all-British final, beating Thames Rowing Club by three lengths in 6:46.

The 26-year-old MacKenzie's victory over Barry was an anti-climax to Friday's sensational semi-final in which Poland's Eugeniusz Kubiak was disqualified after leading MacKenzie to the finish line.

The Pole was disqualified for rowing in the Australian's water and failing to return to his own side of the river when ordered by an umpire. Swiss officials objected strenuously and pulled out of competition. They accused MacKenzie of unsports manlike conduct by protesting. Russian team officials echoed their view but did not withdraw their crews.

"I do not applaud him," Soviet crew spokesman Sergei Russeiski said after MacKenzie defeated Barry Saturday.

MacKenzie would not say whether he will try to make it seven straight next year.

He said his conscience was untroubled by the disqualification of Kubiak, pointing out that the decision was made by a course official almost as soon as the offence occurred.

The giant German pair who won the silver goblets — they weigh a total of 431 pounds — had defeated the Canadian-American crew of John Lecky, Vancouver, and Harold Budd, Morristown, N.J. in a semi-final Friday. Lecky and Budd came to grief when their craft hit a boom just as they seemed about to overhaul Neuss and Jordan near the finish line.

Can. Players Enter Tourney

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Several highly - regarded Canadian players have entered the Oregon State tennis championships opening here Monday.

Three who are ranked in the top five of the Canadian junior (under 18) class were among the latest dozen to sign for the competition.

They are Andre Tielmans of Montreal, Robert Piers of Truro, N.S. and junior women's star Faye Urban of Windsor, Ont.

Cesca Wins Match Race

TORONTO (CP)—Cesca, the Canadian filly, ran away from American-owned Aim N Fire in the $15,000 winner - take - all match race at Woodbine Saturday afternoon. Cesca set a track record of 1:04 3-5 for 5½ furlongs, despite the fact that jockey Harlon Dalton restrained her in the final 70 yards when her victory was certain.

The official margin of victory for Cesca, owned by J. H. Stafford of Toronto, was 5¾ lengths. The former course record was 1:04 4-5.

It was Ontario's first match race since October 12, 1920, when American - owned Man O War humbled Canadian - owned Sir Barton at Knollworth Park in Windsor. There was no wagering on Saturday's race.

The match developed after Aim N Fire, owned by Rosie Gina of Buffalo, set a Canadian record of 57.2-5 seconds for five furlongs at Woodbine June 23. Three days earlier, Cesca had set a Canadian record of 58 seconds in winning the My Dear Stakes.

Each owner paid a $5,000 entry fee for the match race and The Jockey Club added $5,000 to the purse.

Denny Moyer Beats Wright

NEW YORK (AP) — Denny Moyer, a wild-swinging middleweight from Portland, Ore., avenged the family honor by outpointing Teddy Wright, Detroit in a 10-round bout Saturday night in Madison Square Garden. Moyer weighed 157¼, Wright 157.

Wright held decisions over Denny and brother Phil Moyer in the last two months.

But he never did get started this time. Moyer, except for brief lapses caused by his own wild swinging, was in command most of the way.

Judge Artie Aidala had Moyer in front 6-3-1. Judge John Dreo had Moyer the winner 7-2, while referee Teddy Martin had the No. 6 ranked middleweight ahead 8-2. The Associated Press saw Moyer the winner 6-3-1.

Moyer's record now shows 32-7. Wright has a 49-5-4 record.

Sir Winston Pick Wins Feature

TORONTO (CP) — Sir Winston Pick, six - year - old brown charger from the barn of Allan Leblanc of Quebec City, sped the fastest mile of Old Woodbine's first week in a 54-night harness-race meeting Saturday night to win the featured $4,000 Invitational Pace.

Driven expertly by Roger White, the Quebec invader fled around Old Woodbine's three-quarter-mile oval in two minutes, two and three-fifth seconds in establishing a seasonal record for the mile and heading off a blanket of five other top racers by a length and a quarter.

Almost nose to nose the pack could only be separated by the photo - finish camera which showed outsider Direct Bud, another Quebecer driven by Don Gillis, in the second position and Take Command handled by Harold McKinley for the Armstrong Brothers of Brampton, third.

In the co-feature a two division even for $6,240 involving 21 two - year - old pacers, Quebec-owned Country Don from Del MacTavish's Cloverland farm of Brownsburg, took the first division in 2:07.1.

Nefertiti Has Best Record

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Nefertiti sliced across the finish line 43 seconds ahead of Weatherly Saturday to give the Boston sloop the best record of the four America's Cup yachts in the first week of trials.

It was the best race of 12 held last week and a thriller down to the finish. A spectator fleet of about 100 boats followed the race over the 15-mile course.

For Nefertiti, the victory was especially sweet, since her only loss last week had been to Weatherly on Wednesday.

