NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market Friday climbed to its third straight daily high for the year as it weathered some profit-taking and rebounded from a decline in mid-session.

For the first time in exactly a year, the Dow Jones industrial average closed above the significant 700 level.

The Dow industrials—which ha' been down .59 at 1 p.m.—ended the day with a gain of 5.31 at 702.43. It was their highest level since April 2, 1962, when the average closed at 705.42.

The mood was enlivened by Chrysler's ability to top its historic peak of 101½ reached in 1955 and set a new top of 102½. Many other leading issues went to new highs for the year.

The economic news remained encouraging and market analysts were generally looking for higher prices.

The burden of the advance was carried by such groups as steels, motors, chemicals, electrical equipments, and building materials. The tone was irregular for airlines, tobaccos, aerospace issues, and nonferrous metals.

A MIRACLE

Did you ever hold in your hand a rose, a plant, or even a tiny seed and wonder where its beauty comes from? Or did you plant a seed and watch, day by day, and marvel at nature's way? How miraculous are the ways of nature; so beautiful that man can never fashion or create a rival.

Another word for nature, of course, is God. He creates. Beauty in all its forms comes from Him, and to us they are given; nature's bounties, we call them.

When you go to church this Sunday, say another word of "thanks" for all that is good, all that is beautiful, all that you possess!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of his church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
Scripture—Mark 14:10—15:41. By Alfred J. Beaucher

"Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the 12, went to the chief priests in order to betray Him to them. And when they heard it they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought an opportunity to betray Him." Thus did Judas sell out his Master, for love of money.—Mark 14:10-11.

On Holy Thursday Christ sent John and Peter to prepare a place for them to eat the Passover Supper that night. He told them to follow a man carrying a jar of water, who would lead them to an upper room where they could prepare the feast. Here Christ instituted Communion.—Mark 14:12-25.

Retiring to the Garden of Gethsemane on the Mount of Olives afterwards, Christ withdrew from His disciples to pray. He asked for God's help, and above all, that God's will be supreme. As He finished Judas arrived with a mob from the high priests, to whom he betrayed Christ.—Mark 14:32-50.

That night Christ was tried by the high priests, and the next morning by Pilate. Incited by the priests, the mob demanded His crucifixion. As He died, the centurion facing Him said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!" Though it was daytime the sky was black.—Mark 14:63—15:39.

MEMORY VERSE:—"For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it again."—John 10:17.

'KISS OF JUDAS'

Christ's Betrayal, Death

(Editor's note: The following material relating to tomorrow's Sunday School lesson is based on copyrighted outlines produced by the division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches in the U.S. and is used by permission.)

By N. SPEER JONES

This week we begin the second quarter of the year's Sunday School lessons. In it, we will finish our examination of the Gospel according to St. Mark, and go on to study the inspiration provided by the Psalms.

On this Palm Sunday our lesson concerns, as usual, Christ's crucifixion. Notice, first, that in the betrayal of Judas, it was Judas himself, not any of the Jewish officials, who initiated the betrayal. The motivating factor was apparently money — the sin of covetousness. Thus we see to what extreme evil the love of material riches— obedience to Mammon— can lead.

To make ready the Last Supper Christ sent Peter and John. The reason they were not told directly where to go, but told to follow a man bearing a pitcher, was perhaps to avoid Judas' knowing in advance of the place. Christ knew he had arranged to betray Him, but did not want His Last Supper interrupted by His capture at that point.

Notice also that only at the Last Supper, after the betrayal arrangements have been made, does Christ announce that He is about to be betrayed.

This Last Supper was Christ's institution coinciding with the Passover Feast, regularly celebrated by the Jews. As the disciples leave the Supper room, they proceed to the Mount of Olives, about a mile away. As they go, they sing a hymn — also an envolvement from Jewish custom, for the Jews traditionally sang at the end of the Passover Supper the Psalms 115-118. The second part of this was called the Hallel, meaning praise (from which our word "hallelujah" is derived).

There has been considerable argument about the exact meaning of "this cup," which Christ asks God to remove, if possible. The important lesson here is that even Christ, with His holy will, asks that not His, but God's will prevail.

The trial before Caiaphas, the high priest, was actually preceded by another trial before Annas (recorded only in John 18:13, 14, 19-24). This is the Caiaphas mentioned in Luke 3: 2, when John the Baptist was preaching in the wilderness.

Pilate was the Roman procurator of Judea, hated by the Jews because he brought images into the city of Jerusalem.

The man who carried Christ's cross, Simon, was from Cyrene, a bustling city in North Africa near Tripoli.

Before they crucified Him, Mark tells us they offered Christ "wine mingled with myrrh." Myrrh is a gum resin from certain Arabic shrubs, used as a tonic and stimulant, and in embalming. It also acted as narcotic, for it was standard practice to offer this mixture of wine and myrrh to criminals about to be executed, to numb their pain.

Although Christ is always pictured in crucifixion with His feet nailed to the cross, we have evidence only of His hands being nailed (see John 20: 20, 25). There is a suggestion, however, that the feet were also nailed in the prophetic Psalm 22:18.

Pictures of a very tall cross are also misleading, for such a tall one would be difficult to fix upright; the crosses needed only to be high enough to keep the victim's feet off the ground.

3 Students Ordained As Deacons

Three students of the University of King's College Halifax were ordained as deacons by Rt. Rev. R. H. Waterman, lord bishop of Nova Scotia in the Cathedral Church of All Saints recently.

The Litney was sung by Very Rev. E.B.N. Cochran, dean of Nova Scotia, while Canon H.L. Puxley, president of the University of King's College, preached the sermon, and Rt. Rev. W. W. Davis, bishop coadjutor, was celebrant at the ordination eucharist.

The three students who were presented for Ordination by A. S. Hart, archdeacon of Halifax, are: Douglas Harold Hergett of Bridgetown, Caleb James Lawrence of Lattie's Brook, Hants County, and Robinson Lyndhurst Wadmore Ritchie of Halifax.

PUBLIC FORUM

ther four or five years under his very capable leadership and long visioned program, would give him the time and opportunity to get things "rolling." As Mr. Pearson suggests.

Four years is only a "start" for a man of his far - reaching ambitions. The industries and possibilities that are available in Canada have scarcely been scratched, and given another term would give him the opportunity of carrying out his very well organized plan. The mammoth program which he has carried out, for the past four years, should be sufficient proof of what another term would bring. So let's all go "Over the Top" for Mr. Diefenbaker and our Canada.

The Causeway (headache) is a political footfall and scourge and should be dismissed without further ado. Ours small Island is only a "patch" in the universe and as such, be kept, as the "Garden of the Gulf". The lovely trip across the straits is the chief attraction for tourists, for nine or ten months of the year. Build another "Abble" every ten or twelve years and let us enjoy our little "Isle." A Causeway would tend to bring in many undesirables and such, with their goods and wares. And in no time at all our Island would be "submerged."
