—WEDDING—At St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora, on Tuesday, Sept. 30th, at 8 o'clock a. m., took place a very pretty wedding. The contracting parties were Mr. Thomas E. Deighan and Miss Laura Mabel Murphy, both of Emerald. Mr. James Murphy supported the groom, while Miss Margaret Deighan attended as bridesmaid. Rev. J. J. Macdonald tied the knot, after which the happy couple and their attendants drove to Summerside, where they partook of a specially prepared dinner in one of the leading hotels. On returning to the home of the bride's parents, they were met by a number of immediate friends. Congratulations were extended and a large number of wedding presents presented. Mr. and Mrs. Deighan are very popular, and good wishes without number are extended to them, that their journey through life may be fraught with happiness and prosperity.—E.

—O'LEARY.—The autumn produce of the country surrounding this village has begun to make its appearance for shipment. The crop this year is by no means inferior to that of former years, so that O'Leary will soon take on the business appearance for which it is noted. Customers would do well to note that the merchants here have decided to close their stores at six o'clock on all evenings, except Wednesday and Saturday, during the busy season from now till Christmas. This change meets the approval of all the clerks and it also gives the farmers a chance to do their shopping after the day's work.

—WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place at St. Mark's Rectory, Kensington, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, when Mary Jane, daughter of Charles and Esther Caseley, and Milford Adams, son of Russel and Mrs. Adams, of Sea View, were united in Holy Bonds of matrimony, by the Rev. A. W. Watson. The bride looked charming in a navy blue suit of velvet, with hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Alberta, who wore blue pongee silk, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Preston Champion, Baltic. After the nuptial service, they attended by Miss Margaret Deighan, a reception, and awaited them. Their many friends heartily extend congratulations and bespeak for Mr. and Mrs. Adams years of prosperity and happiness.

—MURPHY-DEIGHAN.—St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora, was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday morning, Sept. 30th, when Thomas E., son of Mr. and Mrs. Deighan, Emerald, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Laura Mabel eldest daughter of John T. and Mrs. Murphy of Newton. The bride, who is a very popular young lady looked charming in her dress of cream satin with trimmings of all over lace, white plush hat with two large white plumes and ostrich band. She was attended by Miss Margaret Deighan, a sister of the groom, who wore a becoming dress of blue silk with black velvet hat and plumes, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. James A. Murphy, brother of the bride. After the marriage ceremony which was performed by the pastor Rev. J. J. Macdonald, the day being an ideal one the wedding party drove to Summerside and partook of dinner at the Empress Hotel. In the evening they returned to the home of the bride, where a large number of friends and relatives awaited to extend congratulations. Rev. J. T. Murphy of St. Dunstan's College, cousin of the bride, and Rev. J. J. Macdonald were among the number of those who sat down to the elaborate wedding supper. The dining room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with ever greens and potted plants. The wedding presents were many and beautiful including chaises, cut glass, silverware, etc., testifying to the popularity of the bride and groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold locket and chain set with pearls. To the bridesmaid a beautiful gold brooch and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. The evening was pleasantly spent in music, and songs being rendered by Fathers John J. Macdonald and J. T. Murphy. Then dancing was indulged in for a few hours after which all departed to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Deighan a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

—WEDDING BELLS.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hardy, Montrose, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the evening of Wednesday 1st inst., when their daughter Barbara was united in the bonds of Holy Matrimony to Mr. Allan Clark of Alma. The service being performed by the Rev. J. H. MacHattie of Brookfield, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Montrose. The parlor being decorated for the occasion with flowers and autumn leaves. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a dress of white crepe de chene trimmed with white satin, and overlace. She wore a veil and carried a bouquet of white asters. Miss Mary Clark, sister of the groom acted as bridesmaid, and wore a dress of cream muslin veiling trimmed with satin and lace and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas, while the brother of the bride, Mr. Ramsay Hardy acted as groomsmen. The groom presented to the bride was a beautiful fur muff, the other presents being numerous and costly, among them being a purse presented to the bride by members of the Presbyterian Church, Montrose, where she had acted as organist for a number of years. After partaking of a supper which was gotten up in first class style, and served in three courses, the guests departed for their homes, wishing the couple a long and happy married life.—A
