RELIGIOUS SERVICES

ST. JAMES CHURCH
Both services held yesterday in St. James Presbyterian Church were conducted by the Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D. D.

At the morning service Dr. Legate spoke from The Acts 11:26. The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. In an inspiring sermon he emphasized the meaning of the word Christian. The Minister pointed out that the followers of Christ in the beginning were not disciples. They were men of knowledge and learning. They were described by Paul in his letters as brethren, closely-knit by faith for the common good of one another. Finally the Minister said the name Christian was applied to those subscribing to the teachings of Christ and it came to bear the greatest meaning of all embracing the two earlier designations.

At the evening service Dr. Legate delivered a sermon on prayer. He spoke from the text Luke 11-9. Mrs. J. A. Lawson was soloist at the evening service. An organ selection was played by Mrs. G. Elliott Full, acting organist, during the offertory at the evening service.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH
The sermon at the morning worship at Trinity was preached by Rev. Harold Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wright of this city. Mr. Wright graduated in arts from Dalhousie University and in theology from the Divinity Hall, Halifax. He was licensed to preach in Trinity Church and ordained to the holy ministry at the recent Maritime Conference of the United Church of Canada at Sackville. Mr. Wright leaves this week for Saskatchewan where he will begin his active work of the ministry.

The devotional exercises were led by Rev. Hugh Miller, M. A. B. D. The Church's One Foundation was the subject of the sermon. The divine origin of the Church is shown by its founding by our Lord and guidance by the Holy Spirit. It was the personal call of Jesus that drew Peter, Andrew and Philip. The same personal call attracts men and women today from the pleasures of the world to experience "the unsearchable riches of Christ," said the preacher. From the day of Pentecost the Spirit of God has been abroad in the world, bringing men into the Church of God. The story of the remarkable change that has come into the life of Francis of Assisi was related. "The love of Christ quickened the pulse of Francis and with God's help, he was able to stir the whole Church," he declared.

Once again, in the Reformation, the Spirit of Christ was emphasized in the Church. Like many another true saint Martin Luther, "helped to put Christ on the throne."

Dealing with the Church today, Rev. Mr. Wright declared that though "Church organization has been strong the flame within the Christian spirit of love burns very low. The Church of God must present a united front in a dynamic living way."

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the evening worship. Rev. Mr. Miller preached from the text: "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." He reminded his hearers that four hundred years ago, by an order in council of the British Parliament a copy of the Bible in the English language was placed in every Church in the land and traced the inestimable blessing that resulted from the study and teaching of the Bible and placing of the Bible in the hands of the common people in the British Empire and throughout the world.

Miss Doris Tait sang very acceptably Scott's setting of the text "Come Ye Blessed of My Father" and the "My Father's Double Quartet" rendered the well known "Just as I am" hymn. Mrs. M. A. R. Kendall, L. R. A. M. presided at the organ.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Rev. Henry R. Boyer, D.D., Minister of the First Baptist Church of Moncton, N.B., was the preacher morning and evening yesterday. For the morning sermon he took as his theme "Crowding Out Christ," based on the words of St. Luke 2:7, "They laid Him in a manger because there was no room for Him in the inn." Tragically pathetic, that this should be the theme for the first of the three greatest events in history but perhaps not more so than this very day, in millions of lives there is no room for Christ. No room, illustrates the attitude of the modern people when He came. They looked for a champion in shining armour with behind him the tramp of a victorious marching legion, who should set a people free and restore its lost glory. Here is a quiet, humble Man, who walks the roads of Palestine, telling of love, understanding, the Kingdom of God. Christ may be crowded out by pleasure, not that pleasure is to be condemned, but that it and all else should leave generous room for Christ. It may be crowded out by business, the crowd out of room for Him, the solution of the world's problem of economic strife is at hand. Too often Christ is crowded out of our social life to be replaced by the love and enrichment of life.

He may, He often is, crowded out of national relationships, out of the result of national animosities, out of the result of national pride, out of the result of national selfishness. How may we start on the true way? It must begin in our own hearts individually, and let us be encouraged in such allegiance. Christ is the King of Kings and His principles shall conquer and His dominion shall be from sea to sea, from the river unto the ends of the earth.

The Church School had a large summer attendance, meeting at the close of the morning service, using the new classrooms.

The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion by girl friends of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Partridge, assisted by Rev. C. D. National Park Act To Be Given "Minor Adjustments"

Hansard, June 14, reports the following reference to the Prince Edward Island National Park, made in the House of Commons on a resolution to amend the Act.

Hon. Mr. Crerar: "Mr. Chairman, the purpose of this resolution is to lead up to a bill amending The National Parks Act and The Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island National Parks Act. It is necessary to make some corrections in the boundaries of the park in Prince Edward Island. As the members of the committee are aware, the government of Prince Edward Island set aside or acquired the area that was later transferred to the dominion administration for the development of a national park in that province. This involved the acquisition of property from various individuals, and in the adjustments incidental to the acquisition of this property it is now found necessary to change in some slight particulars the boundaries of some of the areas acquired."

Mr. Stewart: "Is the change in the boundaries of the Prince Edward Island park in the nature of an enlargement of the park, or otherwise? I gathered from the remarks of the minister, perhaps on a former occasion, that this area had been acquired by the province government, and that there had been no expenditure of expenditure directly by the dominion government in connection with the acquisition of these lands. I should like to know if my recollection is correct."

Mr. Crerar: "That is correct."

Mr. Stewart: "Then I should like to know whether the compensation to the owners of the lands included in the park has been adjusted, and that is all settled, and why the area is being either enlarged or decreased."

Mr. Crerar: "My recollection at the moment is that the park area is being slightly curtailed. I am not correct in that. There are some minor adjustments in connection with the acquisition of the property, but of course that is not a matter that concerns the federal administration. All we are concerned with is whether or not the area which the provincial government is willing to turn over to us is suitable for park purposes, and the slight rectifications in the boundary that are suggested will not in any sense interfere with the administration of the area for park purposes."

Scout News and Notices

One hundred Roman Catholic Boy Scouts formed a guard of honor for the Holy Eucharist procession on the occasion of the Silver Jubilee of the late St. Augustine's Seminary, Scarborough, Toronto.

A Boy Scout and Girl Guide good turn party for the blind people of the district is being organized in co-operation with the Brockville-Leeds Branch of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

Godon Drillon, famous right wing of the Toronto Maple Leafs and leading N. H. actor, was invested into the ranks of the Boy Scouts Troops of St. John's United Church, Moncton, N. B. A former member of the Wolf Cub Pack, Mr. Drillon was made an honorary member of the Bear Patrol.

The Boy Scouts of Shelburne, N. S. wanted tidier business streets for their town this summer, so they took the matter in hand themselves. They made wastepaper barrels painted them black and yellow and placed them along the main street, and to ensure a clean start, picked up all paper and other rubbish, carried it away and burned it.

At the annual Halton County Jamboree at Acton Park, 300 Boy Scouts were present from Acton, Clarkston, Fergus, Galt, Guilford, Milton, Mimico, Oakville, Oshawa, Halimoro, Port Credit, Toronto and Weston. The programme of scouting tests included as a new feature the making of a topographical sketch map. On Sunday morning the boys attended services in the five Acton Churches.

Illustrating that the effectiveness of the Boy Scout training is universal comes a list of gallantry medals awarded to Scouts in India. They included the Gilt Cross to Governor Scout Umahai Butai of Nagpur, Central Provinces, for saving a woman from drowning in a well, and a Certificate of Gallantry to Scout Shillingham of Shimoga, for "catching a burglar and handing him over to the police."
