Closing Exercises For Three Senior Grades At Summerside High School

—The closing exercises of the grade X, XI and XII students of Summerside High School were carried out in the Summerside Baptist Church hall last evening before a capacity audience, with Mr. Clarence Mercer, school supervisor, acting as chairman in the unavoidable absence of the school board chairman, Mr. D. O. Stewart.

Rev. Keith Hobson, pastor of the Summerside Baptist Church, addressed the graduating grade XII class, and told the students that this was an occasion for dedication.

The valedictory was given by Miss Irene Mountain, who had the highest standing in the grade XII graduating class. During the program, two of the students, Misses Maurine Forbes and Myrna Hancock, provided a pleasing vocal duet.
