FERTILIZERS

We can fill your orders for either CHEMICALS or MIXED GOODS, for POTATOES — TURNIPS — GRAIN — HAY and PASTURES, at lowest prices.

Last spring we put on a truck for delivering Fertilizer direct from Island Fertilizer Plant to the farmers' barns, which proved a very popular and satisfactory service to our many customers, and we are offering the same service again this year and will start making deliveries as soon as the roads are fit for hauling.

Book your orders early, so we can arrange delivery whenever you want it. We make free delivery to all points in the vicinity of Charlottetown, and at a small extra charge for outside points according to the distance from the Plant.

Call or mail us your order as soon as possible, so we can guarantee early delivery at your home.

We cordially solicit the fertilizer business from our new customers as well as our old ones.

Represent Unemployed

Routine reports were submitted to the meeting. Before the regular session opened a delegation representing the unemployed, headed by Mr. H. K. S. Hemming, outlined to the council the proposed system of garden plots and requested financial assistance. Other members of the delegation, all of whom spoke in favor of the project urging support from the council, included Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D. D., Major T. E. McNutt and Mr. D. A. MacKinnon. It was anticipated that about 40 would ask for plots and that the cost for tools, seeds, fertilizer and other minor items would be $10, the council was informed.

Committee Reports

Although collections of taxes had increased over last year they were by no means satisfactory, Coun. R. C. Chandler, chairman of the finance committee said in his report. Collection of arrears had not been so good but was probably due to the fact that the man who did the collecting was employed in the relief office a month later than last year. It was anticipated collections would improve this month. Expenditure to the end of April was $7400 in excess of the previous year.

There was just routine work in his department, Coun. A. A. Hennessey, chairman of streets reported. Because of the wet season there had been a lot of very bad dirt streets which had to be looked after. All the machinery had been repaired and had contributed to the increased expenditure of his department over last year.

Twenty-nine men were at work in Victoria Park and on the roadway, Coun. J. E. Blanchard, chairman of public property committee announced. They were doing good work cleaning up, the Councillor said.

Coun. J. T. McKee, chairman of unemployment and relief said he had no report but was introducing a resolution.

The police report was read by Coun. Heath McIntyre, chairman of the police committee. Discussion concerning whether police should continue to act as dog catchers followed the reading of their report. It was left in the hands of the Police Chairman to decide whether to appoint a special catcher.

Coun. F. C. Dougan, chairman of the tender committee and Coun. B. R. Holman chairman of the market committee announced they had nothing to report.

Coun. J. T. McKee, chairman of fire and light, said there was little to report concerning fires. Repair of ornamental lights on Queen, Grafton, Richmond and Great George Streets was almost complete. Under the new arrangement, whereby the Maritime Electric Company will provide the current and maintain the lights at no extra cost, that section of the city would be much better lighted.

Following Coun. McKee's report Mayor Foster announced that the chairman of fire and light had reconsidered his resignation and on request would continue to act.

Activities of Delegation

Mayor Foster then gave his report of the activities of the special delegation appointed to interview the government at a special meeting last week. Reference to the report was made above. Coun. Holman said he was surprised at the report. It was a most important thing, the delegation had to present and time was an important factor. One thing was certain the city could not continue relief unless there was a guarantee of support from the government.

Coun. Chandler said his impression was that the Premier had said that he might not be able to meet the delegation Saturday morning and that the appointment had not been made definite.

Coun. McIntyre agreed with Coun Holman that the time element was important as the projects needed to be brought to the attention of the government before the supplementary estimates were brought down at Ottawa.

Coun. Chandler said he had written to the Department of Mines and Resources calling attention to the condition of the breastwork at Fort Edward. He had sent a copy of the letter to the two Queen's County representatives and anticipated action.

Appointed Caretaker

The meeting appointed Albert McLeod caretaker for Hillsborough and King Squares. An amendment to the resolution authorizing his appointment was moved by Coun. Hennessey, seconded by Coun. McKee, to the effect that Cephus McInnis be appointed to the position. On division Couns. Hennessey, McKee and Dougan voted for, and Couns. Chandler, Holman, Blanchard and McIntyre against the amendment. When the original motion was put the vote was reversed.

