other foundation would be a gunny sack. "Chant Indou" is made of heavy white crepe marocain with a curious belt that extends from slightly below the armpits to midway of the hips. It consists of narrow rolls of purplish-brown georgette interspersed every two or three rows by white cord, but it is much softer and flatter. From out of the top of this belt arrangement, soft folds of the crepe-marocain cross in the front like a fichu, go over the shoulders and do the same in the back.

The second annual meeting of the Earncliffe Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Mutch on Monday, November 9th, with thirteen members and eight visitors present. The meeting opened by singing "Institute Ode", followed by recital of Creed. Roll call was then responded to by paying membership fee. Minutes of previous annual meeting and last regular meetings were then read and adopted.

A splendid address was given by the President, Mrs. J. J. McInnis. Report of different committees were then heard from; also report from Secretary-treasurer, giving an itemized account of the year's work. Receipts, $127.75; Expenditure, $59.75, making a total of $68.00 on hand. Electing of officers for the ensuing year are: President, Mrs. Sydney McLeod; Vice-president, Mrs. John Carrier; Secretary-treasurer, Laura Young, re-elected; Directors, Mrs. Peter McInnis, Mrs. John McKinnon and Mrs. Celia McKinnon; Auditors, Mrs. Roy Mutch and Miss Ena McLeod.

It was moved and seconded that a vote of thanks be extended to the retiring President, Mrs. J. J. McInnis, and to other officers as well. A prize was given Mrs. Roy Mutch and Mrs. Laura McInnis for perfect attendance during the year by the Secretary. Tickets were then drawn for the Institute rug, ranging from ten to forty, the lucky ticket being won by Mrs. Celia McKinnon and the proceeds amounting to $7.71. A duet was beautifully rendered by the Misses Elsie McInnis and Hazel Ings. Mrs. John Carrier kindly invited the next meeting, roll call to be "How to Improve the Institute."

The meeting was then brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. A dainty lunch was then served by the hostess, Mrs. Mutch.

parents in 1902. In 1908 she was united in marriage with Angus D. McDonald, and to this union was born six children, three sons and three daughters: William A., Lillian M., Christine M., John A., Roderick, and Ruth Elizabeth, all of East Millinocket, who with the surviving husband and father are left to mourn the loss of a kind, patient, devoted wife and mother.

In 1914, the family moved to this town, where they have resided ever since. She was deputy town clerk for several years, while her husband held the office. Her daughter Lillian, who was with her, accompanied the remains to her late home, where it rested, surrounded by an abundance of beautiful flowers, which seemed very befitting as she was a great lover of flowers.

Funeral services were held at the Congregational Church at 2.30 p. m. Sunday, where Rev. Raymond Cossaboon spoke in a tender way. The interment was in the local cemetery. The pall bearers were: Dan McDonald, J. E. Nicholson, D. G. Gardner, Bert Nason, Ernest Coon and Frank McChaud.

Besides her own dear family, she leaves to mourn, a heart-broken mother, Mrs. William McNevin, of Howland, one brother and three sisters, Neil MacNevin, Lincoln; Mrs. W. E. Morgan, Bristol, Vt.; Mrs. W. H. Bret, of this town, and Mrs. J. A. Pierce, of International Falls, Minn.

The deceased was the eldest daughter of Mrs. Effie and the late William MacNevin, formerly of East Valleyfield, P. E. Island, Mr. McLeod being the second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alex M. McLeod, of the same place. Although they left their birth place over twenty years ago, they are still kindly remembered, and deep sympathy goes out to Mr. McLeod and family in their sore bereavement, and also the family of the deceased.

CLYDE RIVER YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY—On Wednesday evening, November 25, the young people of Clyde River met at the home of Mr. Peter Inman, for the purpose of organizing a Young People's Society. Rev. Mr. Wakeling occupied the chair and the following officers were appointed: President, John Heartz; Vice President, Robert Matheson; Secretary, Winnie Best; Treasurer, Milton MacLaughlin; Group Leaders, John A. Murray, Mrs. Dan MacNeill; "Leader for Bible Discussion Period", Rev. Mr. Wakeling; Organist, Mrs. Heber MacPhail. After a few brief remarks by the new officers and others the meeting was brought to a close by singing and prayer. A bountiful lunch was then served in Mrs. Inman's usual good style, and after a social hour spent in playing games all dispersed to their various homes feeling that it had been an evening well spent.

HE MARRIED A BEAUTIFUL GIRL FOR REVENGE

She thought he loved her, but no sooner had the wedding vows been taken than he told her that he hated her—"hated her whole breed." For had not her father stood by while he, an innocent man, was sent to prison? And had he not come out with hate and vengeance in his heart? So Jim Lee married John Gresham's girl for revenge—to taunt her father and the other man. But she fought him. She fought him with a weapon he had no defence for . . . love. How this love triumphs over a consuming hate is the story told in

JOHN GRESHAM'S GIRL

Will Maintain Fiduciary Issue

LONDON, Dec. 2—(AP)—The British treasury has decided to maintain its fiduciary issue—that part of the note issued not covered by gold—at £275,000,000, it was announced today.

The authority of the Bank of England to issue fiduciary bank notes to that amount was extended until Dec. 14. The issue was increased by £15,000,000 on Aug. 1. The announcement sets at rest rumors that the treasury intended increasing the fiduciary issue in view of the Christmas demand for currency.
