Concerning Defense

It is a paradoxical fact that many players are better off, as far as their defensive play is concerned, if their partners have not entered the bidding! The mere naming of a suit often misleads these players into thinking that they can play that suit with the full assurance that partner, instead of the declarer has all the hight cards. That this is not always the case goes without saying! Observe this too-typical deal:

East dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.
North-South 90 on score.

North: ♠ 7 5 3 2 ♥ J 7 4 2 ♦ 10 6 4 ♣ K 6

West: ♠ A 10 8 6 ♥ A 6 3 ♦ 7 3 2 ♣ J 10 2

East: ♠ Q 9 4 ♥ Q 5 ♦ K J 8 5 ♣ A 9 7 5

South: ♠ K J ♥ K 10 9 8 ♦ A Q 9 ♣ Q 8 4 3

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
Pass	1 ♥	Pass	Pass
1 N T	Pass	Pass	2 ♥
Pass	Pass	2 ♠	Pass
Pass	3 ♥	Double	Pass
Pass	Pass

West made the good opening lead of a low trump. South captured East's queen and led a club to the king. East won, and apparently with the single thought that his partner had bid spades, returned the queen of that suit. This was very satisfactory to the declarer, who, of course, covered. West won and laid down the ace and another
