Lowie Bros are making rapid progress with S. A. McDonald's store. The new gravel roof is now finished also the brick work in the rear. Saturday the old front which has been one of the landmarks on Queen street will be torn down and a new modern stone and brick one erected in its place.

The angel of death entered the home of Malcolm R. and Mrs. McLeod and claimed their bright little jewel, Mildred Ruth, at the age of two years and four months, on Nov. 14th last. She had been very ill only two weeks of acute meningitis. Much sympathy is felt for the parents in their great bereavement.

B. D. Huntley of this city has the contract for erecting the building for the new fog alarm at Panmure Island. He commenced work this week. The alarm can be heard a distance of twelve miles, and will be operated by two compressed air engines. It will be one of the most up-to-date appliances of the kind procurable and should prove of great benefit to the winter steamers entering Georgetown harbor.

The members of Mount Joy Lodge, L. T. B., Summerfeld, entertained the members of Clark Wallace and Sentinel Lodges on Friday evening last. After a well rendered program by Mount Joy Lodge, Brother Hugh McLure of Clark Wallace Lodge, was called to the chair, when members of his lodge and Sentinel lodge took part in the evening's entertainment, after which came a sumptuous repast provided by the members of Mount Joy lodge, for which the thanks of the visiting members was tendered.

John E. Gorman, who is at present on a business trip through Nova Scotia, will arrive in this city in a few days representing as in the past Willis H. Rogers, Fulton Market, New York, and Joseph A. Rich & Co., 124 Atlantic Avenue, Boston. No person more thoroughly enjoys the confidence of the public and of his employers than Mr. Gorman, and shippers throughout this province can rely upon the most honorable treatment possible from him as formerly as he tours this province.

The Guardian of Saturday morning contained the last sermon preached by the late Dr. Dobson. Although there was a large number of extra copies printed, they soon vanished. Three hundred extra copies of the Rural Daily have been printed for those who could not get Saturday's paper. The Rural contains the sermon on first page and will retail for one cent per copy. Any person desiring one or more copies, will require to call or phone their order early this morning as there are only three hundred copies on hand.

The Church at Mount Stewart was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday last, when Pearl, daughter of Artemas Cook, Piquet, was united in marriage to Edwige Craig. Long before the appointed time, the Church was filled with guests, well as with numerous friends, who had the church decorated with ferns, plants and cut flowers. At four o'clock the bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Dr. Toombs. The bride was tastefully dressed in white silk with veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of carnations. She was attended by her cousin Jean Stewart, also dressed in cream and cream picture hat, while the groom was supported by his cousin, George Laird. After supper the company upwards of one hundred amused themselves with music, singing and dancing after which the bride and groom left for their home in Clarktown. The presents were numerous and costly, testifying to the esteem of bride and groom.
