The Philharmonic opening rehearsal last night for season '23 and '24 was most encouraging. Quite an influx of new voices. The tuneful and amusing "John Gilpin" will be (so to speak) trotted out for inspection in the near future. Put your name on the honorary members' list and feel a personal interest in this useful society.

LIEUT. H. Radcliff Uring, who was seriously wounded in the late South African campaign, arrived here yesterday on the Olivette and is at present being entertained by Mrs. C. E. Pratt, Bayfield Street. He leaves shortly for Dundas, returning to Boston in time for the farewell banquet given to the Ancients of Boston at which he attends. Mr. Uring, it may be remarked, has rounded the earth in all eight times.

Dr. A. B. Walker, Editor of Neith, a monthly magazine published in St. John in the interests of Maritime Province matters arrived in the city last night and will remain about a week. Dr. Walker is visiting different parts in the Maritime Provinces for the purpose of writing up the points of interest and matters pertaining to the general welfare of the people. Arrangements have been made to publish descriptive articles about different places of interests beginning in these provinces and ending in B. C. These articles will be written by experts and will be copiously illustrated.

FROM THE KINGSTON POST OFFICE.
Comes word that Mr. James McGillivray is again at work. He was laid up by sores on the soles of his feet, but he was perfectly cured by Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor.

The fire alarm sounded at three yesterday afternoon for a small blaze in a barn at the rear of the double tenement house on King Street, occupied by John McMillan and Capt. Gillis. The fire caused by children was extinguished with slight damage.

TODAY Miss Annie Lepage one of the popular operators at the Telephone office will sever her connection with the company, after a service of fourteen years the longest in the history of that business in this city. On the eve of her departure Miss Lepage was presented by the directors of the Telephone Co. with an address expressive of best wishes accompanied by a cheque for a handsome sum. Miss Lepage though in a position where it is hard to please the public on all occasions has given universal satisfaction to all who have used the telephone. She has been ever ready to do everything possible to please the patrons of the line and The Guardian with others joins in best wishes for the future.

ELDON and the surrounding country of B. Belfast and vicinity is in the course of a few days to have a new business established in its midst. The new firm is the ELDON Mercantile Co. and the manager will be Robert A. McLeod one of the well known and highly esteemed residents of Ugg and for fifteen years connected with several of the largest mercantile firms of the West. Mr. McLeod intends opening on Monday next in the store formerly occupied by Mr. Lamont. He will carry in stock a general assortment of dry goods, hardware, groceries, boots and shoes, gent's furnishings and all else to be obtained in a first class store. A new feature will be the Cash in Advance system which is being introduced in town and country. By it goods can be bought cheaper and everything is more satisfactory both to buyer and seller. The new firm will take farm produce at the best market price in exchange for goods and solicit a share of the public patronage which they will merit by fair dealing with all their customers.

WILLIAM Auld of Kingston exhibited at the fair a cart gelding by Lord Aberdeen also a general purpose filly sired by the same horse. The latter won second prize but there was no class for the first. Mr. Auld sold both these animals after the exhibition for $125 each. Samuel Auld of the same place sold a two year old cart filly sired by Lord Aberdeen for $150. She won second prize. William Crews also of Kingston, sold a three year old gelding of the same breeding for $180. The animal weighed 1600 lbs and is claimed to be the heaviest colt of his age ever raised on the Island. Harold Dockendorff of North River exhibited a cart mare of the same breeding. She won second prize and the owner refused $190 for her. James McMillan's three year old filly was another prize winner. Daniel Docherty's one year old stallion also an Aberdeen sold for $100. William Livingstone sold a six year old gelding of the same stock for $100. The above goes to show the superiority of the stallion, Lord Aberdeen. He weighs 1800 lbs, is dark bay in color and his conformation and action are admirable. His stock is now at a premium.

