

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

FIRST EXCHANGE portfolio from Red Cross Juniors in China is admired by Gerald Wong, Canadian Junior and his fellow-member, Red Cross Juniors in Canadian schools, some 865,000 strong, further international understanding by this exchange with 36,000,000 others throughout the world, also give practical aid by sending relief supplies to children in war-torn countries. (Photo Canadian Red Cross.)

President Truman has disclosed that General Eisenhower has been recalled to his country's service as chairman of the United States joint chiefs of staff. Washington gave no inkling of any new critical turn in world events in connection with the appointment. Officials said one of Eisenhower's chief tasks will centre on ending the old feud among the army, navy and air force. Eisenhower left the service early in 1948 to become president of Columbia University, in which capacity he is seen above. He has been given temporary leave of absence from there.

Historic document for the fishing industry these men are examining is the agreement signed by the U. S., Canada and eight other maritime nations, to establish an international advisory and information commission on the Northwest Atlantic fishing grounds. Left to right: A. T. A. Dobson, United Kingdom; B. Dinesen, Denmark; Stewart Bates, Canada; Klaus Sunnans, Norway, and Wilbert M. Chapman, U.S.

ROLAND BEAUDRY HOLDS HIS FLAG DESIGN
Roland Beaudry, a 42-year-old journalist, is in the position of an athletic sub who goes into the game and takes the spotlight. The backbench Liberal for Montreal-St. James has already caused a stir on three separate occasions since Parliament opened at Ottawa a week ago Wednesday. Beaudry introduced his own idea of a national flag into the House. He took a hefty swing at Rt. Hon. Douglas Abbott, Minister of Finance, on his own side of the House, over income taxes. Then he made a gibe at George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, which had members of that party red-faced with anger.

Actor Robert Mitchum (second from right) and movie starlet Lila Leeds (left) face the bench in Los Angeles court as they received jail sentences of 60 days each and two years' probation on a marijuana conviction. Standing with them are their attorneys, Grant Cooper (second from left) and Jerry Geisler (right).

One of the top-ranking Great Danes in North America, Pingrad's Champion Duchess, will be at the Westminster dog show in Madison Square Garden, New York, this month. Her owner recently turned down $3,000 for her and four of her puppies have brought $2,250. "Duchess" is shown here with Betty Corley.

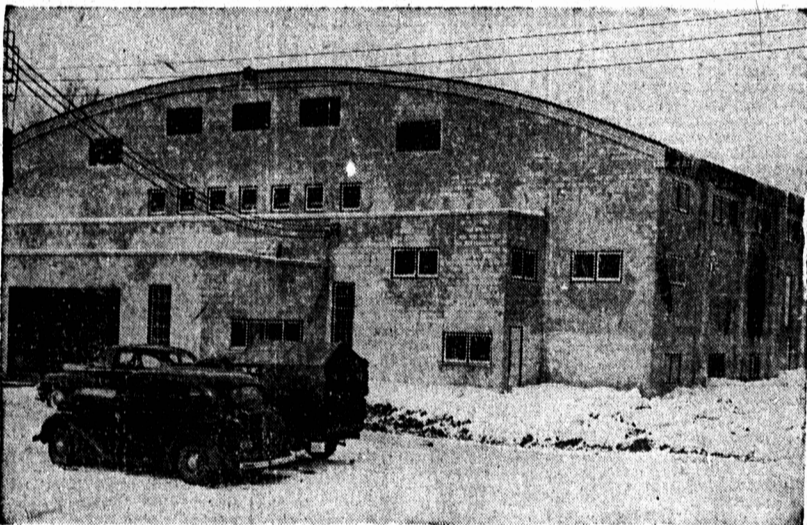

Acting President Li Tsung-Jen, who assumed presidential duties when Chiang Kai-shek relinquished the reins in National China, is shown with members of the Nationalist high echelon shortly after he took office in Nanking. Li immediately appointed a peace commission to negotiate with the Communists with a view to bringing about a cease fire and opening of peace talks.

The Huntsman's horn sounded and British royalty took to the trails in a special hunt staged to honor Prince Bernhard, consort of Queen Juliana of the Netherlands who is in England on a visit. Starting out on the Beaufort hunt with the Prince is the Duchess of Norfolk, one of Britain's leading peeresses. While in Britain Prince Bernhard is staying with the Duke of Beaufort.

About as confused as this picture was the trading on the floor of the Chicago corn pit, where the camera recorded traders in the midst of their hand-signals during a widely fluctuating session. Jitters were soothed somewhat after the government moved in on the grain market to fill foreign commitments.

A memorial arena, dedicated to the memory of the Bracebridge men killed in the Second World War is now in operation. New arena will cater to needs of Bracebridge, Ont., and district for many years. Not only hockey for the boys but figure skating and general skating is provided. Building will be used in summer also.

Two Russian fliers, Lt. Peter Pirogov (left) and Lt. Anatole Barzov (right), at Westover Field, Mass. The Red airmen escaped from their base in Poland and crash-landed in the U. S. zone of Austria. They said a Voice of America broadcast made them want to see the state of Virginia. They are now on their way to the Old Dominion and will be the guest of the State Chamber of Commerce.

Welland's third visit by a Prime Minister is recorded as Mr. and Mrs. St. Laurent move through the crowd which greeted them at mass at Sacred Heart church. Other premier visitors were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, 1896, Sir John A. Macdonald, 1888.

Nat Tehnens, lessee of the huge Milburn empire vaudeville and movie theatre in London, Eng., has brushed aside protests against his plan to stage an exhibition boxing bout between a man and 18-year-old Barbara Buttrick, the "boxing typist." "The show goes on," he announced. The variety artists federation executive committee decided to inform Tehnens of their "repugnance and opposition" to the plan and called upon him to abandon the exhibition. Mickey Wood, Miss Buttrick's trainer, said: "There are women lion tamers, snake charmers, trapeze artists. Why should not this girl box? She lives for boxing. In seven months she has trained two hours a day without any injury."

Philip Edwards, of London, England, shown here with his bride, advertised for a wife weighing not less than 196 pounds. The new Mrs. Edwards weighing 262 pounds filled the bill and romantically speaking, bowled Mr. Edwards over. The latter was a widower whose former wife weighed 210 pounds.