—ENJOYING THEIR VISIT—Among the recent arrivals on P. E. Island were Mrs. Margaret E. Conroy and son Clarence H. Conroy of Arlington, Mass. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred W. Conroy who are on a wedding tour. They motored all the way stopping at St. John, N. B. and Sussex, N. B. They are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Campbell, Montague, for a few days. Mrs. Rachel E. Morrison, daughter of Mrs. Archie Campbell, will return with them. Mrs. Margaret Conroy, was the daughter of the late Mrs. Peter MacLeod of Lorne Valley. Mr. Clarence H. Conroy has not been here for fifteen years, and when asked how everything looked to him, referred to "Longfellow's 'Evangeline'." Still stands the forest primeval. LONDON LETTER

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

COWBOYS AT WEMBLEY

The British Empire Exhibition is attracting an increasing number of visitors not only from all parts of Great Britain but from the Dominions. Interesting as are the exhibitions housed in the various pavilions, the extensive and varied programme of entertainments given in the Stadium represent an important aspect of "pulling power" so far as visitors are concerned. Of these entertainments none have excited greater interest than the rodeo performances given by Canadian Cowboys and cowgirls. The first of which was witnessed last Saturday. It is not every day that we see cowboys in London. Consequently, the papers have been full of pictures of these visitors from the prairies. Columns have been printed about them. In fact no feature of the Exhibition has received greater publicity. The result was seen on Saturday when no fewer than 80,000 spectators assembled to witness their first performance.

A NOTE OF CRITICISM

Of course, the very name "rodeo" sounds strange to English ears. Not only has its meaning had to be explained. We have also had to be taught how to pronounce this novel word. It follows therefore that few of those present could claim to have seen anything in the nature of a rodeo performance before. Steer roping, riding, and wrestling—all these features of sportsmanship, so full of thrills, possessed for the beholders all the charm of the unknown. "Steer roping," however, has evoked a measure of criticism because of the supposed cruelty which it necessitates. The Times, in the course of a notice published today, a notice sympathetic on the whole, asks that this item shall be removed from the programme. Our premier newspaper remarks: "However great the skill shown by both man and horse may be, it is not a pleasant sight to see the animals thrown with the violence that they have to be thrown, and then manhandled, as even the luckiest must be; and the promoters of the Rodeo will be well advised to withdraw this item from the programme. With the one item out of the programme there would be no excuse for any accusation of cruelty; all the rest of the performance is fair sport and immensely thrilling."

CANADA'S DEAD

A touching ceremony which furishes proof, annually, that England remembers the great sacrifices which Canada made in the war is due to take place two days hence. Flowers are to be deposited on the graves of those Canadian soldiers who lie buried in the cemetery at Shorncliffe in Kent. This is an annual event and is attended by the mayors and corporations of the ancient towns of Lythe and Folkestone and by Naval, Military and Air Force representatives. It is an interesting coincidence that this commemorative falls on the anniversary of a day which means so much for the fate of England—June 18, 1815, when Napoleon was vanquished at Waterloo.

SHEEP AND CATTLE NEWS

There is evidence that breeders of Irish pedigree animals are coming to regard Canada as a potential market for the sale of their stock. I learn at the High Commissioner's Office that the Royal Dublin Society has requested the Canadian Government to obtain for it recognition of the "Herd book of Irish large white pigs," on the list of Canadian National live stock records. Ireland has free entry to the English market for all kinds of stock breeding and other animals. Canada has entry only for near-breeding animals.

By the way several shipments of Canadian store cattle have recently been landed at Avonmouth, Birkenhead, and Manchester in fine condition. Turning from cattle to sheep I learn that the secretary of the Suffolk Sheep Society has written the High Commissioner stating that his Council send a cordial invitation to Canadian visitors to inspect some of their leading pedigree Suffolk flocks at the society's special sales on August 6 and 7th when thousands of rams and ewes will be on view. Dominion agriculturists will also be given an opportunity shortly of seeing some Welsh breeds of cattle. The High Commissioner has been notified that Canadian visitors will be cordially welcomed at the annual show of the Royal Welsh Agricultural Society, to be held at Bridgend in the County of Glamorgan on July 23, 24, and 25th.

THE CANADIAN BOWLING TEAM

The Canadian Government Pavilions at the Empire Exhibition, which I have always found crowded with visitors on the occasion of my trips to Wembley will be a centre of social activity a few days hence—in the 29th—when the Canadian Law Bowling Team will be welcomed after the match which is to take place at Wembley Park on that date. The teams are to be entertained to luncheon and afternoon tea by the Middlesex County Bowling Association.

for Canada well looked after when they reach their destination? The question was discussed and some frank opinions expressed at a conference in Glasgow the other day on the question of child emigration to the Colonies.

Dr. G. C. Cosnar, Craigleithan Boys' Farm, Paisley, said they wanted to see that the children sent from Britain to Canada were well looked after when they reached the Dominion. If the officials on this side could get that assurance many parents who were at present doubtful would be, he thought, quite willing to allow their children to emigrate. That point was really one of the most important with which they were faced.

Mr. Douglas, West of Scotland Orphan Homes, Bridge of Weir, who had just returned from Canada after taking out a party of children, referring to the Immigration Bill of the Government of Ontario, said that we in this country were as anxious as the Canadians to secure a better protection for boys and girls landing in the Dominion. He had found that many people in Canada, as elsewhere, were not exactly angels, and that those who professed to be most dangerous to deal with in business. The officials of homes on this side would have been satisfied if the Government of Ontario had consulted those who had 50 to 60 years' experience in emigration regarding the methods which should be adopted in order to protect emigrant children.
