Temporary Control Probable On Canadian Marine Unions

By ROBERT RICE

OTTAWA (CP) — Parliament may be asked next week to pass legislation imposing temporary government trusteeship on Canadian marine unions to clean up labor lawlessness on the Great Lakes waterfront, reliable sources indicated Thursday.

Both Prime Minister Pearson and Labor Minister MacEachen informed the Commons Thursday that the government is moving with all speed toward a decision on the major proposals of Mr. Justice T. G. Norris.

Mr. Pearson announced that it is "possible" that a measure based on the Norris report may be ready for action in the Commons next week — before the House adjourns for a summer recess.

He did not say what the measure would be.

However, sources indicated that the government is prepared to clamp a trusteeship on unions representing sailors, marine engineers and deck officers of Great Lakes ships.

DECIDE SOON

A decision by the cabinet is expected within a few days.

Meanwhile, Labor Minister MacEachen cancelled plans to fly to Nova Scotia this weekend to remain in Ottawa and work on a plan of action to deal with the lawless situation exposed by Mr. Justice Norris in his report.

Since receiving the Norris report July 15, government spokesmen have declared that the 318-page document is receiving urgent consideration. They have also made it clear that the implications of the Norris recommendations must be carefully weighed before any policy decision can be wisely made.

In the Commons Thursday, Opposition Leader Diefenbaker called for a speed-up in government consideration of the Norris report, warning that "very serious results may follow inaction now."

"The government is fully aware of the implications of any delays in this matter," said Mr. MacEachen.

"I am sure it would be the wish of the government to bring forward any measures as quickly as possible."

CITED THREAT

Mr. Justice Norris framed his trusteeship proposal in the light of what he said was a threat to Canada's economy and an emergency in International trade resulting from lawless actions by unions in the United States — the Seafarers, Teamsters and Longshoremen's unions.

He said these unions are causing strife and disruption to Canadian shipping in an effort to keep Hal C. Banks, SIU president in Canada, in power.

The judge, reporting after a year-long investigation of Great Lakes labor troubles, described Mr. Banks as a lawless, power-hungry dictator who dominates sailors and shipowners with terror, intimidation and violence.

He said Mr. Banks and his lieutenants should be banned from holding office in the SIU, with three trustees—a lawyer, an economist and a transport expert—taking over the union as government trustees.

The judge applied his trusteeship plan to marine transportation unions generally.

Canada Growth Said Surprising

OTTAWA (CP) — Gen. Umberto de Martino, commandant of the NATO Defence College in Paris, said here Thursday Canada's industrial growth in the past decade has surprised him and given him an object lesson that cannot be learned or taught in a classroom.

Gen. de Martino headed 72 faculty members and students on the college's second visit to North America since its establishment about 10 years ago. The college makes two tours each year of NATO member countries in Europe.

"Our tour has been a great surprise and satisfaction," he told a press conference. "We had been telling our students about the fundamental philosophies in the alliance, but to get a clear picture we must come here."

Gen. de Martino was military attache of the Italian embassy here from 1949 to 1952.

The college is intended to give senior officers of NATO armed forces a broader knowledge of international affairs and economic problems.

Veteran Fires Victory Pass

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—Old pro Bernie Faloney, fighting desperately to regain the starting quarterback job he surrendered a year ago through injuries, fired three touchdown passes Thursday night as Hamilton Tiger-Cats edged Winnipeg Blue Bombers 24-23 in an exhibition football game.

The 31-year-old Faloney, on the bench with a racked-up knee after only four games in the 1962 Eastern Conference schedule, clocked on payoff pitches to newcomers John Drew and Willie Bethea and veteran Hal Patterson.

It has been a two-man fight for the signal - calling job between Faloney and 23-year-old Joe Zuger. On his performance Thursday against the Grey Cup champions, it is Faloney—at least for the time being. Zuger started the game but he couldn't get the Ticats moving.

Don Sutherin kicked the three converts and added a single in the second quarter when his attempted field goal from the 33-yard line was wide. Zuger booted two singles.

Farrell Funston, Joe Williams and Joe Cooper scored touchdowns for Winnipeg. Gordie Rowland kicked two converts and Cliff Thornton two singles and Ernie Pitts also was awarded a single.

Race Driver Is In Trouble

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Rodger Ward, twice winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile automobile race, is in danger of not being allowed to drive in any more races sanctioned by the United States Automobile Club.

Ward was convicted in Indianapolis Wednesday of speeding and the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles said Thursday he will have to show cause why his driver's license should not be revoked because it is his second conviction in 12 months.

USAC rules require that racers have valid highway driver's licenses.

No date has been set for the hearing on Ward's license.

Richard Weaver, deputy commissioner, said Ward's conviction Wednesday and $25 on another speeding conviction last March 27 gave Ward eight points under the state system for violations. A four-point penalty was added because of two convictions in 12 months, increasing the total to 12, the limit.

Ward won the 500-mile race in 1959 and in 1962.

Negro Clergy Are Arrested

NEW YORK (AP)—Twenty-four clergymen knelt in prayer outside a Brooklyn hospital one Thursday, then marched onto a picket line and into the arms of police. They were among more than 80 persons arrested in the latest demonstration for more jobs for Negroes in the building industry.

The ministers, nearly all of them Negroes and wearing clerical garb, sought to block trucks from entering the site of the new state - financed Downstate Medical Centre in Brooklyn. They submitted to arrest without protest.

However, other pickets sat down and some were carried kicking to police vans. One group of 14 chained themselves together. Police used heavy shears to cut them apart so they could be loaded into vans.

Nearly 500 pickets have been arrested at the Brooklyn Hospital site since Monday's mass demonstration by 1,000 whites and Negroes. There were only about 130 pickets on hand Thursday, in 90 - degree temperatures.

Opening lead — three of diamonds.

It is certainly not difficult to make twelve tricks with this hand once declarer receives the favorable lead of a singleton diamond. All he has to do is play low from dummy and win East's ten with the king, draw trumps, play a diamond to the ace and another diamond back, and take the marked finesse. The only trick he loses is the ace of clubs.

However, in actual play, declarer's task is not quite that easy. The catch is that South does not know West's lead was a singleton. It is entirely possible that West may have led the three of diamonds from a holding of J-7-6-3, and, if declarer followed the line of play mentioned above, the contract would be defeated one trick.

How can South find out which is the actual case? How can he discover in time whether East or West is the player with the singleton diamond?

Here is how the declarer who played the hand solved the problem. He took the ten of diamonds with the king and drew three rounds of trumps, ending in dummy. Then he played a low club to the king, which held, and learned in the process that East had the ace of clubs.

Next he cashed two hearts and two more trumps, producing this position:

Now he led the queen of diamonds, which would have allowed him to trap the J-7-6 if West had been the player with the diamond length.

When West showed out on the diamond lead, South was by no means out of resources. He played a club to the queen, and East, forced to take the lead, had to concede the last two tricks.
