Scout News and Notices

Sergeant T. D. Dixon, a participant in the latest record-breaking flight from England to Australia and return, is another former Scout airman. He was a Wolf Cub, then a Scout in the 8th East Ham Group, London.

A gift of 35,857 acres of mountain peaks, canyons and mesas in northern New Mexico, and $50,000 for its development, was announced by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America. The donors were named as Mr. and Mrs. Waite Phillips of Tulsa, Oklahoma. The area, famous as the scene of Kit Carson's exploits on the old Santa Fe trail, will be used to further mountain hiking and wilderness camping by American Boy Scouts.

The Boy Scout movement throughout the world suffered a serious loss in the recent death of Mr. H. B. Martin, V. O. C. B. E. Director of the Boy Scout International Bureau, and International Scout Commissioner for Great Britain. For 20 years Mr. Martin, who was head of the British Passport Office, gave all of his spare time to Scouting, first as Scoutmaster, then as a County Commissioner for Middlesex, and from 1920 as head of the International Bureau. Mr. Martin played a major role in the organization of the first World Scout Jamboree, held at Olympia, London, in 1920.

It is interesting to compare Scouting as a youth movement with those other youth movements established in certain countries. In those countries the voluntary principle is unknown; youth movements are compulsory. There is nothing resembling the Scout code of honor, and we see the result in those outbreaks of cruel and uncontrolled hoodlums. It is a pity that the Scout spirit of kindness and helpfulness cannot be imported into those movements. The excellent example set by Boy Scouts in all over the world, not only in this country but overseas, makes me prouder than ever of having been President of one of their local associations for two years — Viscount M. I. O. N. County Treasurer, South Yorkshire.

The recent regretted death of Mr. Hubert S. Martin, Director of the Boy Scout International Bureau, recalls the almost chance circumstance which resulted in the first international gathering of Boy Scouts. In 1920, two years following Mr. Martin's appointment as head of the International Bureau, Sir Robert Baden-Powell suggested the holding of a Scout gathering, a "Jamboree," at Olympia, London, in celebration of world peace. At one of the organization meetings the Chief Scout scribbled a note on a piece of blotting paper and passed it to Robert Martin. The note read: "Martin, wouldn't it be a good idea to invite some foreign Scouts to our Jamboree?" Mr. Martin agreed, and invitations were duly sent, with the expectation that only the odd one might be accepted, and a score or more visitors attend. To Mr. Martin's dismay, every invitation was accepted enthusiastically, and he found himself with the responsibility of housing, feeding and otherwise looking after some 12,000 foreign boys and leaders, speaking eighteen different languages. The surprising success and public interest aroused by the gathering automatically called for its repetition, and at four year intervals similar international gatherings of Scouts were held successfully in Denmark, England, Hungary and Norway. The idea was copied in other countries in the form of National Jamborees to which representative Scout groups from other lands were invited. In attendance the climax was reached at the great Scouting's Coming-of-Age Jamboree held in England in 1929. This came 50,300 boys representing practically every country in the world excepting Russia, Italy and Bulgaria — the greatest international assembly of youth in the world's history. And again Hubert Martin, as Director of the International Scout Bureau, played a key role in its organization. The scribbled note on the scrap of blotting paper was one of Lord Baden-Powell's greatest inspirations.

The Bible Society

This is the fourth Centenary of the English Bible. No one can estimate what it has meant to the world—the late King George the fifth said, "The Bible in a secular aspect is the first in all national treasures and in its spiritual significance is the most valuable thing that this world affords." It balances authority with liberty and is an anchor for a disturbed world. Rev. H. J. Oddy, President of The Bible Society, said, "The Bible is great literature though it is vastly more, for in it we find God and Christ and our Duty." The Society which is doing so much to circulate the Book, is not controlled by any one Church, but by all communions of the Reformed Faith. During the last 134 years it has sent out over five hundred million copies of the Scriptures. Through its agency this sacred volume is now read in 723 different languages, and it is also made available in over 40 different translations for the blind. By its missionary work of all Churches at home and abroad, it has made permanent and sound. His Excellency, Lord Tweedsmuir said recently, "I am glad to pay my humble tribute to the work of the Bible Society. It has been doing a work compared to which the Labors of Government and Parliament are small and ineffectual." Parliament writes laws for the regulation of human conduct on the Statute Books of the country, but the Bible writes them on the hearts of men and women. Believing in the Power of this Book, the Society sends it to all parts of the world below cost, instructing its 1000 Colonizers to sell it to all who can pay and give it to all who cannot. They also supply it free to Hospitals, Orphanages, Hostels, Lazarettos, Jails and Penitentiaries. All the work is made possible by free will contributions and the executive earnestly hopes that Prince Edward Island will make a larger response than ever, not only as an act of thanksgiving, but also that the Society may be able to send this Book of Books where it is most needed.

Will those who have not had a call from the Society's collector, please send their contribution to Dr. H. D. Johnson, treasurer, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

50th Anniversary

A very happy event took place at North Rustico on Dec. 12 when Mr. and Mrs. Oliver M. Bernard commemorated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

They were presented by their family with suitable gifts and their little granddaughters Dorothy and Lella Townsend presented their grandmother with a lovely bouquet of carnations.

After the unbroken family circle had partaken of a goose dinner their home was invaded by their neighbors and friends who came to offer their happy congratulations in person. Mr. Ray Toombs was appointed chairman and the following programme was rendered with spirit and gaiety.

Remarks by chairman; reading by Doris Warren; solo by Bob Belton (encored); reading by Mabel Woolner; reading by Mrs. Gordon Laird (encored); selection by Ben Woolner (encored); reading by Mrs. Roy Woolner; quartette by Mrs. Warren Lucy Woolner, Ben Woolner, Olaf Stevenson; reading by Mr. Roy Toombs.

An address was then read by Mrs. B. C. Woolner while Mr. R. G. Fleming presented Mr. and Mrs. Bernard with a beautiful fan substantially decorated with bank notes.

Complimentary speeches were then made by Mrs. M. J. Doyle and stories suitable for the occasion were told in Mr. Chester Woolner's inimitable manner.

FREETOWN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular meeting of the Birch Grove W.I. met on Dec. 14th at the home of Mrs. George Jardine with fifteen members and one visitor in attendance.

The President presided and the meeting opened with the singing of "It's a good time to get acquainted" followed by repeating the Creed in unison. After roll call the minutes of the annual meeting were read and approved. A collection amounted to 71 cents and four membership fees were paid.

A motion was passed that the money be sent to Miss Ross, Public Health Nurse, for the children who took the Tuberculin Test and were unable to pay. It was voted that $4.00 be paid for a treat for the school children. After the correspondence was read it was moved that $3.00 be sent to the P.E.I. T.B. League. It was also discussed that a donation be paid to the Public Hall but nothing definite decided on. It was decided to pack boxes for the needy families of the District at R. C. Auld's store on Friday afternoon Dec. 23rd. It was also understood that each member make candy for the school concert. Reports of committees were then given.

Mrs. Everett Schurman was appointed on the sick committee. There was no program as the committee was not present so it was decided that they be re-elected.
