DELICIOUS DAINTIES We are making fresh every day, at prices that allow the house-keeper a chance to buy more than bread. CREAM LOAF 6c still is as popular as ever. It can be touched for quality at any price, much less at 6 cents. Try one loaf—you're a regular customer then. A. J. QUIRK, Central Bakery.

Looking at it supposing it is Stewart & Gates. We go you one better and give you the best at no greater cost. It's in the buying, you know, all in the know-how. Give us a trial order for purest, freshest Groceries.

When you've gathered in your harvest, and you've cellared up your 'spuds' and you're hoarded honest dollars in your palm, Will you save another twenty on your winter stocks of 'dud's'. By ordering up the rig with Artist Sam? He's a knacky-handed tailor and his weaknesses are naught. (The day we made the bargain, thus I found him). He's up before the public chalking measures on the cloth, And he's got a lot of other Sam's around him. Dad's Sam, lad's Sam, Sam with a Highland heart.— (Twenty hundred men and boys wearing the suits he gave) Isn't he doing a rising trade? Let us give 'im a rearing start; Buy his stock for your wallet's sake, and save, save, save. There's a suit you ordered last year, when you weren't so very stout, Don't you think you need to fire it up the hatch? There is soup and slop and slobbers and the buttons pulling out, And its more than over likely there's a patch. There are clothiers by thousands and they swear they never lie, And they butcher shiny shoddy by the bale; You may safely place their whereabouts some day you're passing by, By the indicating ad 'A slaughter Sale' There's your little son or brother and he's tearing all his clothes 'Cause he doesn't give a jolly tinker's dam; I would cure him up forever with a half dozen blows Of the unoffending tape of Sartor Sam. He's a knacky-handed tailor, he's a daisy on a pants. And he'll give you lots of pocket on the hip; For what's the use of Temperance and Elections in advance? Get you ready all your pockets and your grip. The above poem was written by a well known Canadian poet for S. A. McDonald's fashionable tailoring.

A MEETING was held in the Summerfield Hall last Thursday for the purpose of starting a Literary Society which was well attended by the young people of that place and adjoining country. The society was successfully started with a goodly number of members on the roll and is to be known as the Summerfield Literary Society and Debating Club. The officers elected for the ensuing quarter were: John F. Sinclair, Pres. Archibald McKenzie, Vice Pres. W. K. McKay, Secy. W. H. Mayne, Tres. John Brown, Sent. James Somers, Ass. Sent. After the passing of motions and transacting of important business the meeting closed by singing God Save the Queen and the young people went to their homes feeling they had spent a very happy and profitable evening. Sec'y.

shaving comfort Our Parlors are noted for the Shaving Comfort customers get. The face is not butchered in apolite manner, the stubborn whiskers are not rooted out with a tooth edged razor. We give you a comfortable chair to sit in, and an expert hand to shave you with the best razor made—with an edge so sharp that it will split a hair. Then we finish the shave with all the necessary comforts that make a fellow feel like a new man. Give us your face next time your whiskers grow. James & Trainor, The Acme Barbers.

When You Buy Baked Goods. You want something good and a little change once in a while. Trade at the 'Bright, New Bakery' where you find a new line of bread, rolls, cakes and pastry. The best in the city. We have the cleanest bakery in the city; our bakeshop is not in the cellar, hidden from public view, but right on the first floor and is open for inspection to our customers at any time. Try us for the best bread, all kinds of groceries.

YESTERDAY THE GUARDIAN was shown a letter written in Newton, Eng. and dated November 26th 1813 and addressed to 'John Pearson, at Christopher Smith's, Croppan River Prince Edward Island, North America, Canada. It was mailed before the days of envelopes and is a striking contrast to the letter of to-day

SURPRISING RESULTS. A Simple Internal Remedy Makes Remarkable Cures of Catarrh.

People who have used sprays, inhalers, salves and washes for catarrh and have found how useless they are, will be agreeably surprised at results following the use of a pleasant, internal remedy in tablet form; druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which they sell at 50 cents for full sized treatment is the safest most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies.

Nearly all cheap cough mixtures and throat lozenges contain opiates; these cheap medicines give temporary relief especially with little children by destroying nerve sensation; the irritation in throat, which causes coughing is temporarily removed, not by removing the cause but by deadening the nerves of feeling; the irritation is not felt although it is still there and will promptly return. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the best remedy to remove catarrhal secretion, whether in the nose, throat or stomach because they are composed of wholesome antiseptics like Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin; when you use these tablets you know what you are putting into your system and not taking chances with cocaine, opiates or similar poisons found in so many catarrh cures and cough medicines.

Dr. Ramsdale in commenting on catarrh cures says: 'I can heartily recommend Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine nor other dangerous drug found in so many advertised catarrh cures. I have known of many cases of long standing catarrh of the head and throat completely cured by the daily use of these tablets for several weeks. One case in particular, which I could not reach with an inhaler or spray and where the catarrh caused daily headaches and a noticeable loss of hearing was entirely cured by this harmless but effective remedy.'

Dr. Wainwright says: 'I never hesitate to prescribe Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for catarrhal headaches and catarrhal deafness because I know them to be perfectly safe for child or adult and have seen many remarkable cures resulting from their regular daily use; because they are advertised and sold in drug stores in no reason why any good physician should not use them because we should seize upon the means of cure wherever found.' Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially valuable for catarrhal colds in children because they are pleasant to the taste and may be used freely to break up severe colds and croup at the very beginning. All druggists sell the remedy at fifty cents for full sized package. A little book on cause and cure of catarrh mailed free by addressing the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.
