Mother's prescription

JOHNNY is taking a prescription. His careful mother—the family health doctor—ordered it. Her daily ounce of prevention—Lifebuoy Soap—works wonders in combating disease.

Every day your children touch dirty objects and cover themselves with germ-laden dirt. Give them Lifebuoy—the health soap.

Lifebuoy protects

The rich creamy lather of Lifebuoy carries a wonderful health element deep down into every pore. The skin is completely purified, and cleansed—delightfully stimulated.

LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP

More than Soap—a Health Habit

The colour vanishes after use, but the protection remains.

RADIO SERVICE.—The following bulletin will be broadcast by fifteen radio broadcasting stations across Canada.—Canada's Maritime Provinces are appealing to Canadians of the central and western provinces to spend their vacations there. There is no finer scenery, no more restful nerve-restoring conditions, and no more congenial people to be found anywhere. The location of Prince Edward Island is enough to draw visitors to it. Look at the map and you will not find on the United States Atlantic coast anything to equal it for a holiday. This bulletin is issued by the Natural Resources Intelligence Service of the Department of the Interior at Ottawa.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM CRAPAUD.—A very beautiful wedding was solemnized in St. John's Church, Crapaud, on Wednesday evening, June 25th, at eight o'clock, when Annie Matilda MacDonald, of Crapaud, became the wife of Myron William Seaton of Bridgewater, Mass. The bride was beautifully gowned in white georgette crepe over white silk, and wearing the conventional