Before the meeting adjourned a by-law to establish and regulate a restricted building zone in the city was introduced for second reading. After short discussion second reading was left for a special meeting as several councillors expressed the opinion they were not familiar enough with certain aspects to vote last night.

Communications

Communications last night included requests for pavement on Bishop and Cumberland Streets. Both letters were referred to the Street committee. A letter was read from Mrs. Lou Clinton, 343 Grafton Street claiming damages for injuries sustained when she fell on the street last January. The accident was caused by the icy condition of the sidewalk, the letter alleged. The matter was handed to City Recorder Martin for a report at the next meeting.

Appointment of a City representative to a Board, as provided by an act passed at the last session of the legislature, for the protection of milk producers and vendors was left in the hands of the Mayor. He will bring in a recommendation which will be presented to the council for approval.

A letter was read from Mr. P. W. Turner, local representative of the Dominion Rubber Company concerning statements made about fire hose purchased from his company. After discussion the letter was placed on file.

POLICE INVESTIGATE THEFT—City police were investigating yesterday the disappearance over the weekend of approximately $48 from the office of A. Horne & Co.'s garage on Kent Street. The money was left in the office Saturday night by a member of the staff and was missing yesterday morning. No sign of a break was to be found, however, and no explanation could be given as to how thieves could enter and leave the building unless someone remained concealed in an automobile Saturday night. The cashier believed he placed the money in the safe as usual, police said. The safe had not appeared to have been tampered with however.

WEDDING BELLS — A wedding of interest took place recently in Windsor, Ontario, when Miss Edna Moore of Toronto was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Diamond, formerly of Prince Edward Island, eldest son of Mrs. Ruth L. Diamond of Elmsdale, Ontario. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a floor length gown of pink satin, fashioned on princess lines and a veil of pink French net extended from a coronet of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of pink Talisman roses. Miss Minnie Moon, twin sister of the bride, assisted her sister as matron of honor, wore azure blue silk and carried yellow roses. Miss Marie Moon another sister of the bride, wearing mauve silk and carrying yellow flowers, assisted her sister as bridesmaid. Mr. Thomas Matthews of Windsor assisted Mr. Diamond as best man. Following the ceremony, officiated by the Rev. W. B. Barnes, a reception was held at the Manor. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moon wore navy blue silk and a corsage of roses. Mrs. Diamond, the bridegroom's mother chose navy blue sheer and lace and a corsage of roses and sweet peas. Several out of town guests, from Toronto, Hamilton, Detroit and Boston, Mass., attended the wedding. Amid an array of magnificent gifts and many hearty congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Diamond departed on a short honeymoon trip through the States.

Organization Of Workmen's Association

An organization meeting of the Queens County Workmen's Association was held in the L.P.U. Hall last night and was largely attended.

The following officers were elected:

President: Joseph J. Trainor.
Vice-President: Reginald Bell.
Secretary-Treasurer: Reginald Mahar.
Executive Committee: Daniel Gillis, Thomas Bell, Ivan Mahar, Daniel Chipman ,William Bell, Mark Spencer, Joseph Purcell, Thomas Mathieson, Lemuel Rush, Walter McInnis, Stanley Steele, Fred Larkin, Daniel Coughlan, Pieton Brown.

The Association membership, it was announced ,is in the vicinity of 500.

A committee under the chairmanship of Philip Bambrick, previously appointed to interview the Provincial Government, was instructed to report at the next meeting of the Association tomorrow night, when it is planned also to discuss by-laws and other business.

ily which holds an honored place in the history of this province. The Most Rev. Bernard McDonald, second Bishop of Charlottetown was her maternal grand uncle and the Rev. Ronald B. McDonald, late pastor of Souris her uncle. Another uncle, John McDonald of Bedeque, father of the Rev. John A. McDonald, present pastor of Tignish, was a member of the local legislature for many years and speaker of the house about 40 years ago.

Of the 60 years of Mother Superior's religious life 56 were spent in the cause of education in this Province. She received her early education at the Convent of Notre Dame, Bellevue, Quebec. At the age of 17 she entered the novitiate of the congregation of Notre Dame at Montreal and made her religious profession in 1878. She then taught in the Province of Quebec for four years before returning to Prince Edward Island. After a brilliant career of 18 years at Tignish Convent and Notre Dame Academy in Charlottetown, where she taught the graduating class, Mother St. Catherine was made Superior of the Academy, a position in which she continued for 18 years. Under her skillful direction Notre Dame Academy acquired a prestige which it continues to maintain. During that time a new wing was added and the present beautiful chapel opened.

