MRS. WILLARD LEARD

The death occurred at her home in Borden on January 3rd 1963, of Mrs. Willard Leard in her eightieth year. Mrs. Leard formerly Harriet May MacWilliams was born in Cape Traverse, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George MacWilliams. She lived there and moved there until in 1901 she married Willard Leard of Tryon. In 1916 they came to Borden to live and were one of the first families to reside in Borden.

Hattie as she was familiarly known, will be remembered by her many friends for her great kindness, always willing to lend a helping hand and ready to share the hospitality of her home with all.

There are left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother, her husband, two sons Urville and Ralph and one daughter Mrs. Grace Currie, all of Borden, seventeen grandchildren, and twelve great-grandchildren; also a sister Mildred, Mrs. Elmer Francis of Windsor, Conn., and two brothers George MacWilliams of Cape Traverse and Leeman MacWilliams, Augustine Cove.

Funeral service was held from the Free Church of Kensington, Cape Traverse with Rev. Kenneth Cameron officiating.

The bearers were Frank Newman Sigsworth, Colin Love, Irving MacDonald, Russell Bell, Gilbert Bell and James Carruthers.

Flower bearers were, Frank MacWilliams, Norman MacWilliams, Eldon MacWilliams, Wendell MacWilliams, Hazen MacWilliams, Dale MacWilliams, Lloyd MacWilliams and Roy Cutcliffe.

Burial was in the Church of Scotland cemetery at Cape Traverse.

JOHN A. MacDONALD

Neighbours and friends of Brooklyn and surrounding districts were saddened to learn of the passing on the 29th. of December 1962, of John A. (Jack) MacDonald in his 82nd year.

Archie was always hospitable in his home and keenly interested in his community. He took an active interest in the young people and was responsible for the organization of a 4-H Club and served as the first leader. He was a position he capably filled for five years. He participated in all worthwhile community activities and was always helpful at times when a friend or neighbour experienced illness or trouble.

Expressing a cheerful disposition he made a wide circle of friends as he carried on his business as a butcher, in which he was noted for his integrity and fairness. Due to ill health he was forced to discontinue active business about a year before his death.

During his illness he was tenderly cared for by his loving wife, the former Janette MacKinnon, who will sorely miss his presence in the home. He is also survived by one brother Malcolm of Grandview and six step children, Mildred, Mrs. George Toombs, Rustico, Lona, Mrs. Wayne Hobbs, Lyna Lake, Montreal, Lillian, Mrs. Ralph Daly, Whitman Road, Francis, Jackie, and Kenneth, at home, also a cousin Eleanor Smith, R.N. of Los Angeles, California who visited him in September.

The funeral was held from the Valleyfield United Church. Rev. Dr. Bell conducted the service. To the bereaved. The hymns sung by the choir were, "Rock Of Ages", "Will The Circle Be Unbroken", The hymn "The Christian's Goodnight", was beautifully rendered by the Bethany Trio.

When ties of love are broken And loved ones have to part. It leaves a wound that never heals

And also a broken heart.

Closing sales: Industrials 226,100; mines and oils 365,600.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP)—Buoyant International Nickel led the stock market into higher ground Thursday, snapping a three-day industrial losing streak.

Strong buying began in Inco shortly after noon, boosting the stock to 72¼, ahead 2⅝.

Generally, industrials showed most strength near mid-day, climbing almost two points on index. By the close, the main index had given up a small part of its gain.

Gold Market, which declared a 25-cent extra dividend, gained 1½ to 32¼. Moore Corporation advanced ⅞, Abitibi ¼ and CPR, Consolidated Paper and Walker Gooderham ⅛ each.

Atlas Steel continued to attract big block buyers, recording four pocket-size transactions in its fairly heavy volume. Atlas rose ¼ to 37. Massey-Ferguson traded a block of 25,000 shares, but its price was unchanged at 12¼.

Banks gave a weakening industrial undertone, with Royal off 1⅞, Toronto-Dominion down ⅞ and Montreal and Nova Scotia both down ¼.

On the exchange index, industrials rose 1.33 to 288.22 and base metals 0.20 to 200.20. Golds dipped .03 to 91.56 and western oils .13 to 116.45. Closing volume was 3,348,000 shares compared with 3,070,000 Wednesday.

In base metals, Hudson Bay Mining declined ½. Denison ¼ and Noranda ⅜. Falconbridge gained ¼.
