

MAXIMS OF A MERCHANT

No business man can float the public for long and get away with it; a day of reckoning comes sooner than later.

MAXIMS OF A MERCHANT

The younger generation usually merely talks revolt; the actual revolting is generally done by the older generation.

ROYALTY PAYS VISIT TO WEMBLEY

British and Italian Sovereigns Make Careful Inspection of Canadian Exhibits.

(British United Press) LONDON, May 28.—King George and Queen Mary accompanied by the King and Queen of Italy and Princess Matilde paid a prolonged visit to the Canadian pavilion at the Empire Exhibition at Wembley today. They were received upon arrival by Hon. P. C. Larkin and the Canadian Agent General and made a careful inspection of the entire building expressing deepest interest in the various exhibits.

Midland is Menaced by a Forest Fire

(Canadian Press) NORTON, N. B., May 28.—A fire which might have proved a very disastrous one was raging in the woods at Midland about five miles from Norton, Saturday afternoon, where Henry DeLong had lumbered during the winter. A telephone message was sent to Norton and several men were sent to the scene, and they with the men already there, fought the flames. It was with great difficulty that the United Baptist church, Public Hall and private buildings were saved.

SAINT DUNSTAN'S UNIVERSITY AFTER "DEATH RAY" INVENTION

Large Attendance Yesterday at the 70th Annual Commencement Day Exercises. —Eloquent Address to the Graduates by Rev. J. J. McDonald.

The convocation hall of St. Dunstan's University was crowded yesterday afternoon when the 70th annual Commencement Exercises were held. The programme was in every way up to the high standard of previous years. The Valedictory and Alumni Prize Essay were highly creditable to the young men who delivered them and the eloquent address to the graduates by Rev. J. J. McDonald of Summerside was a masterpiece of its kind, and created a profound impression upon graduates and audience.

MEDALS AND PRIZES.

Gold Medal for Christian Doctrine, presented by His Lordship the Bishop, awarded to Alban Farmer. Gold medal for best essay, presented by the Alumni Society, awarded to Francis Clarkin. The Norbert Hughes gold medal for senior philosophy, awarded to Howard Griffin.

Gold coin for junior philosophy, presented by the Blake family, awarded to James Misaac. Gold medal for history, presented by His Grace Archbishop O'Leary of Edmonton, awarded to Richard O'Neill. Gold medal for economics, presented by Charles Chandler, Esq., equally merited by William Brennan, Elliot McGuigan and Clarence Shea, drawn by William Brennan.

Remarks by the Rector Rev. D. P. Croken, who last year succeeded Rev. Dr. McEllan as Rector of the University, thanked on behalf of the Faculty all those who, by their presence at the commencement exercises, have manifested their interest in education and in the welfare of St. Dunstan's.

Woman Carrying Baby Held Up a Bank

(Canadian Press) FARMINGTON, Ill., May 28.—A woman carrying a baby held up the Bank of Farmington this afternoon and escaped with $1500 cash. The woman, according to the police, at the point of a revolver, forced employees of the Bank to hand over the money, and escaped in an automobile.

Blind Watchmen Get $250,000 Loot

(Canadian Press) NEW YORK, May 28.—Seven robbers, one of them wearing a police uniform, bound and gagged two watchmen and made off in four trucks with $250,000 worth of tobacco and other merchandise from the warehouse of the United Cigar stores, Brooklyn.

Bootleggers Not Taxable on Profits

(Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 28.—Following the hearing of argument, Judge Audette in the Exchequer Court today reserved judgment in the case of Cecil R. Smith, a garage proprietor of Windsor, who claims that profits made in bootlegging are not liable to Dominion Income Tax.

Reported That Contract With French Firm is Already Signed.

(British United Press) PARIS, May 28.—France appears today to have considerable lead in the apparent race between the nations to gain control of the "death ray" invented by Grindell Mathews, British scientist who flew from Great Britain in an airplane yesterday to resume negotiations with French capitalists after the British Government had failed to give him the backing he demanded.

Wire Briefs

Last Minute News Flashed in Over the Wires

(Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, May 28.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette today virtually announced that he will run for president on an independent ticket unless the approaching Democratic and Republican conventions demonstrate to the people whether either of these parties can and will purge itself of the evil influences which have long dominated them.

Reported Murder of Missionaries

(Canadian Press) PEKING, May 28.—Two unnamed American missionaries are reported to have been killed at Kwelin, Kwangsi when northern troops besieged that city May 25. The report, which is unconfirmed, reached the American Legation here today from the consulate at Canton.

Mailed Matches are Cause of Fires

(Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, May 28.—Warning that matches and other inflammable materials are prohibited transportation in the mails, is being given by postmasters throughout the country at the direction of the Post Office Department. The warning resulted from complaints of the German postal authorities that two fires in the Bremen post office, and a fire in a postal car at Leipzig, were due to matches enclosed in parcel post packages mailed in the United States.

State Convention of Knights of Columbus

At the annual State Convention of the Knights of Columbus yesterday morning the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: State Deputy—A. F. McQuaid, Souris. State Secy.—A. T. McDonald, Souris. State Treas.—J. A. Griffith, Charlottetown. State Advocate—Hon. A. F. Arsenault, Summerside. State Warden—J. J. Morris, Summerside.

Islanders Graduate At Acadia

WOLFVILLE, May 28.—The closing exercises of the Acadia Seminary were held here last night in the auditorium of the Baptist Church which was crowded to the doors by an interested audience. The students of the Seminary, dressed in white and led by members of the graduating class, created an impressive scene as they slowly marched to their allotted places to the strains of the processional march. Members of the faculty occupied seats on the platform while members of the Alumni sat in a body in the auditorium.

Address to the Graduates

By Rev. J. J. McDonald. Gentlemen Graduates: When requested by your esteemed Rector to undertake the duty of addressing you on the occasion of your graduation I was strongly inclined to forego the honor as I felt that the responsibility attached to that duty was greater than I felt capable of discharging. I did not feel disaster to my reputation as a public speaker as I had none. Your worthy Rector prevailed and here I am to follow in the lists men of oratorical powers and good sound counsel—qualifications to which I lay no claim whatsoever.
