O'Hanley's Field Goal Only Score Of Game As Saints Whip R.A.F. Team

A field goal from the toe of "Sock" O'Hanley with eight minutes of play remaining in the first half Saturday paved the way for St. Dunstan's University senior squad to score a 4-0 victory over the R.A.F. football team in an exhibition game played at the University gridiron.

Both lines were in danger on numerous occasions throughout the hard-fought tussle that in the closing moments saw tempers at breaking point as on two occasions the Saints swung freely but with little damage being done.

Saints showing an improvement over their last game with the Air Force team held their own in the even battling. For the first few minutes of the game it looked as if the Air Force team would eventually walk off with their second straight victory over the Collegians as they held play deep in S.D.U. territory but the winners came back strong and by punting and running had a majority of the territory play in the first half.

Air Force kicked off to the Saints and immediately carried play deep into S.D.U. territory. As Saints pushed back the first dangerous threat to their line came in S.D.U. territory but the winners came back strong and by punting and running had a majority of the territory play in the first half.

Acadia Intermediates Trim Prince Of Wales College 9-0

WOLFVILLE, N.S., Nov. 16—Completing an undefeated and untied season, Acadia Intermediates downed the Prince of Wales College 9-0 in a listless exhibition of rugby on Raymond Field here Saturday.

It was the fifth straight win for the Junior Axemen and the second defeat suffered by the Island team this season.

Prince of Wales flatted a rugged, defensive game, stopping the Acadia backs in their tracks. They deflected their own backs through the medium of line-outs.

Running and passing plays were at a minimum, and the score did not indicate the play as much as Acadia's ability to capitalize on the breaks.

A held ball deep in the Islanders' territory gave Acadia her opportunity to open the scoring. Awarded a penalty kick directly in front of the posts, Stairs booted the ball between the uprights.

Amerks whip Canadiens twice Over weekend

NEW YORK, Nov. 16—(CP)—With two minutes to go, Pat Egan scored on a penalty shot tonight to give Brooklyn Americans a 3-2 National Hockey League victory over Montreal Canadiens completing a double success for Red Dutton's team over the weekend.

Canadiens, on two first period goals by Murph Chamberlain and Tony Demers, led 2-0 until more than half the third period was gone. But goals by Niek Knott and Mel Hill within two minutes tied the score and overtime was threatening when the break of the game came.

Egan, racing down centre, was through on goalie Gardiner when he was tripped from behind by Emil Bouchard, Canadian defenceman. Referee Norm Lamport awarded a major penalty shot, an innovation this season.

It was the first such penalty shot awarded. Under the new rule the player fouled must take the shot. He is permitted to pick up the puck at the blue line and move in on the goalie as far as he likes before letting his shot go.

In this case Egan chose to skate two yards past the penalty shot line before driving low and hard to the left corner of the net. Gardiner moved quickly but the puck eluded him.

Scoring—None. Penalties—Portland (2).

Third Period: 3—Brooklyn, Knott 12:16; 4—Brooklyn, Hill (Benson, Thurrier) 14:12; 5—Brooklyn, Egan (penalty shot) 17:56; Penalties—Egan, Demers, Portland, Kelly, Bourthard.