From 1918 to 1938 she successfully held the office of Superior at Souris, Tignish, and St. Joseph's, Charlottetown. Everywhere she had been she had been noted for her outstanding business ability.

The Guardian joins with her many friends in this Province and abroad in wishing Mother Superior speedy and complete recovery from her recent injuries and hopes with them that she will be spared many years to continue her mission in the religious life of this Province.

PROTEST BY P.E.I. SENATOR

A recent Ottawa despatch quoted Senator Creelman MacArthur as protesting against being any longer " a bump in the log, or a rubber-stamp" on Senate committees, and asking for some work to do. The incident arose during the Senate discussion, May 4, on the Divorce and Matrimonial Causes Bill, and followed a discussion on a question of privilege raised with regard to another matter by Senator Haig. The following quotations relevant to Senator MacArthur's protest are from the official Hansard report:

Hon. Creelman MacArthur: — "Honourable Senators, on this question we may not all be in order. I do not think I am."

Right Hon. Mr. Graham, (Government Leader): — "I do not think any of you are."

Hon. Mr. MacArthur: — "But with the indulgence of the House I should like to say a few words on this committee business. I have been a member of the Finance Committee for twelve years, but I cannot recall a single subject that has ever been referred to it. Certainly it has never had occasion to make a report. I suggested to the honourable leader of the House (Hon. Mr. Dandurand) that he have the committee dissolved. I for one should like to have some work to do, and I know there are many others on both sides of His Honour the Speaker who feel as I do. Some years ago a special committee was constituted to investigate the Auditor General's report. It was to be a new departure and great results were expected. I do not think the committee ever met. As I have already indicated, the Finance Committee has been ignored. Members of the Brain Trust are generally elected to all the committees. Even the newspapers have only a few men here, who do all the reporting work. Now we have a special Railway Committee in operation. Much of the railway business to be investigated is, I understand, of a financial character. Our Finance Committee is not recognized, neither is our regular Railway Committee. We have twenty members, of whom nine are lawyers, yet we engage a super-lawyer at $100 a day, with extras. Where are we landing? We all know the economic condition of the country. I appreciate, as do many persons outside, the wonderful work of the Senate. But we can do still better work. I should like to see members of our various committees elected on a different and better basis. I remember the occasion when the late Senator Wilson complained of the way our committees are constituted. The right honourable gentleman who was then leading the House (Right Hon. Mr. Meighen) made an explanation, which was not correct, for the then leader of the Opposition (Hon. Mr. Dandurand) corrected him and stated the modus operandi of appointments to our various select committees. I refuse any longer to be a bump in the log, or a rubber-stamp. Either I am going to do some committee work or I will have nothing whatever to do with our committees."

Hon. Raoul Dandurand: — "Honourable members, I have been wondering what is before the House."

Some Hon. Senators: — "Oh, oh."

* * * *

Hon. Mr. Dandurand: "I understand there is now before us a motion that the report be considered tomorrow. Upon that motion has been raised a question of privilege, so to speak, as to what took place in the committee . . . My honourable friend from Prince took advantage of this free-for all to discuss the situation as to membership of committees. This is an interesting question, and one about which I think I know something. I shall endeavour to give my honourable friend(Hon. Mr. MacArthur) and others who have any complaints to make as to their standing in ocmmittees, an opportunity to discuss this situation before the end of the present session, so that we may prepare for the distribution of senators among the committees at the opening of next session. In the meantime I would ask that this motion be put.

Rt. Hon. Mr. Meighen: "Referring to the remark of the honourable Senator from Prince as to the selection of committees, inasmuch as his words revolve around the present motion, I call his attention to rule 83, which reads as follows:

"'The senators to serve on a special committee may be nominated by the mover; but, if three Senators so demand, they shall be selected as follows: Each Senator shall vote openly for one Senator to serve as a member of such committee, and those Senators for whom the largest number of votes are given shall constitute the committee.'