A new wind shield was used when Prince Alert reduced the record to 1.57 at New York, last week. When the runner came out to make the pace in front and break the atmospheric resistance, he drew a cart on which a half circular canvas shield had been built in front of the seat, with two apertures for the driver to reach the reins. This extended from one shaft to the other and was higher than the driver's head, completely sheltering him. Between the wheels below was another strip of canvas reaching nearly to the ground. It was a queer-looking contrivance, and caused no end of comment. Prince Alert was close up to the runner and the wind shield when the judges started him on the journey that was destined to be the fastest ever made by a horse in harness at a harness gait. Another runner joined him at the half, and as they came up the home stretch the three horses were bunched. When above the long distance stand Mart Demarest got the runner so far from the pole that Prince Alert, kept close to the shorter route by his driver, and the runner at his head had the wind shield equally divided, the three having the shape of a triangle.

"THE TWO MACS"
MacDonald & MacKinnon,
DRUGGISTS,
Cor Gt. George and Kent Sts.

The marriage took place at Souris yesterday morning at five o'clock in Notre Dame Convent of Miss Sophia Paquet, daughter of Marshall Paquet to J. W. Brennan a popular accountant for J. J. Hughes & Co. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Cornelia Paquet and Vincent McIsaac supported the groom. After the wedding a breakfast was served at the home of the bride and then the happy couple took the early train for a week's honeymoon trip to St. John and other points. On Monday evening a reception was given in honor of the young people nearly a hundred guests being present and the gaiety was kept up till early in the morning. In the general best wishes The Guardian heartily joins.

The death occurred about noon Saturday at his residence, 53 Coburg road, of George H. Crosskill, of Crosskill and Company, the well known syrup manufacturers, and as well known as he was highly regarded throughout the province. Mr. Crosskill, who was seventy-seven years of age, had been in failing health for some time, and his death was not unexpected. The death of his wife last July was a blow from which he never rallied, and his decline has been very apparent since that time. He was in his prime one of our most alert and enterprising business men, and the cordials and syrups of his manufacture enjoy an international reputation, having carried off prizes in Germany, at the Philadelphia Exposition, and repeatedly in Nova Scotia. He formerly owned the building now occupied by Scovill and Page, at the corner of George and Barrington streets. For seventeen years he was connected with the Volunteer artillery, retiring with the rank of captain. He was the son of the late James Crosskill and grandson of Captain John Crosskill of the royal navy, who was a native of Norwich, England. Three sons, George H. Jr., of Halifax; Nelson, of Boston, and Joseph G. of Denver, Col., and two daughters, Bessie E. of Halifax, and Minnie of Denver, survive him. Mr. Crosskill enjoyed deservedly the esteem of all who knew him, and his death will be regretted by a very wide circle. The funeral will be this afternoon at 9 o'clock, interment in Camp Hill cemetery.—Halifax Herald. (Mr. Crosskill is the uncle of W. H. Crosskill of this city.)

The home of John McNeve, Argyle Shore was the scene of a very pleasant event on the evening of the 26th inst. when about thirty invited guests assembled to bid farewell to his two daughters, Florence and Charlotte who left the following day for West Roxbury, Mass accompanied by Mr. Flemings of that place. At twelve o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served gotten up in Mrs. McNeve's best style. After complete justice had been done to the good things provided, the rest of the time was taken up with music, games, songs, etc., till the wee sma hours, which came far too soon. Miss Charlotte was presented with a gold watch and chain by her father, which Miss Florence was presented with an address accompanied by an elegant dressing case by a committee, in behalf of the members of Try Again Division, No. 238, Sons of Temperance of which she is a respected member.

Following is the address,
To sister Florence McNeve, by the members of Try Again Division, No. 238, S. of T.

DEAR SISTER.—As we have heard of your intention of leaving for a short time, for a visit to another country, we wish to express our sorrow on losing your genial society. We have learned to appreciate your worth the short time you have been with us, and be assured dear sister that our best wishes accompany you. You will now accept this as a small token of our esteem for you, hoping that you will enjoy yourself and may the great Father who watches over us all keep you in love, purity, fidelity. (sgd.)

BESSIE BOYCE,
MAGGIE McNEVIN.

Reply.
DEAR SISTERS AND BROTHERS,—I feel as if this was more than I merited from you I do thank you all very much for your thoughtful kindness, I hope that our division may grow and prosper and may we all be knit together more closely in love, purity and fidelity.

Signed,
FLORENCE McNEVIN.
