Among the Churches

At St. Peter's Cathedral on Wednesday night His Grace the Archbishop of Nova Scotia administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to seven candidates who were presented by the Priest Incumbent Rev. E. M. Malone. The Archdeacon of Prince Edward Island The Venerable C. de W. White was also present and acted as Chaplain.

In spite of the many attractions which are being offered for entertainment and gatherings of one kind and another there was a good congregation present. His Grace gave the candidates and congregation a very instructive and helpful address dealing with confirmation on its historical, sacramental and practical side. It was quite an event in the usual routine of St. Peter's School to have at their closing exercises the Most Rev. Charles Le. Worrall, Archbishop of Nova Scotia and the Archdeacon of P. E. I.

The School was well filled with the parents and friends of the pupils. A very enjoyable and creditable programme was rendered, after which the prizes were presented by the Archbishop.

A pleasing feature of the proceedings was the presentation by the pupils of a handsome leather hand bag to Miss R. M. DesBrisay who has done such splendid work as teacher of this school.

A confirmation service was held at Christ Church, Cherry Valley on Thursday.

Today another confirmation service will be held at Holy Trinity, Georgetown.

During his stay in Charlottetown the Archbishop was the guest of Colonel and Mrs. A. G. Peake at their home in North River Road.

The annual Mite box opening of the Women's Missionary Society of St. James Church was held yesterday afternoon. A feature of the programme was the report of Mrs. W. Orr Mulligan who represented the society at the Congress at Toronto. It was announced at this meeting that a Presbyterian meeting will be held in Charlottetown on July 9th.

GAME POSTPONED—The baseball game to have taken place at Summerside last night between the Royals and Abbies had to be postponed on account of rain.

BANQUET—A banquet was held in the Clifton House, Summerside yesterday when 30 delegates of the Municipalities of Quebec attended. The Mayor of Summerside presided and many of the prominent people of Summerside were present.

CITY LEAGUE

At the Abegweit Grounds this evening the Rovers and Stars will meet in the tenth game of the City League Baseball.

In the last game the Rovers did not make the good showing they started out with this was not due so much to the pitching staff as it was to the poor support in the field.

However they have had a few nice work outs since then and have also seen how costly errors have proved in the ball games of the City League and are going out tomorrow evening with action stamped right into their game and are going to make the Stars move in.

Three events are on tomorrow's card, a named race with three entries; the 2.24 with nine entries, and Junior free-for-all, three entries.
