Offices in Summerside, Frank Lafferty, Manager, and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Manager

The latest news, first of all.

Mrs. James Glover of Mill Valley Mills, who has been seriously ill is reported as somewhat better, and hopes are now entertained for her recovery.

J. W. Richards, M. P. from Ottawa, Premier Haszard from Montreal, Dr. McLaughlin returning from New York, were passengers by the Empress to Summerside last evening.

Rev. W. B. Crowell will preach in Summerside tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The ordinance of Baptism will be observed. Preaching at Bedouque at 3 p. m. and in Summerside at 7 p. m. Subject, "On the Threshold."

The following are the Summerside market prices—Butter per lb, 16 to 17c, potatoes per bus. 37c, eggs per doz. 16c, hay loose per ton $8.50, straw $4.50, white oats per bus 53c, black oats per bus. 55c and pork per lb 8 to 8 1/2c.

Hugh McDonald, Sydney contractor of the Summerside Breakwater arrived in Summerside yesterday morning. Mr. McDonald will remain in Summerside for some time in connection with the work on the Breakwater, which is rapidly reaching completion.

The following clipping is taken from the "Clareholm Review" (Alberta) "Councillor Barclay graced the Mayor's chair with dignity. Do coming events cast their shadows beforehand." (The Mr. Barclay referred to is William Barclay, son of the late Jas. Barclay of O'Leary, who for several years has been a resident of Alberta and managing director of a large lumber and grain business. He is one of the many successful Islanders abroad.)

The following ladies have arrived in Summerside: Mrs. Dr. Flanders, St. John, Mrs. Dr. Rogers, Sussex, N. B.; Mrs. Dr. Sprague, Mrs. Dr. Andrews and Miss Steward, Sackville; Mrs. (Rev.) C. H. Manaton, Harcourt; Miss Tweedie (returned missionary) Mrs. Grouland and Miss McLaughlin to attend the W. M. S. convention at Summerside, Rev. E. S. Weeks, Mr. Paton, Miss Edna Howard, and Miss Edith Cameron, Mr. Turner from Sackville, N. B.

That gasoline engines are not to be depended upon at certain times was demonstrated in Summerside harbour Thursday afternoon last. A well known lobster packer, when returning from overhauling his trap, had his engine give out near the middle ground with the result that the heavy wind which was blowing at the time drove him on the bar. His near neighbor "The Quahaug King" of the west end seeing his neighbor in distress at once started in another motor boat to his rescue. He reached the disabled boat and succeeded in pulling the latter out of the bar and was making good progress towing her in when of a sudden his motor also refused to work. Efforts to make either of the engines work were unsuccessful. Meanwhile the Capt. of the Perry boat Bedouque noticing the helpless condition of the two boats went to their rescue and towed them to the wharf. The Quahaug King who is inexperienced in the running of motor boats intends to at once make a study of them so that such a little matter as was the trouble with his boat on Thursday will not hinder him again in rescuing a disabled neighbor.

The branch office of the Charlottetown Guardian will be found on Water Street, Summerside, directly opposite Prince County Drug Store. 3-11drft.

At Mill Valley on May 18, Daniel Garfield MacDonald, eldest son of the late John MacDonald, passed to his eternal reward. His short life of only twenty-two years was spent in such a manner as endeared him to all, and the community has suffered a distinct loss by his untimely death. The elegant floral tributes testified to the esteem in which he was held. The funeral took place from his home at Mill Valley. He was taken to Indian River Cemetery where all that was mortal of a loving son and brother was laid to rest there to await the final resurrection. A widowed mother, three sisters and two brothers are left to mourn.
