

Just opened at the Railway Grocery two beautiful lines of special Xmas goods in candy, raisins, currants and other fruit. Also ginger ales, champagne, cider and all kinds of popular drinks, all selling at lowest price.—J. B. Strong. 20 31

A USEFUL sensible and durable Christmas present for your gentleman friend would be one of those American office sets which Rogers & Rogers are offering. They consist of one quart bottle of black ink, one half pint bottle of best red ink, one half pint bottle best mucilage and two patent glass ink stands. Each set picked in a neat wooden box and the price is only $1.00. If bought separately the same goods would cost about double the money. Call and see them. 20 till Xmas.

plated hockey skates for boys and girls, adies and gentlemen. Prices right. Also hockey sticks, shin guards, anklets and pucks. You don't waste your money when you buy such things as these for Christmas presents.

THE Boy's Brigade assembled in uniform in the western school building and presented Captain Rev. J. M. Withycombe with an address and a well filled purse. There were a number of visitors present among them Rev. W. H. Smith, Rev. Neil McLaughlan, Mr. J. H. Bell, Mr. Neil McLeod, Mr. R. Hunt, Mr. Wm. Stewart, Mr. P. W. Morrison and others, most of whom addressed the meeting expressing the general regret among citizens of all classes at Mr. Withycombe's proposed departure Mr. Withycombe addressed the Brigade and the citizens in touching terms thanking his boys for their generous gift and expressing his best wishes for their future welfare. The meeting closed with the National Anthem and three hearty cheers by the Brigade for Mr. Withycombe.

comfortable observation from which to watch the Stanley ploughing up the harbor ice. A telegram announcing that she would not leave Picou until today brought operations to a close. Citizens are advised to prepare for climbing again early this afternoon.

AN hour midnight on Wednesday last the family of Mr. J. W. Brown, Tyne Valley, were startled to find their dwelling house on fire. Fortunately the fire was discovered in time and was soon extinguished by the exertions of the neighbors who hastened to the rescue as soon as alarmed by Miss Milly Brown, who was the first to make the discovery. The fire originated on the first floor which must have been ignited by the furnace, and when discovered the fire had reached the second story.
