"throat easy"

says CHAS. DE BELLE, A.R.C.A.

"When working on a picture, when creating beauty, a Buckingham is a pleasant help. I enjoy it and it has never caused my throat the slightest irritation."

Chas. de Belle

CHAS. DE BELLE, world-famous poet and painter, is one of the greatest living pastellists. For sixteen years he has resided in Montreal. Mr. de Belle is an associate of the Royal Canadian Academy. Many of his pictures have been bought by the Canadian Government.

—A GOOD CATCH—Mr. W. J. Cheverie, Customs Examiner for Charlottetown, at present relieving the Customs Collector for Souris, accompanied by Sgt. William MacInnes, of the Charlottetown Police, went fishing on Hay River, near Souris last Thursday. While so employed Sgt. MacInnes noticed something concealed among the bull-rushes which fringe the stream. On closer examination it turned out to be five ten gallon kegs of excellent rum. The find was taken to Souris, and thence on Friday to Charlottetown, where it is now in the custody of Mr. J. D. MacMillan, Collector of Customs.

P. E. Islnaders In Auto Accidnt

OTTAWA, Ont., July 23.—A motor car accident featuring Miss Hilda Gallant and A. Peters of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and Miss Julia Reed, Gladys C. Blake, Mildred E. Blake and Clara Blake of Boston, resulting on the Prescott highway yesterday afternoon in the practical demolition of two cars.
Miss Gallant was driving one car and Miss Reed the other when they met in a head on collision.
Miss Gallant was attempting to pass a hay rake when the crash came.
In spite of the destruction of the automobiles, the injuries to the occupants were slight.
Immediately following the impact a verbal argument ensued as to who had the right of way.
This will probably be settled in court since traffic officer Fred Turner, has laid a charge of reckless driving against one of the female chauffeurs.
Apparatus that registers the passage of a bowling ball down an alley has been developed by an Oberlin College scientist for purposes of study.

Pownal News

The service at the United church here was well attended on Sunday evening. The service was directed by the Rev. Mr. Littlejohns, while the message was delivered by Rev. Mr. Graham, of New Brunswick.

The subject chosen was "The Church and Citizenship." During the first part of the service the ordinance of Baptism was observed, when the little baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Jenkins, of Millview, was dedicated to Christ by baptism, and what could be purer, holier and more acceptable in His sight than this sweet little child? Such an act on the part of the parents is surely Christ-like, for He said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for such is the Kingdom of Heaven." The musical part of the service was brightened by a vocal solo by a visiting friend from Montreal.

We have reached our objective in Sabbath School attendance, 50 being present last Sunday. Let us keep up the record. Still there is another objective we should strive to attain; let us open our S. S. on time.

The church has been nicely painted and presents a clean, fresh appearance, and the cemetery is being cleaned up by contract, which will add much to the appearance of the church property. The church doors are open to all to come and spend the evening hour in worship, or better still, the Sabbath morning hour in study of His divine word.

The ice-cream social which was held at the Parsonage, Hazelbrook, on Wednesday evening, began with a good crowd, and things looked favorable to a successful event. However, the weather did not prove very favorable, which caused the people to disperse at a very early hour.

Messrs. Arthur Brown and Harold Lawton, city, were visitors in Pownal recently, at the latter's home. Harold is one of the successful second year P. W. C. students, who is contemplating entering the teaching profession, and having proved himself a faithful and successful student, his friends feel sure he will make equally as good a teacher. He has Force, went fishing on Hay River, at present a lucrative position in the city.

Miss Hilda Rudell and Miss Eliza Jardine, of Regina, are visiting in Pownal, the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. W. E. Smith.

Miss Ethel Enman has returned home from Dunstaffnage, where she spent a very enjoyable time.

In Memoriam

ERNEST J. CURRIE

On Monday July 9th, there passed peacefully away at his home in Fair View, Ernest J. Currie son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Currie at the early age of 44 years.

Ernie as he was familiarly called, was loved by all who knew him, always had a cheery word and sunny smile for all who visited his home. He was tenderly nursed by his wife, mother, sisters and kind friends who were in constant attendance at his bedside.
Death is always sad, and that parting with the nearest and dearest in this world is of necessity sorrowful.

