-THINGS WORTH REMEMBERING.-The Equitable Maritime Black Fox Company Limited have six pairs of genuine Silver Black Foxes in their Ranch at O'Leary, including the Dalton, Rayner, Gordon, Tuplin and Lewis strains. The capitalization is only $16,000 per pair. There is a small block of stock still on the market. Intending purchasers will do well to call or write or phone Messrs J. M. Nicholson or G. M. Matthews of O'Leary, who will be at Queen Hotel, Charlottetown from 16th to 21st Feb. It should be noted that those purchasing stock now will share in October dividends. 1222-2-14mt.

-DWELLING BURNED.-Deep sympathy will be felt for Mr. and Mrs. James Carruthers and family, of North Bede, in the loss by fire yesterday of their beautiful home, one of the best farm houses in the county. About 7 o'clock in the morning, just after the kitchen fire had been started, a spark caught near a safe connecting the kitchen and dining room. With the exception of Mr. Carruthers' son, Clement, who was at the barn at the time, all the members of the family were in the house when the fire was discovered it had gained such headway that, with the appliances at hand, nothing could be done to save the building. The household was quickly aroused and they, with the assistance of neighbors who hurried to the scene, succeeded in getting out the greater part of the furniture and some household effects. The outbuildings and barns, although seriously threatened, were saved with great difficulty. A large quantity of potatoes and turnips in the cellar was destroyed. There was no insurance either on the building or its contents and the loss, in addition to the inconvenience of being turned out of a comfortable home at this season of the year, will be very heavy.

figured out a deficit? This "no pay and nothing" seems to be a popular retort. The greetings being ended the company sat themselves on chairs, if there be any Frank ladies present it not, they betake themselves to the divans and carpets, and the cake eating begins.

The custom of removing one's shoes before entering a room is not a relic of the past, but comes of the necessity for keeping carpets clean, being that they fulfill the purpose of hairs, tables, and sofas in other countries.

The ladies' room may be furnished like a Parisian boudoir; but custom is stronger than fashion, and the Turks like to recline or sit cross-legged on the floor.

The mistress of the house—the Baku Hanum (great lady), to give her full title—dresses much like an English lady nowadays, reads French novels, and plays the piano.

VOICE, SPEECH AND CULTURE.
In these days nothing so marks a gentleman as his voice and choice of words. The charm of an agreeable voice is more potent a factor than that of a pretty face, and while many an attractive girl, perhaps possessed of real beauty kills all admiration the moment she begins to speak, just so many a really plain girl can win the notice and hold the attention simply by a delightfully modulated voice and cultured choice of words.
