W. G. Dickson counted the loose change and it amounted to the splendid total of twenty-five dollars and fifty cents ($25.50) which was sent away for the United Nations Relief for British and Canadian children. For many months Mr. Matheson's customers at the Rexall Drug Store have been putting their spare change in the bowl and the splendid total is the result. In addition the Mission Circle of the O'Leary United Woodstock visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Arsenault, Howland, on New Year's Day.

was held on Monday evening January 2 in the office at Woodstock.

Holiday festivities at Crapaud were enlivened by the L.O.B.A. variety programme presented in the community hall. The relaxed manners of its lady M.C., Mrs.
Wilson Moore, won the interest of the capacity audience and provided some continuity to the long list of talented numbers. A one-act play "So Early in the Morning" occupied a good portion of the evening and involved the causing manoeuvres of a bank robber, and his young cohorts to affect a reconciliation between two elderly ladies of the flock. The long-standing dislike between these two hair-mulling matrons was shattered by their competitive efforts for a lucrative reward in the local cooking contest. An able cast included Ella Sherren, Maud Fall, Annie Moore, Susie Moore, Gene Rogerson, Vera Lowther, Mabel Francis, Vera Rogerson, Annie MacDoughall, Rogerson, Grace Francis. The supporting numbers on the programme which sustained a high level of entertainment were as follows: "Welcome Song", composed and sung by Ella Sherren; "John Peel", Crapaud school chorus; "Piano solo", The Cuckoo" by Arthur Calbeck;
"Frank the North Tryon School choral speaking class; vocal solo,
"Mr. Goose", Arthur Calbeck; Pantomime, "Hiring a Housekeeper", with Fred Sherren, Mrs. Cal-beck, Vera Rogerson, Rhoda Lowther, Susie Moore, Annie Moore.
Mrs. Thos. Best, Grace Francis and Mabel Francis; vocal solo, "The Lilac Tree", Gene Rogerson; reading, "The Wonderful Weaver", Arthur Calbeck; vocal solo, "My Laddie" encoired with "There's a Bluebird Singing in My Heart", Bessie Pobble; vocal solo, "Little Sands of Duna", encoired with "That Lucky O' Sun" by Norman MacDonald. Mrs. Allison Lea accompanied the soloists and Mr.
George Wren provided necessary incidental music; during intermission cakes and candy were sold, and lunch was served at the conclusion of the programme to the group of entertainers.
