In Memoriam

JAMES HENDERSON HIGSON

The death of the late James Henderson Higson, which occurred at his home, 35 Upper Hillsboro St., Charlottetown, on Sept. 30th was heard with regret by his many friends both here and in his former home in Nova Scotia.

A son of the late John Higson, for many years mines supt. with the Acadia Coal Company, Stellarton, he lived the greater part of his life in that town where he was widely known and respected for his sterling character and kindly heart.

He was a member of Sharon-St. John's United Church and although confined to a wheel chair for the past nine years, his wonderful patience and cheerful courage all through his illness were an inspiration to those around him.

A P.N.G. of Fuller Lodge I.O.O.F. No. 5, Stellarton, which he served faithfully as secretary for over twelve years, he was also a Past Chief of the Order of the Eastern Star, No. 1, in that town.

The funeral took place Oct. 2nd to the People's Cemetery and was conducted by the Rev. A. E. McKenzie, co-pastor of Trinity United Church; the service at the grave being in charge of Mr. Menzies, representing Willey and St. Lawrence Lodge, Charlottetown.

Members of which the following pall bearers were: Messrs. Walter E. Burke, C. H. Black, A. O. F. Gill, Samuel French, Gordon Leitch and John T. Martin.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, his wife, one daughter Eleanor, two sons, John and Phillip, and the following brothers and sisters: Phillip and Reginald in Trenton; John in New Glasgow; Alice (Mrs. George McLaughlin) Stellarton; Louise (Mrs. Laurie Ferguson), Charlottetown; and Mrs. J. A. Johnston and Mrs. Bert Howie in Winnipeg, all of whom have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad bereavement.

Under the Licensing Act the minister of the industry is empowered to license all trades and businesses and industries except those exempt by statutory regulations.

Mr. Bannerman said he had obtained legal opinions which showed the Alberta government has not the power to collect business licenses in the town owing to its unique position.

The Rocky Mountain resort town is in a dual taxation position. Both federal and provincial governments can collect certain taxes from the town.

Under the Licensing Act the minister of the industry is empowered to license all trades and businesses and industries except those exempt by statutory regulations.
