IN MEMORIAM

MR. FRANK J. BRADLEY

The sudden death of Mr. Frank J. Bradley on February 11, at his home 159 Weymouth Street, was a great shock to his many relatives and friends throughout the province.

The late Mr. Bradley was born in Charlottetown fifty-four years ago. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Bradley and was one of a family of nine children.

He attended Queen Square School. Upon completion of his school studies he entered the employment of the Rankine Drug Co., which was then managed by Mr. Tom Malone. Twenty-one years ago Mr. Bradley went with the Ernest Worth Drug store, Prince Street. In this capacity as well as at Rankine's he met and served the public. In fact Mr. Bradley was known far and wide for his charming friendliness and courteous business manner.

He married in 1945 Miss Marjorie Nelson who predeceased him by six months. Theirs was a very lovely and happy marriage. There are left to mourn two sisters, Miss Florence M. Bradley, Grafton St., and Mrs. L. J. (Irene) Belliveau, Moncton, and one brother, Mr. Ernest Bradley, Edmonton, Alberta; also nephew and niece, Mr. Pat McMonagle, Charlottetown; and Mrs. G. H. Tackaberry (Frances Strain), Falconbridge, Ontario; also Barbara and Billy Duffy of Charlottetown.

The largely attended funeral was held from the Hennessey Funeral Home to the St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Clarence Roche, who also conducted the service at the grave. The floral tributes were unusually beautiful. Many Mass cards and cards of sympathy were received by the family. Interment was in the Catholic Cemetery. Charlottetown drug gists attended the funeral in a body to pay tribute to a most popular member of their profession. The Pall bearers were J. E. H. Worth, E. L. Bryenton, Stewart Weir, Elmer Gallant, Ted Praught and George Craig.