'Usually, the motion for committee being passed, the committee is selected by the leaders, after consultation, of course, with their respective followers; but under the rule that cannot be done if any three members object'."

Hon. Mr. Dandurand: "That is the rule as to the appointment of a special committee.

Rt. Hon. Mr. Meighen: "Yes. Standing committees are nominated by the Committee of Selection which is appointed by the whole House; but in the case of any special committee any three members can insist that a vote be taken."

Hon. Mr. MacArthur: "Has that ever been done?"

Rt. Hon. Mr. Meighen: "No, because three members have not insisted. A more democratic method could not be devised. I do not think there is any such rule in the House of Commons, but in this democratic Chamber it seems to be supreme, though sometimes ignored."

* * * *

Hon. Mr. MacArthur: "I must make myself right with the House. I said that I knew I was out of order. I took advantage of the opening made by the honourable junior Senator from Winnipeg to talk about this committee, because I did not want to raise the subject as a discussion of privilege. Furthermore, I asked the consent of the House. So I do not think I should be criticised very much for being out of order."

End Debate On Farm Implement Prices

OTTAWA, May 9—(CP)—Without a recorded vote, the House of Commons tonight adopted a year-old committee report criticising the Canadian farm impement industry for price increases and recommending various tariff changes.

The report, tabled in April, 1937, was adopted over the protests of Conservative members and marked the end of a debate carried on spasmodically for two months. Among the recommendations were the following: freight rates on implements should be investigated; cream separators should be placed on the free list; duties on materials entering farm implements should be removed or a system of drawbacks substituted.

Aceptance of the report by the Government does not obligate it to put the recommendations into effect.

Gyros Hear Address By C. N. Bissett

Mr. C. N. Bissett, manager of the Eastern Trust Co., gave a timely and most interesting address on "Succession Duties in the various Canadian Provinces", at the regular weekly meeting of the Gyro Club held last evening at the Canadian National Hotel.

Mr. Don Rathbone rendered several piano solos and the quartette of Messrs. Gilbert Henry, O. K. Presby, Stewart Jones and Don Rathbone entertained with additional selections.

A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation of golden horse shoes to Messrs. W. J. Monaghan and Earl Taylor for outstanding performances in the Minstrel Show.

It was announced that the financial report on the Minstrel Show would be given at next meeting, and that the show would be presented in Summerside in the near future.

Mr. R. C. MacDonald of Monoton was a guest. Mr. W. J. Monaghan, Club president, was chairman.

IN THE HYGIENE COURT OF JUSTICE

Ill-Health Charge Withdrawn

(Before Mr. Justice Kruschen)

JUDGE: All the evidence proves conclusively that this unhappy woman has been consistently neglecting her health. In this Court preventable illness is treated as a crime. Ignorance of the remedy cannot be accepted as an excuse. Kruschen is sold by all drug stores. Kruschen is—

PRISONER: (Excitedly, undoing her handbag): I have a bottle with me now, sir!

(Sensation in Court.)

JUDGE: A bottle of what? Pass it up to me, please.

(The Judge examined the bottle and handed it on to the jury.)

JUDGE: (continuing): This is an amazing development. We have here an unopened bottle of Kruschen. (Turning to the Prisoner): When did you buy it?

PRISONER: This morning, my lord. I intended to take it with my coffee tomorrow and every day. I thought it might put me right.

JUDGE: Prisoner, your timely good sense has earned you your acquittal. You will leave this Court without a stain on your character. (At this juncture there was an outburst of clapping, which was rapidly suppressed.) You have yourself done precisely what I should have ordered you to do; you have adopted a good remedy for your present affliction, a splendid precaution against a recurrence of it. I am very glad. I have one word of advice to add: do not, on any account, miss the little daily dose of Kruschen—and then, indeed, you will be the happy possessor of good health for less than 1c a day.

PRISONER: Thank you, my lord. I shall never forget what you say.

KRUSCHEN SALTS
relieve constipation and rheumatism

Kruschen is a combination of several mineral salts which your body must get, in some way, to keep the blood pure, the inside clean, and the system generally toned up, but which you can't get in Nature's own way without abundant exercise and fresh air. You should have those salts every day; hence the importance of the "little daily dose". Every drug counter sells Kruschen in 25c, 45c and 75c bottles. It's the little daily dose that does it.
