CONFEDERATION CELEBRATION

looked upon by many as a most untoward but irremediable event. Especially was this true of the last decade of the nineteenth century and the union with Canada had come to be first decade stood still in point of population. The census of 1911 showed that we had lost, in addition to the natural growth of our fertile population, between nine and ten thousand of our people.

"Governments of both political parties had broken faith with us, and had confessed their failure to implement the terms of union in the vital matter of our winter transport to and from the mainland. We had no mineral wealth to develop, as Nova Scotia had, no lumber, or natural gas, as New Brunswick had, and no manufacturing development, such as had taken place in the main provinces under the National Policy.

Our Dominion Entomologist says: "I am convinced that the practical results of the fly swatting campaigns that have been carried on by some of our newspapers are useless as fly reducers." But the fact that one ten-cent packet of WILDON'S FLY PADS is capable of killing a bushel of flies proves them to be the best of all fly killers and recommends their continuous use to good housekeepers.

and of our farm and fishery product, in promoting summer tourist travel, and in promoting manufacturing industry, with in the Island remains to be seen, but great hopes are built upon it and these hopes are a prominent feature of the optimistic feeling which prevails today and which has taken the place of the despondency of the past year.

"The increased subsidy of one hundred thousand dollars yearly obtained from Ottawa, together with an increased grant for agriculture from the same source, and a new revenue last year of thirty seven thousand dollars from the fox industry, and which were largely increased from year to year, have transformed our Provincial finances, enabling the local Government to make much more liberal provision than heretofore for education, roads, bridges and ferries, while the long series of annual deficits in the public accounts of the province has given place to a modest surplus this year with good prospect of larger ones in the years to come.

"Out of this transformation of spirit and attitude towards the Dominion has come the desire to celebrate the inception of the union idea and to claim for the island its honorable place as the cradle of Confederation. Such a celebration would never have been proposed under the old order of things. It would have been impossible two or three years ago had the anniversary of the union fallen due. It is eagerly looked forward to now, because the Island Province is now becoming evacuated and the ties which bind her to her sister Province are no longer looked upon as fetters of iron.

All our people joined to do them honour in public gatherings, at the festival board, in speech and song. So it will be again when a few months hence there shall gather in Charlottetown the public men of the expanded Dominion from the Atlantic to the Pacific. May the celebration be worthy of the great idea which was born fifty years ago, and which was never before realized in its fullness and entirety as it will be in this year of grace, 1914."

Prince Edward Island has been raising Silver Black Foxes since 1877. In 1910 a large shipment of Silver Black Fox pelts was sent to Lampton & Co of London and the average price realized was about $1,400 per skin. In 1909—1,827,000 Fox Skins were marketed, of which only 4300 were Silver Blacks. The best grades came from Prince Edward Island. It will take from 15 to 20 years to supply the market with as many pelts as was procured from the wilds ten years ago. The wealth of the world is increasing the demand for furs every year. Present prices of P. E. I. pedigreed live Silver Black Foxes range from $15,000 to $30,000 per pair. A pair of extra choice breeders with a big producing record, sold in 1913 for $32,500, and another pair of breeders and their first litter of four pups, were sold in 1913 for $51,000. The average life of the Silver Black fox is from 10 to 12 years and the size of the litter runs from 2 to 7 pups, the average being 3-1-2 to each ranch female. Investors all over the world are waking up to the possibilities of fur farming, and that P. E. Island with only 1,602 pure bred Silver Black Foxes cannot supply the demand, hence the high and increasing prices for breeding animals. The profits divided among investors in P. E. Island ranches in 1913 aggregate over $3,000,000 according to the Government Report for the year ended 31st December, 1913. So great is the demand for Silver Black Fox fur that even if every available pelt on Prince Edward Island was placed on the London market today there would not be sufficient supply to meet a two hour demand. Wesley Frost, Esq., American Consul at Charlottetown, P. E. I. has estimated that $900,000 of American capital has been invested in Prince Edward Island for enterprises to date.

The capital stock now issued is $85,000 divided into 1700 shares at $50.00 each. The authorized capital is $170,000 so that the company can enlarge if necessary. All expenses incurred in organizing and promoting the company, selling stock, etc., will be borne directly and solely by the promoters, every cent you invest goes to pay for five pairs of foxes at $17,000 per pair. Our five pairs of guaranteed, pure bred silver black foxes are from the best original ranch stock on Prince Edward Island, are from strains of high records for large litters and fur production, and are guaranteed free from any physical defect whatsoever. One pair is from the ranch of Thomas Moyses of Bedeque, and is from stock closely related to two pairs that were sold by him in 1912. These two pairs produced eleven pups the next year and 13 pups in 1914. We have arranged with Mr. Thomas Moyses of Bedeque, P. E. I., one of the most successful Fox Ranchers known and a man of unquestionable character, to ranch our foxes for one or more years. Mr. Moyses has had wonderful success raising foxes. The ranch in which he has full oversight sold in Sept. 1912 two pairs to a Company in Summerside, P. E. I., these two pairs were ranches with Mr. Moyses and in 1913 produced eleven pups which were sold in Sept. 1913 for $17,000 per pair, giving the Company a record dividend. We are therefore fortunate in securing such a capable and trustworthy man. Ranching expenses will be 10 per cent. of the yearly increase for the first three years; after that period a vote of shareholders decides the disposition of this matter. Mail your order for stock with 10 p. c. of the amount in cash the balance will be required Aug. 15; or write to the Secretary-Treasurer for a Prospectus or any information desired, or call at the office in Morris Block. We are not promising absurd dividends. Our prospectus shows what others have done and we are confident of success.

This is a business man's proposition. The Directors are well known successful men in their line. We recommend it as the best offering on the market. Terms 10 p. c. with application. Balance August 15th, 1914. Application for stock can be made to any Director or to the Secretary Treasurer E. H. BEER
