Tignish Home And School Holds Annual, Elects Slate

TIGNISH — The annual meeting of the Tignish Home and School Association was held in the school auditorium Thursday evening with the president, Russell Perry in the chair.

Sister St. Thomas, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting and correspondence which included a thank you letter from St. Peter and St. Paul school for a gift they had received at the music festival. A letter was also read from William Simpson, provincial program chairman, and a news letter from national headquarters.

The financial report for the year was given by the tressurer, John Hachett who reported a very successful year. $85 was voted for school prizes and certificates. As part of their Centennial duties for Tignish day the meeting named a guest speaker, who will to be contacted for the occasion.

Rev. Patrick Walsh was guest speaker for the meeting. He outlined the fine work carried on by many organizations for education, going back into the 19th century. Father Walsh spoke on the purposes and benefits of parent teacher organizations giving a complete outline on what home and school really is.

Speaking of children going to school he said it is like any other occupation, if they neglect to work at it, the job will only be half done and a failure. He urged the teachers and parents to encourage their children.

Indorsing Father Walsh's talk and offering a word of appreciation were: Sister St. Mary Arnold, high school principal; Very Rev. M. J. Rooney who gave a talk on the fine teachers of long ago who were graduates of St. Dunstan's and Prince of Wales college, and Wilson Shea, manager of Tignish Fisheries co-operative.

The election of officers resulted as follows: president, Gerald Handrahan; first vice-president, Mrs. Frank Arsenault; second vice-president, Mrs. Carl Getson; secretary, Sister St. Angela Marie and treasurer, Mrs. Russell Perry.

The new executive will attend the annual meeting of the Provincial Home and school meeting in Charlottetown today.

Youth Rallies Planned For Crusade

SUMMERSIDE — Two youth rallies will be held in the Prince County area in preparation for the forthcoming Billy Graham-Joe Blinco crusade. This information has been released by Archie Clark and Charles Ballem, co-chairman for the crusade.

The special film "Souls In Conflict", which was prepared during the New York crusade will be shown at both meetings in addition to special gospel singing and other familiar church hymns. Information on "youth night" for the crusade will also be released.

It is expected there will be a large attendance of young people from all centres in Prince County.

Centennial Day Date Is Changed

TIGNISH — Centennial Day has been changed from July 24, to Wednesday July 15, it was decided at a Centennial meeting held in Tignish during the past week. An Eastern Canadian Age Class Track and Field championship in Summerside on July 24 of interest to a large number of youths was the reason for advanced date.

The day will commence with religious activites and from then on a full program of events will be held.

Representatives of the various committee for entertainment and children's events were in attendance at the meeting. It was reported a Centennial report will be forwarded to the chairman, Rev. Floyd McGaugh within a short time, outlining definite plans of organizations on that day.

All organizations and business firms are expected to have floats ready for the parade July 15.

The secretary, Aubin J. Gallant read the minutes of the previous meeting and correspondence.

All Out Blood Appeal Made For Tignish Area Donor Clinic

TIGNISH — "Be a Centennial Blood Donor", a slogan adopted for 1964 by the Provincial Red Cross blood donor committee will be the challenge at Tignish Thursday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock when residence will see if they can exceed their quoto of 150 donors for the fourth consecutive year and five times in the past six years keeping them high on the list for the Manning and Legion trophies.

The clinic this year is expected to test the pioneer spirit of every resident of the entire community, as it comes in the busiest hours both for farmers, fishermen and factory workers.

Anyone in good health between the ages of 18 and 65 is asked to give so Tignish can achieve the desired 100 per cent response as part of its Centennial celebrations.

Wilson Shea, manager of Tignish Fisheries Co-operative, informed Red Cross workers that he will do all he can to get his staff out during the two-hour period.

Arthur J. DesRoches, chairman of the clinic that is sponsored by the Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 6 is making a special appeal for donors that day. Members of the Ladies Auxiliary, and the Tignish Council of the Catholic Women's League will be in charge of refreshments, registration and assisting the Red Cross nurses.

Welcome

Association of Canadian Clubs

To Charlottetown

This year the province of Prince Edward Island is celebrating one of the most important dates in Canadian history — the 100th anniversary of the first Confederation Conference of Canada. The high adventure of Confederation was embarked upon in Charlottetown on September 1, 1864. Top statesmen from Upper and Lower Canada joined with leaders from Canada's seaside colonies, who were actually gathered to discuss maritime union, and steered the deliberations in the direction of a broader union. The proposal resulted in the joining, three years later, of all British North American colonies into one vast Federal entity stretching from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. Thus was born the Dominion of Canada.

On a bronze mural in historic Confederation Chamber in Charlottetown the spirit of the Fathers of Confederation meeting is captured by the following phrase inscribed thereon: PROVIDENCE BEING THEIR GUIDE THEY BUILDED BETTER THAN THEY KNEW. We welcome you, may your deliberations be fruitful.
