AFTER a long and pleasant holiday spent among friends and neighbors in Kingston, Geo. W. Fraser and wife leave this morning on return to California accompanied by his sister Mrs. D. Laudwin and daughter of Providence, R. I. Before leaving they were tendered a farewell reception Wednesday evening at the beautiful residence of his brother Daniel L. Fraser the former home of Mr. Fraser. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns, carnations and asters, while the lawn was profusely illuminated with Chinese lanterns. At eight o'clock quite a number of invited guests sat down to a sumptuous repast prepared in Mrs. Fraser's best style. The evening was pleasantly spent with music, games and social chat. Miss Mabel Crawley presiding at the organ. Fruit and confectionery were served and the guests departed wishing their friends a safe return home.

On Saturday evening not a great while ago the young people of Bridgetown (Dundas) together with several friends from Charlottetown, who were passing a pleasant holiday there, enjoyed an outing on Grand River. Two boats laden with a bevy of young folks departed from the shore about 8 p. m. To the strains of those old but ever new songs—and to the latest gems of the days—the boats were skillfully guided on their way by the masculine element of the party showing that they were masters of the art. After about an hour and a half of boating the party repaired to the Riverside Hotel when pleasing conversation whiled away another hour. Icecream and cake was served by the young ladies and as the midnight hour drew nigh everyone felt it had come all too soon. Among the out of town guests present were Messrs. M. A. Hubley I. B. Scott, E. L. Beer and M. G. McLeod, Omaha, Neb.
