First Monthly Meeting Of New City Council

range the financial affairs of the city so that the expenditures for the year will be within the income and, in all transactions that the interests of the city be carefully guarded.

During last year a large sum of money was spent on the ordinary street work of the city in addition to a large outlay for permanent work. I would suggest that during this year the appropriation for ordinary street work be cut down to the minimum amount, and as much as possible of the revenues for the year be laid out in permanent works. By following this system for a number of years the city could accomplish a considerable amount of permanent work, without again having recourse to the borrowing of a large amount of money. With the co-operation of all the members of the Council I am sure this arrangement could be successfully carried out.

You will require this evening to appoint a delegation to the Legislature. This committee will have many important matters to deal with. The question of the extension asked for by the Telephone Company will require their attention. It should be possible for the city to make some arrangement with the Telephone Company for the improvement of the fire alarm system.

The Committee should apply to the Local Government for a fair share of the Federal Grant for permanent roads. I am sure if the matter is properly placed before the Local Government they will be disposed to deal fairly with the city.

The City of Charlottetown with only two members in the Local Legislature is inadequately represented. Charlottetown has more than one eighth of the population, and I believe the time has arrived when the claim of the City for increased representation in the Local Legislature should be pressed.

The Legislation Committee should wait upon our city representatives at an early date and have the above and any other matter in the interest of the city placed before them.

ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.—The Rose Ball given in the Lyceum last evening by those who took part in "Why She Loved Him" proved a great success. NEW YORK, March 8.—Ship salvagers left last night for Washington to learn what would be the fate of "Red Liqueur" raised from Davey Jones Locker and brought into American ports.

The wreckers declared they were ready to begin operation at once on the Atlantic Coast, if the "Treasure Ship" could be brought into American port and then transferred to another vessel sailing for foreign ports. If transfer was not permitted, they were willing to have the "wet goods" go into drydock with the damaged vessels until they could put out to sea again.

The liquor-laden ships they propose to salvage, the wreckers declare sank more than eighteen months ago. Their location was kept a dark secret.

The Toronto Globe, today has the following special cable from Paris: "Georges Carpentier, Europe's heavyweight champion, will be married on March 13, it was announced today. The prospective bride is a seventeen year old blonde beauty whose identity however, is kept a profound secret. It is said she is not a society girl, but hails from the country."

"Immediately after the marriage the couple will sail for America on their honeymoon. There is an unconfirmed report that Carpentier has decided to give up the ring forever owing to the positive aversion of his bride-to-be to his tacking part in professional bouts.

A preacher was describing the "bad place" to a congregation of naval cadets. "Friends," he said, "you've seen molten iron running out of a furnace, haven't you? It comes out white hot, sizzling and hissing. Well—"

The preacher pointed a long lean finger at the lads. "Well," he continued, "they use that stuff for locomotion in the place I have been speaking of."—London Tit-Bits.

PARIS, March 6.—Georges Carpentier, Europe's heavyweight pugilistic champion of Europe and Mademoiselle Gerorgette Elissae will be married next Monday, according to announcement here today.
