MR. FIDELLE PINEAU

There passed away at Hope River on Jan. 22nd, a highly respected citizen in the person of Fidelle Pineau at the age of 72 years. The late Mr. Pineau had been in failing health for some time and although no hope was held for his recovery his death was no less a shock to his family and friends. Of a genial and loving disposition the deceased always had a ready smile for all his neighbours and acquaintances.

During his illness he was frequently visited by his Pastor the Rev. Earl Dalton, who administered to him the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving father, one daughter and four sons, namely: Mrs. Cornelius Blanchard, who tenderly cared for him during his illness; Moses of Hope River, Peter and Cyrus of Summerside, and Frank of U. S. A. His wife predeceased him five years ago.

His funeral which was held at St. Ann's Church, Hope River, was largely attended. The Rev. Fr. Dalton celebrating the Requiem Mass, and also officiating at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. Florent Dolan, James Peters, John Doyle, Andrew L. Dolan, Joseph L. Dolan and Florent LeClair. May his soul rest in peace.

CHESELY WILLIAM HOWATT
 Friends were saddened to learn of the passing Saturday morning, January 22nd, of Chesley W. Howatt of Tryon. He was the eldest son of the late Newton and Elizabeth Howatt, and was in his 52 years. Deceased had not been in good health for some time but his death came unexpectedly and was a great shock to the community. As a young man he went to Western Canada and was one of the first to enlist from Calgary in 1914. He served 3 years with the 50th Battalion in France. Wounded and gassed, at Vimy Ridge in 1917, he was honorably discharged. He returned to his native province where he was very highly esteemed. He was a staunch Conservator and always stood for what was fair in his community. He was fair in all his dealings, of a kindly disposition in his home, a good neighbor and friend. His only child, a son, Palmer, predeceased him by three and a half years. He is survived by his sorrowing wife formerly Bessie Falconer, of Granville an aged mother, three sisters and two brothers. The funeral was held from the residence on Monday, 24th, the service conducted by Rev. Mr. Young. His friends Messrs. H. Augustus, W. R. 11. Tompson, Frank Roblee, Earle Howatt, Low Gamble, Heath Howatt, were pallbearers. Burial was in the North Tryon Cemetery. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved.

Soviet Navy Ready To Crush Enemies
 (C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire, MOSCOW, Feb. 1.—The revitalized Soviet navy is prepared "to crush the enemy wherever and whenever necessary," Navy Commander Peter A. Smirnov declared today in open warning to "Tarnopol's Passions" notes.
 The newspaper Pravda, prominently displaying Smirnov's account of Moscow's new navy strength, declared that the United States expanded armament program constituted a firm answer to aggressor nations.
 Smirnov basked in the Soviet Union among the world's important naval powers by the reason of recent construction and renovation.
 Work of the last five years has fortified the Soviet fleet's base in quantity and quality, Smirnov said.