Fortified by the multiplied grace of the last sacraments of the Holy Catholic Church he awaited the end resigned and fearless, composed and strengthened by the consoling ministrations of religion.

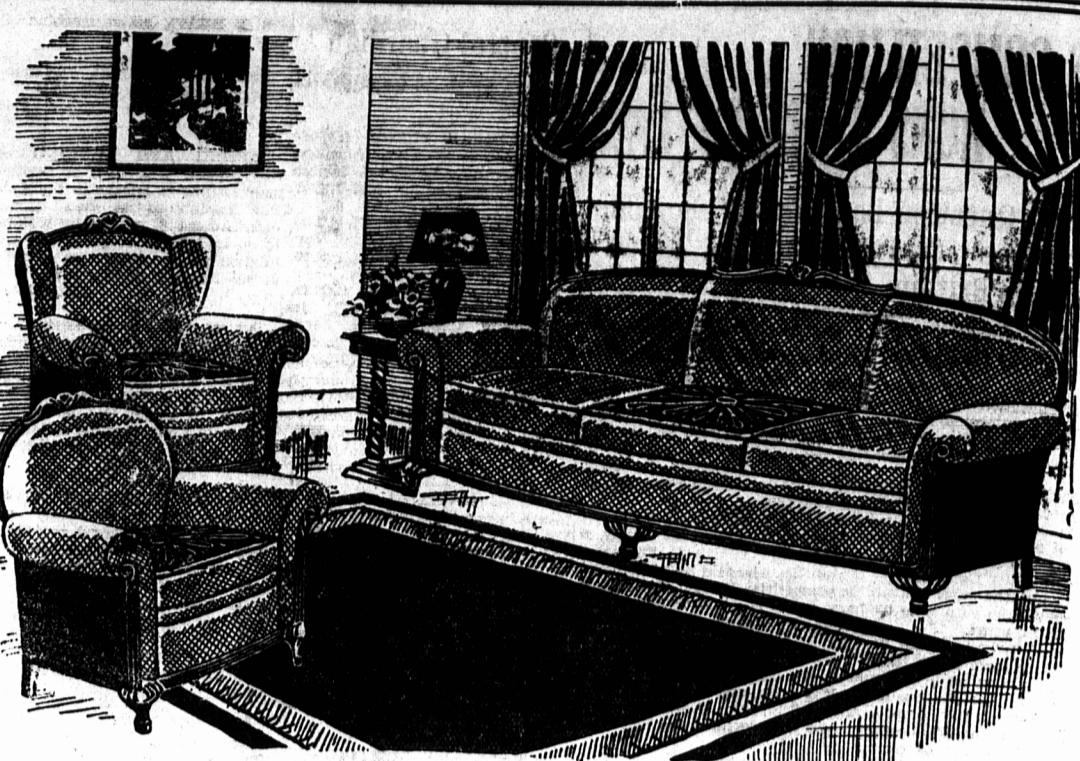

He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow and three small children also father, mother, and one brother, Leo, at home, seven sisters, Stella, Dominion, Mrs. Jas. Cavanagh, New Haven, Stella and Lillian of Brighton, Mass. All of whom were present at the time of death, except Mrs. Richard Kappel and Mrs. Augustine Frank who reside in Sask.

The funeral was largely attended on Wednesday July 11th. Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father McCarthy, after which the remains were laid quietly to rest in South Shore cemetery.

The pall bearers were Edward Currie, Wm. King, Alex. McIsaac, Geo. A. Wilson, Wellington Murphy and John McDougall.

A great number of spiritual offerings testified to the sincere sympathy which is being extended to the bereaved family.

Cross from Fair View Institute. Messrs. Currie, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Owen King, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Murphy and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kiggins and Rosalee, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. James Cavanagh, Rev. Sister M. Catherine Kinross, Mrs. Annie Cavanagh, Mrs. Minnie McIsaac and family, Mrs. Catherine McEwen, Mrs. Stanley Taylor, Wm. and Frank King, Leo Currie, Stella Currie, Stella and Lillian Currie, Marguerite and Selina Currie.
