Last night Wonderland afforded a hearty reception to the clever and most amusing artists, the three dancing Durands. And they deserve it for they are versatile in their acts, marvellous in command of the unstable rollers, and entertainers of the highest class. They opened their act with a country sketch, wherein a country Rube and his son play an important part, the trio completed by Edna Durand with bright repartee and brilliant wit. The clog dancing by all three in the finish of this act was something extraordinary, and but preparatory to the dancing on roller skates. No imagination can picture or form any idea of the perfect time, rhythm and difficulty of this dance, performed by Edna, Fred and Louis Durand, each a complete in his or her part and the trio an unequalled combination on the stage today. It is a masterpiece performed with an ease and accuracy rarely seen and should not be missed by any one who has the opportunity of seeing it. The Durands change their act on Thursday evening, putting on an entirely new one, so but tonight remains to see the marvellous and wonderfully clever performance of last night.

Gaudet, the Champion skater of Prince Edward Island and Maritime Province champion for the three mile skating event, stating that he will enter in all the races at the big ice-meet of February 26th and 27th. This champion has never tried conclusions with skaters outside of his own province and his appearance against the Maritime Province cracks at the big meet will be a special feature of the ice-sports. Mosher, formerly of Dartmouth, and a well known skater, has sent his entries in for the various events, and will file his entries for the championship in the regular way. Word has also been received that a Sackville skater will be entered. The entry list for the meet is becoming very attractive.

At Fairland last night the change in the vaudeville attraction introduced to the patrons of the house, a very amusing and entertaining acrobat who gave a fifteen minute act which is as full of interest and fun as anyone could desire. His feats rank with the best work of the most pretentious men in his line that have ever come to this City, and he was heartily applauded, as he deserved to be. The motion pictures were fine and the musical part of the program well up to the mark.
