(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) LONDON, April 14—Guests at a state banquet in Buckingham Palace May 6 in honor of the King's Jubilee will not eat off the King's famous gold dinner service.

It has been decided that the service, which with the rise in the price of gold is now worth approximately $18,000,000, is too valuable to risk its getting scratched.

Monthly Meeting Of Holy Redeemer H. N. Society

At the regular monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society of Holy Redeemer Parish, held in the parish hall last evening, a very large number were in attendance. The President of the Society, Mr. Philip Rosier, presided. The meeting opened with prayer by the Spiritual Director, Rev. H. I. Fleming, C.S.S.R. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary-treasurer, Mr. Pius Callaghan, and unanimously adopted. A lucid and very instructive address, which imparted considerable valuable knowledge, was ably and eloquently given by Mr. James Coyle, Jr., the subject being "Work and Wages," which was based on the encyclical of Pope XI on "Social Justice." An open discussion ensued, which was partaken in by a number of those present and which ultimately brought forth much very valuable information. Another feature of the meeting was a vocal solo, which was very pleasingly and capably rendered by Mr. Pius Callaghan, with Mr. Alex McLean as accompanist. The number was heartily enjoyed. Present on the platform besides the officers of the Society were Rev. Father Fleming, Spiritual Director of the Society, Rev. Father O'Hara, and Rev. Father McKenna. Suggestions concerning parish activities, which might be undertaken by the members of the Society, and which would contribute towards the welfare of the parish were made by Rev. Father Fleming, who also complimented the speaker of the evening on his fine address. A hearty vote of thanks, which was moved by Pius Callaghan and seconded by Stephen Connolly, was tendered Mr. Coyle for his splendid address. A vote of thanks was also tendered Mr. Callaghan for his contribution towards the entertainment of the evening.

"How my Father raised a Family on $1 a Day"

A Real Life Experience as told by Mrs. F. A. C.

WHEN my father married he was just 24. His job brought him only 90c a day. My parents first task was to get about buying a life home. Their next move was to take out Life Insurance. As time went on there were five children. My father's wage was eventually raised to one dollar out of which we had to clothe and feed our large family—and still pay the premium on Life Insurance.

For 20 years my father worked from 7 to 6 o'clock without a day off. Then he began to show the effects. Whenever he sat down he would fall asleep. By this time my two oldest brothers had good jobs in the city. They persuaded my father to sell his house and move to the coast. Although he found work, he was not suited to it and turned back to Western Canada after five years.

He bought land and set to work, content that at last he had found the life he longed for—land for his sons; a home and independence in time for his family. Then a sad thing happened. While putting in his first crop he was stricken with paralysis. His insurance policy contained a disability feature. It was like a God-send as there was no money from the farm thus far. This insurance money kept him comfortably provided for until he died four years later.

An early frost had ruined the crop. There was no ready money. It was a crisis and his insurance money "saved the day." All accounts were paid. We bought the adjoining quarter section, a snap for cash. The first crop replaced the money easily. The children were given a good education. Today my mother is well provided for in her home with three of her children. All this was due largely to the Life Insurance money my father had taken out when money was so scarce with us.

A Plan to Finance Your Future

Modern life insurance plans are so varied and flexible that they can be adapted to any personal or family requirements.

Great-West Life policies will provide an income for your wife and children for a given number of years or for life, bring you a guaranteed income for life at any selected age; provide a specified sum in cash at any age you wish; furnish the necessary funds to educate your children; or guard against any contingency which might face yourself or your family in the future.

Is it any wonder that millions of Canadian men and women have made plans to finance their future in this safe, sure and inexpensive way? For instance, if you are in the Preferred Risk Class, a little less than 30c a day (age 35) will provide $5,000 protection under the Great-West Preferred Whole Life plan, and you share, as well, in the profits of the Company.

Great-West Life profit-sharing policies are both safe and profitable—whether you live to a good old age or not. You would enjoy reading some true stories telling what insurance with The Great-West Life has done for others. A number of these stories are now available in booklet form. Mail the coupon for your copy free.
