

NOTED MUSICIAN OF MONTREAL

Advices The Use Of "FRUIT-A-LIVES", The Famous Fruit Medicine.

MR. ROSENBERG
580 Casgrain St., Montreal.
April 20th, 1915.

"In my opinion, no other medicine in the world is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as 'Fruit-a-lives'. I was a sufferer from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis—with nasty headaches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and Pain in the Back. I tried pills and medicines of physicians, but nothing helped me. Then I was induced to try 'Fruit-a-lives', and now for six months I have been entirely well. I advise any one who suffers from that horrible trouble—Chronic Constipation with the resultant indigestion, to try 'Fruit-a-lives', and you will be agreeably surprised at the great benefit you will receive". A. ROSENBERG.

MONDAY

Michael Brennan, Long River, has received the following message, dated April 24th:—"Sincerely regret to inform you 712393 Pte. James Alexander Brennan, infantry, officially reported dangerously ill. No. 26 General Hospital, Etobicoke, Gunshot wound in chest. Will send further particulars when received.—O. I. C. Records, Ottawa.

CHILD'S DEATH.—Mr. John McKinnon, first officer of the Car ferry steamer, and Mrs. McKinnon, have the sympathy of the community in the sad bereavement they have sustained by the death of their beloved child, Edwin B. who passed away on Friday morning, after an illness of only fourteen hours. Meningitis was the cause of death. The little fellow was only five years of age. The funeral took place on Saturday at 2 p. m., Rev. Mr. Fulton officiating.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Thomson, North Tryon, will regret to hear that they have received the following telegram telling of the wounding of their son, Earl, formerly of the 105th, now of the 25th Canadian Regiment:—"Sincerely regret to inform you 712327 Private Earl Thomson, in infantry, officially reported admitted to Australia General Hospital, Winerex, April 11, 1915. Gunshot wound in left shoulder. Will send further particulars when received.—O. I. C. Records, Ottawa.

LAI-D TO REST.—The remains of the late Mr. Henry Worth, were committed to the earth yesterday, interment being made in the People's Cemetery, beside his wife who predeceased him a couple of months ago. The funeral was very largely attended, the Fourth Regiment Band and the overseas infantry forces attending as a token of regard for deceased's long connection with the military and organizations of this city. Rev. T. W. Murphy officiated. The pall-bearers were: Messrs James Paton, M. L. A., Alex. Horne, John McInnis, Neil McNevin, Bruce Stewart and David Hooper.

Mr. Lester Douglas, City, received a telegram Saturday, stating that his brother, Coffin Douglas, aged 32, had been killed in action. He was engaged in railway work at Moosejaw, Sask., when he enlisted. He was killed on April 14th, having been at the front only about a week, when he fell in battle. In a letter received recently from him, he wrote of visiting his brother in England before departing for France. He was a son of the late Elisha Douglas, Head of Hillsboro, and leaves to mourn, besides a widowed mother, the following brothers and sisters: Alfred in Moosejaw, Fulton, at Head of Hillsboro, recently returned from the West, Geddie, Walter, and Harvey, at home, Edison in Lawrence, Mass., Lester, in Charlottetown, Henry in the 104th in England, Jennie, Blanche and Hilda at home.

Many friends in Charlottetown will learn with sincere regret of the death of the battled in France of Corp. Charles McQuillan, youngest son of the late Mr. Bernard McMillan, for many years caretaker of Victoria Park. The late "Charlie" McQuillan was a young man of very pleasing personality, and a splendid athlete. His work on the cricket and football fields will always be remembered by those who followed those games which were played with so much zest and clean enthusiastic rivalry back in the nineties. He was a leading member of the Abegweit Club and it has been said of him that no finer half-back has ever been seen here. The lovers of good clean sport for sport's sake who knew the fleet-footed and always dependable player Charlie McQuillan of those days will feel a genuine touch of sorrow to know that he is no more, but they will have the assurance of knowing that he went to his reward "playing the game" like a man.

The sad news was received by his cousin, Mr. John McQuillan, of this city, on Saturday. Deceased, who enlisted in Halifax two years ago, leaves behind in the military and two children in that city, also his mother and one sister, Mrs. Lafferty, living at Port Augustus, and two brothers, Sergt. John McQuillan, of the garrison, Quebec, and Bernard, residing in Halifax. To the bereaved The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

WHAT THE KIDNEYS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR

The function of the kidneys is to purify the blood. Every three minutes, the entire blood stream passes through the kidneys and is relieved of its impurities by these busy organs. When the kidneys fail in their work, poison accumulates in the blood—pains are felt in the back, the head aches, the urinary system is deranged, the joints and ankles are apt to swell and there is grave danger of rheumatism, sciatica, and lumbago.

