THE MERRY WIDOW.

W. J. Lampton in New York World.

My seat!
 Where did she get that hat?
 Who ever did
 Invent a lady's lid.
 Like that?
 Who had the nerve to roll it out
 And stretch it more and more,
 From centerpiece to rim,
 'Till it spreads from shore to shore.
 And likewise lifts its summit up,
 On birds' and other wings,
 Above the earth until it scrapes
 The clouds and other things?
 Who added to the wonderous
 Of brim, so that the space
 Could easily accommodate
 An automobile race?
 Say, who done that?
 Who built her hat?
 Who made it something never seen
 On earth or in the sky,
 A flat of wide extended plain,
 A mountain towering high?
 Cut wider doors for her to get
 Inside of any place,
 And put the ceiling on the roof
 To give her nodding space.
 Push up the clouds to let her stand
 Ereth upon the ground.
 And above the wide horizon back
 To let her turn around.
 Oh, weirdly, witching, woxy hat
 That fattens out and towers—
 Who ever saw a thing like that—
 A pancake piled with flowers?
 A hat contagious—spreading? Yes,
 That names the Merry Wid.
 And she who fails to catch it should
 Slip out and change her lid.
 Gee whizz!
 What a wonder woman is!
 And my seat!
 Where DID she get that hat?
