Japan Moves Step Closer To Independence

MANILA, Nov. 9 (CP) - Japan has moved closer toward independence in the last few weeks than at any time since the end of the war. This trend gives added importance to the recent series of reports a formal peace treaty may be near. Occupation headquarters in Tokyo now is in the process of turning over a wide range of local authority to the Japanese. The latest move was the announcement that private trade would be re-established on Dec. 1.