The only new boat in the fleet, Nefertiti has a 5-1 record for the week with Weatherly's score four wins and two losses.

The race was a no - quarter duel between skipper - designer Fred Hood of Nefertiti and Bus Mosbacher of Weatherly. The two yachts were never more than a few yards apart.

In the first race of the day, Columbia led Easterner by one minute and 51 seconds. Columbia, cup defender four years ago, thus ended the week with a 3-3 record. Easterner has still to win a race.

The trials are at the halfway point with six more days of racing, set to begin Monday, in this series.

Another series will resume in August, leading eventually to present three left-handed hitters plus the switch-hitting Mickey Mantle, who will start in right field instead of his accustomed centre field position. Roger Maris will be in centre field. The southpaw swingers, besides Maris, are Jim Gentile, Baltimore first baseman and Los Angeles' Leon Wagner, league home run leader.

There are five repeaters on the starting squads — Cepeda, Mays, Clemente, Mantle and Maris. Cepeda, the top vote-getter, was the starting left fielder in 1961. It is mandatory for all starters to play at least three innings, barring injury. The pitchers may not work more than three innings unless the game goes into extra innings.

Hutchinson chose to go with seven pitchers among his 25-man squad while Houk picked eight. Each named only one left-hander. Koufax' counterpart in the American is Hank Aguirre (6-3) at Detroit. Other American League hurlers include Ralph Terry, New York (10-7); Dick Donovan, Cleveland (12-3), and Hoyt Wilhelm, Baltimore (3-5).

National League pitchers include Juan Marichal, San Francisco (11-5); Bob Shaw, Milwaukee (9-5); Bob Gibson, St. Louis (9-6); Bog Purkey, Cincinnati (13-2), and Dick Farrell, Houston (5-8).

Hutchinson's pick of Stan Musial as his alternate left fielder marks the 19th time Musial has been chosen. He holds the All-Star record for games, 22; at bats, 60; hits, 19; home runs, six; and total bases, 39.

Mantle's selection was his 11th. Mays was picked for the ninth time.

Hartack Snares 3,000th Victory

CHICAGO (AP)—Bill Hartack became the eighth American jockey ever to register 3,000 victories when he piloted Big Steve to a photo-finish triumph in the fifth race at Arlington Park Saturday.

The 29-year-old rider hit the 3,000 mark in his 10th year of campaigning, becoming the second jockey ever to achieve such a total in less than 10 years.

Willie Shoemaker, Hartack's perennial rival, is the only other jockey to score 3,000 victories in 10 years.

Shoemaker started riding in 1949 and got No. 3,000 Jan. 31, 1958—little more than 8½ years later. Hartack began riding in 1952, thus getting his 3,000 winner in roughly 9½ years.

Johnny Longden, born in England and raised in Taber, Alta., was the first American to ride 3,000 winners. He hit that mark in 1948 in his 22nd riding year.

NEEDED 17 YEARS

Ted Atkinson, a Toronto native, needed 17 seasons of riding to bag his 3,000th winner. Eddie Arcaro, Steve Brooks and Johnny Adams hit that total during their 21st season, while Ralph Neves needed 24 seasons.

Hartack's three consecutive national riding championships, 1955 through 1957, stands as a record.

The hard-bitten Hartack, who says what he thinks about his mounts, sent his mounts in 1956 to earnings of $2,343,955, breaking Shoemaker's record established in 1954.

In 1957, Hartack broke his own record and established the existing mark for winnings of $3,060,501, and also established a record for stakes victories with 43, topping Arcaro's record of 40 set in 1952.

Hartack also won the national riding crown in 1960 with 307 winners.

Stake Race Is Tonight

Another exciting harness racing program is scheduled for Charlottetown Driving Park tonight.

The 2.25 pace stake will be the feature attraction, and will be raced in three divisions. Dashes one, two and three will have the first, second and third divisions going and races six, seven and eight will be devoted to raceoffs for this pace.

25 pacers are seeking top money in this stake and the divisions and the raceoffs should provide many exciting moments.

Dashes four and nine will see six outstanding trotters fight it out. Art Burbine has the rail with Miss Tom Scott but the mare may need more than the rail to get her home in front. Her opposition will be supplied by Ted Genesse, Avalon Worthy, Poplar Flash, Mary Leah and Stormy.

The other race, a single dash affair, finds eight horses ready for the word 'go.'

Races are scheduled to get going at 8 o'clock sharp.

GRABS SINGLES, DOUBLES FOR U.S.

Karen Susman Scores Double Tennis Victory

By AUBREY HIGGS

WIMBLEDON (Reuters) — Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman scored a double triumph for the United States Saturday at the all-England lawn tennis championships.