Gin Pills restore the kidneys to their normal activity, and should be taken as soon as any of the symptoms indicated above are felt. Gin Pills soothe and heal the kidneys. Don't neglect kidney trouble—you will only suffer needless pain.

All druggists sell Gin Pills—50c. a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50. A sample will be sent free upon request to

NEW BANK COMPLETED.—The new Canadian Bank of Commerce building, at the corner of Spring and Water streets, is now completed, the furniture has arrived, and it is expected that the material with his staff of officers will move into their new departments next week. The new building is up-to-date, and is a credit to this banking concern, as well as to the contractor, Mr. P. G. Clark, of this town.—H

Mr. James C. McKendrick, Charlottetown, received an official telegram stating that his son, G. Howard W. McKendrick, was reported severely wounded in the foot. No further particulars were given. G. McKendrick enlisted in the 98th Siege Battery. While in England he became ill and was not able to accompany the Battery to France. On recovery he was transferred to the Fifth Siege Battery, and went with this unit to France and has been in a number of engagements. On Saturday night Mr. McKendrick had a letter from Major Prowse in which he expressed the hope that he would be able to get Howard back to his battery as he was one of his best gunners. His many friends will hope that favourable news will shortly be received concerning him.

Another sudden death occurred in Charlottetown yesterday morning when Mr. James Farquharson, an old and respected citizen, dropped dead at the Lennox Hotel, conducted by his daughter, Mrs. McMillan, with whom he had resided since the death of his wife a couple of years ago.

Deceased got up yesterday morning as usual and ate a hearty breakfast. He then proceeded to get ready for church. After dressing he came down stairs and walked into the kitchen, where, without the least warning, he suddenly dropped dead. A physician was hurriedly summoned, but the spark of life had departed almost instantly. The sad affair was a great shock to his daughter and the other inmates of the house with whom he resided. He was 84 years of age. Besides his daughter, he has a son residing at Mermaid, N.S. The funeral takes place tomorrow (Tuesday) at the Lennox at 3 p. m., to Mermaid Cemetery.

The sorrows of war have once more visited the home of Mrs. M. E. Dalton, Georgetown, when on Tuesday last she received the following telegram:

9.35 a. m., Ottawa, Ont., April 23rd, 1915.
Mrs. Mary Ellen Dalton, Georgetown, D. R.—Deeply regret to inform you 712343, private John P. Dalton, infantry, officially reported killed in action, April ninth, nineteen seventeen. OFFICER I. G. Records.

This is the second son which Mrs. Dalton has lost. Gummer, Martin P. Dalton, after being several months in the service, died in Halifax on March 31st, 1915. Many of the home has been called upon once, on this island, to bear the loss of one who would be killed in action, but few, very few, have had to bear that sorrow twice.

Not only does this grief-stricken mother mourn the loss of her two brave and noble heroes, but she also waits in breathless anxiety for news of another son, Pte. Michael A. Dalton, who has served twenty three months in the trenches, and during that time he was wounded twice, but he recovered from his wounds, and is fighting today on the blood-stained fields of Flanders.

To the mother, brothers and sister of Pte. John Dalton, the Guardian extends its deepest and sincerest sympathy.

A sad and unexpected death occurred at North Wilshire, Friday evening the 20th inst., when Patrick Kelly, a highly esteemed resident of Kelly's Cross fell instantly dead. Deceased who had been visiting his sons and daughters in the United States for the past year was returning home in company with his son Edward. They had just alighted from the train and gone a few paces when his son who was a little in advance of his father thinking he heard him make a miss step turned in time to see him fall on the side walk. He picked him up with the assistance of some fellow passengers tried to restore him to consciousness, but their efforts were unavailing. Death being almost instantaneous. An inquest was deemed unnecessary as deceased had been suffering from heart failure for some time previous to his death. His sudden demise has cast a deep gloom over Kelly's Cross and vicinity where deceased was universally respected.

The late Mr. Kelly was a man of exceptional fine character kind and charitable and a devotee Catholic. Besides his grief-stricken widow there are left to mourn a family of four sons and four daughters viz:—Mrs. Jas. Murray, Tyrone; Mrs. Patrick Smith, Newton; Mrs. B. MacQuigan, Beverhill, Mass.; Mrs. Edmund Birt, Berlin, N.H.; Francis and John, Millinocket, Me.; Edward who accompanied his father home and Joseph at home; also one brother and one sister Mrs. Pierce Kelly and Mr. Edward Kelly both of Kelly's Cross parish. The funeral Sunday afternoon to St. Joseph's Church. Kelly's Cross was very largely attended. The last sad rites being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Curran. The bearers were: Patrick Hagan, Gordon Wadell, Francis Monaghan, Jerome MacGibban, Francis Hagan, and Philip Monaghan. The heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended to the sorrowing widow and family in their sad bereavement. May his soul rest in peace.

