PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND ENTERED CONFEDERATION ONE OF THE TERMS OF UNION WAS CONTINUOUS COMMUNICATION WITH THE MAINLAND.

The following interesting article written by Mrs. Catherine Macleod of Regina, Sask., will be read with interest by many friends in this Province. Mrs. Macleod is a daughter of the late Mr. John Ross, publisher of the Weekly, Charlottetown. Her husband the late Mr. C. A. Macleod was for many years book-keeper for Bremner Bros. in this city and started a lobster business in the Cove, New London, on the Macleod farm where he was born. In the early years of the lobster industry Mr. Macleod shipped hundreds of cases yearly to Liverpool, England, where the "Keystone" brand found a ready sale.

Great-West Life Has Satisfactory Year

Advance figures dealing with business for the year 1936 have just been released by The Great-West Life Assurance Company, and will be found in published form elsewhere in this issue. Reflecting a very encouraging outlook for the present year, some of the highlights of the Report follow: Business in Force now amounts to $575,844,591, an increase of $9,000,000. This figure is large and hard to grasp, but literally it means financial protection spread over hundreds of thousands of persons in all walks of life. Assets amount to $150,005,674, up $6,405,781. It should be remembered that this money, held in trusteeship for thousands of policyholders, is carefully invested in well diversified channels, and contributes materially to the progress of the country at large.

Goff-Burwell Nuptials

Before a fireplace banked with white chrysanthemums and white snapdragons and lighted by the soft light of white tapers on the mantel Miss Barbara Burwell became the bride of Dr. Willard F. Goff last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anson S. Burwell. Dr. Goff is the son of Mrs. Richard C. Goff. The service, read by the Rev. L. Wendell Fifield, was witnessed by the immediate family and a small group of friends. The bride wore a gown of lamp-light sateen fashioned with a square neckline trimmed with a small collar of rose point and duchess lace, long sleeves and the skirt extended into a circular train. Her tulle veil was caught with clusters of orange blossoms at either side of her head and the cap was edged with a band of rose point and duchess lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses, freesias and lilies of the valley. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Frederick A. Burwell. Mrs. Frederick A. Burwell, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of turquoise blue crepe. It was a shirtwaist model made with a full skirt, high neckline, pointed collar and buttoned to the waist. She wore a coronet of pink roses in her hair and carried a bouquet of roses in the same shade. Little Sarah Ann Church, niece of the bride, and Marjorie Goff, the bridegroom's niece, were the flower girls. They were dressed in like which of frocks over pink and their sashes were of turquoise blue velvet. They wore turquoise blue hair ribbons and carried small bouquets of Cecil Brunner roses and forget-me-nots. Carolyn Goff and Evelyn Chittenden, nieces of the bridegroom, held the white satin ribbons forming the aisle for the wedding party. Neville Goff was his brother's best man. Presiding the service Mrs. Margaret Moxie Hemmion sang "Because" and "At Dawning" Sidney Jones played the wedding march. Mrs. Burwell, the bride's mother, was in a black net model embroidered in white and wore a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Goff chose a gown of wine red tulle velvet for her son's wedding. Her corsage was of a deeper shade red carnations.

Following the ceremony Miss Alberta Chillet and Mrs. Kenneth Morford assisted in the dining room. Pouring in the dining room were Miss Katherine Church and Mrs. James Allan. APPRECIATION

A letter of appreciation to the members of New London Parish Womens Auxiliary (Anglican) has been received by Mrs. Henry G. Mill, Kensington P. E. I. from Mrs. George Whitehead, Cornwall, Sask. dated January 14th 1937. Dear Mrs. Mill:—You will be wondering who is writing to you I sent a letter to Mrs. Matheu, Regina, asking her if she had anything she could send me for my children. I have five boys and two girls. I have her their ages from 9 years the baby a boy, will be two in May. She sent me two lovely hand knit sweaters, three loques and mits, your card and mits were in the pair of lovely mits and I am writing to thank you and all the rest that helped for their kindness. I don't know a thing about P. E. Island but it must be a wonderful place where you always get a good crop and have enough and to help the dried out areas in the West. We are having a cold spell. It was 30 below zero this morning the children came in crying and said they wished the cold and snow would go away.

The only place I go in winter is to the childrens Christmas tree in the school three miles away. I can't knit but am kept busy patching and making or anything I can get. I hope we can grow a crop and have a garden this year. If we would only get lots of rain. I am 37 years old, would like to enjoy life some but it is hard work just to live. Once more let me thank you and all for their kindness to the drough stricken people of Saskatchewan and thanks very much for those lovely mits. Your Unknown Friend MARGARET WHITEHEAD
