NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—Nervous selling upset the stock market again Thursday and the list took another in its series of sharp declines. Trading was quite active.

Volume was 8,220,000 shares compared with 7,470,000 Wednesday.

The Dow Jones industrial average fell 9.36 to 885.57, cutting its worst loss of 13.20 shown at 2 p.m. EDT.

Despite a generally easy market at the start there was some quiet optimism based on news that Ford Motor's Ford division reported record new car sales in the first 10 days of May. Ford and Chrysler showed small early gains. Elsewhere in the list, losses slightly outnumbered gains.

The big question was how did General Motors and Chrysler make out in the same sales period? The news did not come during the trading session of the New York Stock Exchange.

But after the close, Chrysler reported a sharp drop in sales below the like period for a year ago.

Chrysler slipped 1⅛ and General Motors 1½. Ford eased its early gain and ended with a net loss of ⅛.

Losses ran to several points among the higher-priced glamor stocks.