ISLANDER MISSING.—Mr. A. S. McKay, of Brace McKay & Co., Summerside, received official notice from the Records Office, Ottawa, that his brother, Pte. James Morrison McKay, was officially reported missing on April 10th. Pte. McKay enlisted in the West leaving an excellent position to serve King and Country, and has been at the front for a considerable time. He is the only brother of Mr. A. S. McKay and Mrs. Emory P. Wood of Edmonton. While the official "missing" is not by any means the last word in the career of a soldier, it is, nevertheless, a serious one and the report will be a source of great anxiety to his relatives and friends until definite and it is sincerely hoped, more favorable word is received.

In the death of Mr. Benjamin Coffin on April 3rd, Bay Fortune has lost one of its very best citizens. The late Mr. Coffin was a man who was held in very high esteem by all who knew him.

He was an elder of the Presbyterian congregation of Bay Fortune and was a true friend of the church. In the session room his advice was always worth following.

He was a good neighbor, considerate, always ready to speak to the kind deed when opportunity afforded.

He has left a noble legacy in the

THAT TIRED FEELING

Relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla, Which Renovates the Blood

That tired feeling that comes to you in the spring, year after year, is a sign that your blood lacks vitality, just as pimples, boils, and other eruptions are signs that it is impure; and it is also a sign that your system is in a low or run-down condition inviting disease. It is a warning, which it is wise to heed.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old standard tried and true blood medicine relieves that tired feeling. It cleanses the blood, gives new life, new courage, strength and cheerfulness. It makes the rich red blood that will make you feel, look, eat and sleep better. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla. It embodies the careful training, experience and skill of Mr. Hood, a pharmacist for fifty years, in its quality and power to cure.

memory of a well spent life. Mr. Coffin was seventy-eight years of age and leaves a widow; two sons Charles and Duncan of Bay Fortune, and two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Dingwell, of Bay Fortune, and Mary of Denver, Colorado; also three sisters, Mrs. William Aitken, of Fort-tune, Mrs. Charles Hallet, of Springfield, Mass., and Frances Isabel Brown, of Boston. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon, April 6th, and was largely attended. His pastor, Rev. A. MacKay officiated at the home and the grave. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

It is with feelings of deep regret that we chronicle the death of John A. Condy which occurred at his home in Kelly's Cross on Tuesday, April 17th at the early age of thirty-one years. Although in failing health for the past two years yet the end came sudden and unexpected. Deceased bore his long and painful illness with true Christian fortitude, ever resigning himself to the will of the Divine Master "who doeth all things well," and when then end came he meekly yielded up his spirit into the hands of the Omnipotent, with confidence of eternal reward.

He leaves to mourn a sorrowing wife and two children also, a father and mother and two brothers:—Jas E. of Ottawa; Tobias F., of Philadelphia; and three sisters: Mrs. Jas. McQuin, Riverdale Lot 65; Mrs. J. E. Sullivan, Clifton and Katie at home.

The funeral which was largely attended, was held on Thursday, April 19th, at St. Joseph's Church Kelly's Cross where requiem high mass was sung by the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Curran after which all that was mortal of a kind, benevolent and sincere Christian was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. The pall bearers were: John Curley, Patrick McGee, Bernard Kiggins, Jerome Smith, Francis Keegan and Michael Smith. Et lux aeterna luceat ejus et requiescat in pace.

A very sad death took place at Mill Cove on March 6th, 1915, when death visited the home of Mr. Joseph Court and took for its victim Mrs. John Pleadwell, at the age of 74 years. The deceased being in her usual health up to a week before her death, when she was stricken with pneumonia, and all that medical aid and tender nursing could do was done to relieve her. Mrs. Pleadwell will be greatly missed in the home, also in the vicinity in which she lived. The esteem in which she was held was shown by the large number of neighbors and friends who assisted to pay their last sad token of honor and respect. She leaves to mourn three daughters and one son, Ernest, residing in Georgetown, Mass., Mrs. Stephen Addison, Bayfield, Mass., Mrs. William Court, Dunstable, and Mrs. Joseph Court, Mill Cove, to whom sincere sympathy of the community goes out in their sad bereavement. The funeral took place on Thursday to Black River cemetery service being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Sawdon. The pall bearers were: Robert Young, John Arbing, John Court, James McDonald, William Keizer and Patrick McIntyre.
