DEATH NOTICE

ATHINGTON B. SELLAR

A large circle of friends and relatives were saddened to learn of the death of Athington Brewer Sellar of Winsloe, who passed away at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Wednesday, July 22nd. In his passing Winsloe has lost one of its best loved and highly respected citizens.

The late Athington Sellar was born at New Glasgow, P.E.I., June 28, 1880 was the son of Margaret and Charles Sellar. Respected by young and old alike he was a man of sterling character and integrity and a staunch churchman. Seldom was his seat vacant on the Sabbath day. He was a member of South Winsloe United Church and served faithfully for thirty-one years the office of Church Secretary. In church and cemetery affairs he was often consulted. For the past thirty-eight years he has been Secretary-Treasurer of the South Winsloe cemetery during which time he gave a lot of helpful information to a host of people. During a great number of years he served on the Official Board of the Church and was later honored when appointed Elder.

He spent his early life farming at New Glasgow. For five years he was engaged in the LePage General Merchant Store at Rustico. In 1916 he married the former Blanche Saunders of Winsloe, and purchased the Saunders homestead. He retired from farming six years ago since then has spent many helpful hours each day in the store of his son-in-law, Erith Hughes, at Winsloe Grocery. His witty sayings and generosity to the children will not soon be forgotten.

There are left to cherish his memory besides his sorrowing wife one daughter, Doris (Mrs. Erith Hughes) of Winsloe. Two granddaughters Vodia and Leah Ann whom he dearly loved. Also one brother Willard now residing in Dean, N.S. Three brothers and one sister predeceased him. Namely: Milton of U.S.A., Jake of Fredericton, Robert of Wheatley River, and Ethel, Mrs. Ernest Houston of New Glasgow.

The largely attended funeral was held from South Winsloe United Church. Words of comfort were tendered the bereaved by their pastor, Rev. F.H. Littlejohns assisted by Mr. Heber Hardy of the Dundas Charge. Mr. Ralph Raynor very effectively rendered a solo "We Are Going Down The Valley One by One." Hymns sung were "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "Abide With Me". The music was under the direction of Mrs. Freddy Turner, the church organist.

Honorary pallbearers were members of the session of the church. Namely, Bentley Creed, Stillman Frizzell, Earle Rodd, John MacDonald, Charles Proude, and Clayton Cudmore.

Active pallbearers were: Hammond Rodd, Fred Turner, Harry Coles, Harold Diamond, Archie Auld, and Kenneth Moreside.

The following poem was composed by his neice, Barbara Gingles, and inscribed in a hymn book which she presented in his memory to be placed in the pew of the Church which he occupied.

His ways were quiet and humble and meek,
As never for honor did this Christian seek;
And yet as he toiled year by year with the sod,
I'm sure he grew nearer and deared to God.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Athington Sellar and Doris wish to express their sincere thanks to the many friends who sent beautiful floral tributes, numerous sympathy cards and letters, and to the neighbors for their many kind acts during their recent sad bereavement. Special thanks to the various Ministers who called, Dr. A.L. Saunders, Special Nurses, Supervisors and Staff of the Prince Edward Island Hospital who gave such tender care to our loved one while a patient for a period of two months.

DEATH NOTICE

MARY E. GREENAN

The people of Kinkora and vicinity were shocked to hear of the very sudden death of one of its most highly respected citizens in the person of Miss Mary E. Greenan which occurred in the early morning of Sunday, August 16th., 1959.

She had not been in her usual good health for a few days previously. Some of her neighbour friends called to see her on Saturday night and having found her somewhat worse called Doctor Zielinski, Kensington, who pronounced she had a serious heart condition. Rev. Father Croken, her pastor, was immediately summoned and he administered to her all the last Holy rites of the church.

Miss Greenan possessed a very cheerful and happy disposition with a sense of humor that endeared her to everyone who were saddened at her sudden passing.

She lived alone since her step mother passed away some years ago. She leaves to mourn one brother, Francis J. Greenan, Kinkora; also many nieces and nephews.

A sister Annie (Mrs. Benson; Boston, Mass., passed away while en roue to her sisters funeral which was held on Wednesday morning from the Monaghan Funeral Home to St. Malachy's Church, Kinkora where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Harold Croken who also conducted the services at the grave. Rev. Jerome Quinn and Rev. Regis Duffy were present in the sanctuary.

The pallbearers were: Vernon Borden Greenan, Aloysus Roberts, Clair Greenan and James R. Callaghan. Interment in the church cemetery.

May her soul rest in peace.

DEATH NOTICE

C. S. DINGWELL

The death occurred suddenly at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on July 23rd, 1959, of Clifton Seymour Dingwell in his 62nd year. His passing was a great shock to his many relatives and friends. The late Mr. Dingwell was the son of Mrs. Ellie Dingwell and the late James E. Dingwell.

A veteran of the First World War, he was severely wounded and gased at Cambrai, France, and although disabled carried on business at St. Peter's and New Glasgow.

Besides his wife, the former Elzie Huntley of Halifax, N. S., he is survived by his son, Huntley, daughter-in-law, Giena, his mother, Mrs. James E. Dingwell, and the following brothers and sisters: Edward, Stoneham, Mass., U.S.A.; Walter, Midgell; Cuyler, Maine; Loreta (Mrs. Milton MacDonald), Saint John, N.B.; Maud, (Mrs. Gordon Coffin), Morell; Jennie, (Mrs. Irving Toombs), Bedeque; Georgie (Mrs. J. C. MacBeth), Forest Hill.

The funeral which was held from New Glasgow United Church was conducted by Rev. Bryer R. Jones and Rev. Anthony Ware. Mr. Olaf Stevenson sang as a solo "Life's Railway to Heaven". The hymn "The Old Rugged Cross", was sung.

Interment was in Floral Hills Memorial Gardens. A guard of honour was formed by members of the Canadian Legion, and at the graveside the military service was read by Zone Commander, Murray Cassidy. The Last Post and Reveille were sounded by Mr. Frank Smith.
