NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market had another "Blue Monday" as it extended its string of daily declines to six straight Monday. Trading was heavier. Volume rose to 8,690,000 shares from 7,080,000 Friday, an indication of increasing pessimism as the steady erosion of stock values "fed on itself," as analysts said.

The Dow Jones industrial average plunged 12.59 to 792.03, breaking below the once "magic" 800 level for the first time since Feb. 27, 1964. This brought the Dow industrials to their lowest reading since Feb. 10, 1964, when they stood at 788.71.

The market rose at the opening as airlines paced a brief rally in celebration of the end of the airline strike. The rise began to falter quickly, however, and stocks were dumped on a broad front. The decline deepened until the final hour when there was a slight recovery.

Of 1,448 issues traded, 1,147 declined and 130 advanced. Lows for the year totalled 594. There were no record highs.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped 4.9 to 284.1, its lowest reading since Dec. 30, 1963, when it closed at 283.9. It was the worst loss since July 25 when it fell 5.4.

Industrials lost 6.2, rails 3.3 and utilities 2.6, all to new lows for the year.

The loss in the Dow industrials was also the worst since July 25 when it fell 16.32.

Standard and Poor's 500-stock index fell 1.38 to 78.24.

The New York Exchange's composite index closed down 0.72 at 42.44.

Among Canadian issues Alcan gained ⅛ and International Nickel ⅝. Canadian Pacific lost ¾; Dome Mines ½; Granby Mining 2⅝; Hudson Bay Mining ⅛ and Walker Gooderham ⅜.

The American Exchange also suffered heavy losses. Canadians dropping included Brazilian Light and Power, ¼; Canadian Javelin ¼; Preston 1; Fargo Oil ⅛ and Scurry Rainbow Oil ½. Canadian Marconi gained ⅛.

MONTREAL

MONTREAL (CP) — After a brief morning pause, stocks resumed their seemingly relentless downward course in light trading Monday on the Montreal Stock Exchange, and at the close the composite and all other indices once again showed new yearly lows.

Tight money was the prime reason advanced by brokers for the market decline.

Declines outnumbered advances 82 to 13 on the Montreal exchange. For the two markets, totals were 141 to 32. There were 26 new yearly lows, 23 on the senior list.

The 65-stock industrial section showed shaded Canada Iron, in turnover of 1,450 shares, hit a new low of 18, off 1½ points. Massey - Ferguson closed ⅞ lower at 30¾ and CPR, facing the prospects of a strike, ⅝ at 56¾.

Quebec Telephone hit a new low at 19½, down ⅝.

Banks were battered for three new lows Monday. Montreal finished 1¾ points off at 55, while Nova Scotia and Toronto-Dominion each lost one point at 65¼ and 57 respectively.

Biggest single loser of the session was the uranium issue Denison, which plummeted 3½ points to 52½. Rio Algom slid ⅞ to 23½.

Papers registered three lows. Consolidated was off ½ at 35¾, Domtar ⅜ at 16¾ and Abitibi ⅛ at 10½.

Home Oil A was off ½ at 21½ and the B ¾ at 22¼.

Among other senior oils B-A closed ⅝ lower at 29½ and Pacific Pete ¼ at 10, a new low.

Hollinger fell 1⅛ points to 20¼ and Hudson Bay Mining one point to 73, low for the year.

Industrial volume was 142,300 shares and mines and oils 822,100 shares, compared with 183,200 and 741,600 Friday.

On index, industrials slid 1.35 at 147.97; utilities 1.17 at 132.19; banks 1.40 at 110.49; and papers 1.96 at 108.18. The composite index dropped 1.32 at 141.45.
