The Clergy of the Province. Officers of Branches, and friends of the Bible Society's work are most cordially invited to attend these afternoon and evening sessions of this meeting.

The Belfast friends are anxious to provide hospitality for those who will be present. The Belfast friends are anxious to provide hospitality for those who will be present.

The old Presbyterian Church in Belfast is situated in one of the beautiful spots of this delightful island. It is possible to combine a day's outing with worship in one of the most important pieces of Christian work.

YOU ARE INVITED.

Restoring Buried Threads. If the threads of a bolt or stud have been damaged, and no die is at hand to clean them, they can be restored by a little work with a triangular file.

The Fan Belt. It is very important to test the fan belt occasionally to see if it is too loose. A loose belt will allow the fan to slip and prevent the water from cooling properly.

HEALTH REGAINED Mother and Daughters Restored Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

"Contrary to what my friends once thought I am still living," says Mrs. Norman White, New Canada, N. S., "and I give the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had been a sufferer for some years. I was weak and run-down; my heart would palpitate violently at the least exertion. I grew so weak that I could not do my household work. I was under a doctor's care, but it did not benefit me. A second doctor was called in, but with no better result. I was told that I was almost bloodless, and I became so weak I was forced to remain in bed. My friends did not believe I could recover. While in this condition a neighbor strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It was like grasping at a straw, but six boxes of this medicine were got for me, and by the time I had taken them I was able to sit up. Another six boxes were got and soon I was able to go about, my health steadily improving. I continued the use of the pills until I felt my health fully restored. I still take the pills occasionally as a safeguard. My two daughters have also used the pills with the most beneficial results. The trouble in both cases was the anemia that so often comes when girls are entering womanhood. Under the use of this medicine both fully regained health, strength and activity. You can see, therefore, that it is impossible for me to praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly, and I hope every weak person who may read this will benefit by my experience."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SUDDEN DEATH OF ISLANDER.—The whole community of Eastern King's was shocked to hear of the death by accident, in Cambridge Mass., of Edwin G. Wood, formerly of Rollo Bay. The deceased was only twenty-six years old and had been married only two months. His many friends here and in Cambridge, extend their deepest sympathy to his widow and parents. (Patriot Please Copy)

TORONTO BROKER WRITES RE-POTATO SHIPMENT.—In a letter recently by a Prince County farmer from a prominent broker in Toronto, enclosing cheque for a shipment of potatoes, regret is expressed that the markets in Toronto were somewhat in bad shape on account of two or three firms holding so many Island potatoes in storage. At the date of writing there were some fivecars in storage there, which could be purchased at about 25 cents per bag, but they were practically unfit for use on account of sprouts. Satisfaction was expressed over the shipments from the Prince County producer, which were the best potatoes so far received from any source. The writer had bought five cars of New Brunswick at 67 cents in bulk and 77 cents in bags, delivered track Toronto, and they were excellent hard stock with no signs of sprouts. The Ontario potatoes are all cleaned up.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.—On the evening of Wednesday of June 12th upward of one hundred friends of Miss Alma Weeks assembled at her home in Hazel Grove and tendered her a miscellaneous shower previous to her marriage. To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March Miss Weeks was ushered into the living room followed by Miss Mae Bagnall and Miss Irene Weeks carrying a beautiful decorated basket laden with many useful gifts. Miss Bagnall cutting the strings while Miss Weeks read the accompanying verses which were greeted by applause and laughter. After the presents had all been opened which included Silver, linen, glassware, aluminum and a sum of money, Mrs. Pope Bagnall came forward and read an address while Mrs. Russel Nicholson presented the bride-to-be with a beautiful Rayon Bedspread in behalf of the Women's Institute of which she was a valued member. Miss Weeks thanked the assembly for their gifts after which all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." Dainty refreshments were served by the ladies present and a social evening spent. The Estimate Papers

Continued from page 4 "Appreciate the confidence reposed in me and am willing to urge an armistice upon the Entente if Bulgarian Government will agree now that the immediate terms of peace pending the final determinations of the general peace conference shall include the evacuation by the Bulgarian forces of Serbia and Macedonia and the Epirus and permission to the Entente Allies to enter Bulgaria if and when necessary to defend her territory against the Central Powers.

W. W. The President handed this to me for my opinion, I thought we did not know enough about conditions to specify the terms. Not only that, no Bulgarian Government would dare go before their people having accepted such terms. I advised telling them he would be willing to act as they desired, provided they would leave it to his judgement as to the terms of the armistice.

"He argued the matter for a few minutes, saying he was afraid it would look like leaving too much to him. I replied that they would prefer this rather than having to consent to such terms as he had outlined; that the Government could go before the Bulgarian people, claiming that he, the President, had not been fair with them; that they had reposed confidence in him believing he was a friend of Bulgaria. In other words, they would make whatever excuse they liked to their people. The President saw the force of the argument and wrote the following:

"I appreciate the confidence reposed in me and am willing to urge an armistice upon the Entente if the Bulgarian Government will authorize me to say that the conditions of the armistice are left to me for decision and that the Bulgarian Government will accept the conditions I impose. Otherwise, I should not be hopeful of result of mediation on my part at this juncture in so vital a matter."

The Bulgarian troops, however, were in such a hurry to surrender that they lacked time to avail themselves of the good offices of Wilson for which their Minister at the Hague has asked. On September 23 two Bulgarian delegates presented themselves at Franchet d'Esperey's headquarters and accepted terms which amounted to unconditional surrender: the demobilization of their army, evacuation of all Greek and Serbian territory. Bulgarian territory to be available for Allied operations and her means of transport placed at the disposal of the Allies, strategic points to be occupied by British, French, or Italian troops. On September 30 these terms were ratified by the Allied Governments and the armistice was signed at Salonika.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

The members of the Red Point Women's Institute, and friends, assembled at the home of Mrs. A. A. McInnis, on Wednesday evening, June 26th. After guests were seated the President, Mrs. J. C. Campbell, explained the object of this meeting, and the following address was read by Mrs. G. J. Stewart:

Dear Mrs. McInnis:— It is with deep regret that we gather here this evening, to bid you farewell on the occasion of your leaving us to go to Charlottetown, to reside in the future.

Since your coming amongst us, you have always proved yourself a good friend and neighbor, and ever ready to help in time of need. In our Institute, your timely suggestions, musical and literary help have been a source of pleasure to us, and we will miss your presence very much.

As a token of our appreciation, please accept this small gift, not for its value, but for the good will that accompanies it.

In conclusion, we hope that you will have many happy years in your new home, and we will always look forward to a visit from you in the future.

Signed on behalf of the Red Point Institute: Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Pres.; Miss Lauretta McLellan, Secy.

Mrs. McInnis, although taken by surprise, replied in fitting terms, thanking them for their kind words and their many acts of kindness during her years amongst them, and for their beautiful gift of table linen. Lunch was then served by the ladies, after which a social hour was spent, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music.