The slim, 19 - year - old from Chula Vista, Calif., first won the women's singles title in straight sets and then teamed with fellow-Californian Billie Jean Moffitt in a successful defence of the women's doubles crown they won here last year.

In the singles final, Karen defeated unseeded Mrs. Vera Sukova of Czechoslovakia, who had established herself as the "upset queen" of the 1962 Wimbledon tournament, 6-4, 6-4 in a little less than an hour.

Then she and her 18-year-old partner from Long Beach fought back from a first-set loss to defeat South Africans Sandra Reynolds Price and Renee Schuurman 5-7, 6-3, 7-5 to retain the doubles championship.

In a third final, Australians Fred Stolle and Bob Hewitt won the men's doubles by beating Boro Jovanovic and Nikola Pilic of Yugoslavia 6-2, 5-7, 6-2, 6-4.

FOUGHT BACK

Despite her characteristic expression of perplexity and despair, Karen was never in real trouble against her 30-year-old opponent in the singles final.

Mrs. Sukova built up a 3-0 lead in the second set, but the California girl fought back calmly and went on to win five consecutive games as the Czech woman began to limp noticeably from a foot injury suffered the day before.

The stocky Mrs. Sukova, a great favorite with the crowd, said later she twisted her right foot when she tripped coming down stairs in her hotel Friday morning and "it hurt from the start of the match."

But when she was asked whether she might have won if she had been fully fit, Mrs. Sukova said:

"I don't know, Mrs. Susman was very good today. I think she played a big match against me."

That was also the opinion of most expert observers. Karen, No. 8 seed, had a greater variety of strokes, more power and speed and a much better service.

In the rounds leading up to the final, Mrs. Sukova knocked off second-seeded Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., third-seeded Maria Bueno of Brazil and defending - champ Angela Mortimer of England, but in the final Mrs. Susman mastered the Czech woman's deceptive change of pace, drop shots and lobs.

Princess Marina, president of the all-England club which runs the tournament and Queen Elizabeth's aunt, presented the trophy to Karen.

Karen said later that she and her husband, to whom "I owe 101 per cent of my success," will team up in the mixed doubles of the American clay courts championship in Chicago in two weeks.

The women's doubles final was one of the hardest-hitting Wimbledon has seen in several years and the American girls' powerful volleying at the net and mid - court smashing, opposed to the South African accurate lobbing and tireless returning, made it difficult for both sides to hold service.

She was the first married woman to win the singles title since American Helen Wills Moody in 1938 and her victory fulfilled a prediction made by former Wimbledon champion Maureen (Little Mo) Connolly when Karen was just 11 years old.

Her double victory took some of the sting out of 1962 Wimbledon tournament for Americans after they failed to place anyone in the quarter-final of the men's singles.

The men's final was an all-Australian affair, won Friday by Rod Laver for the second consecutive year in a masterful straight set victory over Martin Mulligan.

Palmer Sees Rees Winner

TROON, Scotland (AP) — Arnold Palmer, U.S. masters champion, relaxed over an exhibition round of golf Sunday and came off the last green predicting that Welshman Dai Rees, British Ryder Cup captain, will win the British Open championship starting today.

Palmer is the 2-to-1 favorite to retain the title he won at Birkdale, Lancashire. Palmer, who heads the American money winners with a total of $70,000, edged out Rees by one shot in that championship with 284.

A total of 356 golfers from 19 countries will tee off today in qualifying matches over Troon and the nearby Loch Green links. A maximum of 130 will qualify for the championship play Wednesday over the 7,045-yard Troon lay-out on the west coast of Scotland.

Loch Green measures 6,788 yards. Both links carry a par of 72.

Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, the U.S. Open champion, Phil Rodgers, Sam Snead and Gene Littler, 1961 U.S. Open winner, head one of the most powerful American challenges since before the Second World War.

Australians Kel Nagle, winner in 1960, and Peter Thomson, four-time winner, and Gary Player, the South African who won the title in 1959, are others chasing the rainbow in the most wide-open British championship in years.

George Sharman Grabs Ch'ship

TRURO (CP)—George Sharman of Truro, 33-year-old textile dye technician, won the Maritime amateur golf championship Sunday with a 4 and 2 victory over Halifax Ashburn's Al Fox.

Sharman, a member of the 1961 Nova Scotia Willingdon Cup team, maintained the steady driving and putting pace that carried through the qualifying and championship division rounds.

He went three up early in the match and won the 16th hole to sew up the victory.

Earlier in the day, Sharman eliminated Dartmouth, N.S., Brightwood's Floyd Keddy 3 and 2 to gain the finals slot. Fox downed Brightwood's Lawrence O'Hearn one up in the semi-final.

With the victory, Sharman gained 20 points towards re-selection on the Willingdon Cup squad. Final major point additions will come at the Nova Scotia amateur championships to be played at Dartmouth Brightwood next weekend.
