KIDNAPPED GIRL TO PROVE NERVE.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15— New light is thrown on the attempted abduction of Miss Anna T. Steckel, the Allentown heiress, by a statement, his first, issued from his cell by Samuel Sinclair, Jr., the suitor whose attempt to steal her was thwarted. Sinclair exonerates his companion, Walter Starr, of any complicity in the kidnapping plans, denies that any harm was intended to Miss Steckel, and intimates that the affair was planned and carried out by him because Miss Steckel is alleged to have said that she wished to be wooed by a man who had "the nerve to do something worthy of winning her."

Exhausted Nerves Sleepless Nights

Continually Grew Worse Until Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Restored Vigor and Strength.

Mrs. Campbell.

What misery to lie awake nights and think of all sorts of things without being able to get the rest and sleep which is necessary to restore the nervous energy wasted in the tasks of the day.

This symptom of sleeplessness is one of the surest indications of an exhausted nervous system. You must have sleep or a breakdown is certain. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food feeds the feeble, wasted nerves back to health and strength. In a few days you obtain the natural, restful sleep which helps so materially in restoring vitality to the nerves and strength to the whole body.

Mrs. Sarah Campbell, 108 Alma street, St. Thomas, Ont., writes: "For months I was so bothered with nervousness that I could not sleep nights. There were other symptoms of exhausted nerves, but none caused so much misery, and I found myself continually getting worse.

"Seeing Dr. Chase's Nerve Food advertised, I was not long before I noticed some improvement in my case. It built up the nervous system gradually, strengthened the nerves, enabled me to rest and sleep well.

"Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, 5 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Gentlemen,—I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT from time to time for the past twenty years. It was recommended to me by a prominent physician of Montreal, who called it the "great Nova Scotia Liniment." It does the doctor's work; it is particularly good in cases of Rheumatism and Sprains.

Yours truly,

Chartered Accountant.

NOTED ACTOR'S RETIREMENT.

LONDON, Jan. 18—Congratulations a-plenty poured in upon J. Forbes-Robertson today to remind him of his sixtieth birthday anniversary. Mingled with the felicitous greetings, which came from friends and admirers on both sides of the Atlantic, were many expressions of regret over the prospective retirement of the noted actor, who has announced that the coming season will be his last behind the footlights.

DR. NELSON DEAD.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16—Dr. Wildred Nelson, a former president of the Canadian Society of New York, died here last night. Dr. Nelson was born in Montreal. He was a grandson of Wilfred Nelson, one of the leaders of the Canadian rebellion of 1837. He was educated at McGill, and took up practice in New York. He spent some years in practice in South America and in the old Panama Canal zone. Later he went as a sanitary expert to Cuba and aided in establishing the sanitary measures which banished yellow fever from the island. Dr. Nelson was always strongly attached to Canada, and was instrumental in founding the Canadian society. He was also a member of the British Schools and Colleges Club, and the McGill University graduate society. He leaves a widow and one daughter. Heart disease was the cause of death.

PREMIER ROBLIN DENOUNCES RALPH CONNOR

WINNIPEG, Jan. 15—In his speech in the legislature yesterday on the McDonald bye-election, Premier Roblin referred to Rev. Charles W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) whom he described as a "political parson." Sir Redmond declared that a parson who descended from the pulpit to mix in party politics deserved all he got. Speaking of the resolution condemning the McDonald election methods, passed by the Presbyterian Synod at Brandon, Sir Redmond declared they have been introduced by the machinations of a designing, political parson who condemned and approved of the Liberal debauchery.

The Premier termed R. L. Richardson, the defeated candidate in McDonald, "the essence of irresponsible political excrescence." He read an affidavit from Frank Turcotte in which the latter declared he had spent three hundred dollars received from Woodrow at the Liberal executive office on whiskey in the interests of Richardson. He absolved the Liberals of Manitoba from responsibility, and declared the money and whiskey was brought in by Frank Oliver and Thomas McNutt and his heelers from Saskatchewan.

"I report that this resolution was engineered by Rev. Gordon to besmirch and injure the government of this province. I charge him today with being the man who supports corruption and immorality and the degenerate conditions of which I have submitted ample and sufficient proof to convince any reasonable man."

The Kidneys Are To Blame

WHEN A WOMAN'S BACK IS NOT STRONG.

Women are coming to understand that weak, lame and aching backs from which they suffer are due to wrong action of the kidneys.

The kidneys are overtaxed,—given more work than they can possibly do—then they cry out in protest through the pain in the back.

When the back aches and pains it is almost impossible to do her housework, for every move and turn means pain.

On the first sign of backache Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken so as to avoid all this suffering.

Mrs. Harvey W. Brownell, Northport, N.S., writes:—"I now take pleasure in writing you, stating the benefit I received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About a year ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad at times I could not sweep my own floor. While looking through B.B.B. Almanac, I saw Doan's Kidney Pills were a great kidney remedy, so thought I would try a box or two. I did so and found great relief. After using five boxes I was completely cured, and I am very thankful to have found so speedy a cure."

Price, 50 cents a box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct, specify "Doan's."

The total grain crop of the Province for 1912 was 182,357,494 bushels, being twenty-two million bushels more than the preceding year.

GIVES UP HUSBAND TO GIRL HE SAVED.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 15.—Immediately after the announcement of William Stewart that he would marry the girl to whom he gave three pints of his blood to save her life, if he could get a divorce, came the announcement from Stewart's wife that he can have Miss Balvering, whose life was saved by the transfusion of blood. She has been suffering from hemorrhages. A transfusion of blood was necessary and Stewart, who was friendly with the girl, offered himself to the physician.

POPE WILL MOVE BODY.

ROME, Jan. 16—Pope Pius, according to an authoritative statement from the Vatican today, has determined finally upon the removal of the body of Pope Leo XIII from the temporary tomb in St. Peter's to a magnificent permanent sepulchre, completed several years before the late Pope's death in the Church of St. John Lateran.

In accordance with the customs of centuries, the body of Pope Leo should have been removed to the tomb which he caused to be built within one year after his demise, but Pope Pius X hesitated, fearing a repetition of the distressing scenes that accompanied the removal of the body of Pope Leo's predecessor, Pope Pius IX. At that time a mob of anti-clericals and Socialists attacked the funeral cortege, and almost dragged the pontiff's body from the hearse.

The Italian Government has repeatedly assured the Vatican that such an occurrence could not happen again, and has guaranteed military and police protection, but up to now Pope Pius has hesitated to attempt the undertaking.

Valuable Horse Saved By "Nerviline"

Was Too Sore and Lame to Work Quickly Cured by Nerviline.

"I have had a long experience in treating horses, and I can safely say that I know of no liniment for strains, sprains, and swelling that is so useful around the stable as Nerviline." Thus writes Mr. J. E. Murchison, from his home, Crofts Hill, P. O. "I had a fine young mare that wrenched her right foreleg, and from the shoulder down she was stiff, sore, and swollen. I applied Nerviline, and it worked like a charm; in fact, that mare was in shape to work a day after I used Nerviline."

"We have used Nerviline on our farm for twenty-five years, and never found it wanting. For man or beast it is a wonderful liniment."

Five thousand letters recommend Nerviline as a general household liniment, as an all-round cure for aches and pains. Try it yourself.

POISON MYSTERY STIRS LONDON

LONDON, Jan. 16—A poison mystery which may possibly develop into a full blown tragedy is the sensation of the hour in London. In September of last year, Hugh Eric Trevanion, aged 27, a grandson of Sir Daniel Cooper, a cousin of the Earl of Strathmore, and also related to the Right Hon. Walter Long, and Lord Northland died, presumably from an overdose of veronal. Curiously enough, at the inquest, at which a verdict was returned of death through misadventure, the question of holding a postmortem examination was decided in the negative, but Mr. Trevanion's mother was dissatisfied with the decision and got permission from the Home Secretary, Mr. McKenna, to have the body exhumed for the purpose of discovering the cause of death.

It appears that shortly before coming of age Trevanion suffered severely from insomnia, after which he became addicted to the use of drugs. At the time of his death he was sharing a luxurious flat at Hove, Brighton, with a friend of the name of Roe. On the night of his death Trevanion retired early. Later on he told his friend Roe, who had gone to his room, that he had taken an overdose of veronal.

The question to be decided is whether the veronal or some poison was self administered or otherwise. The dead man was worth some $400,000.
