

QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

Mrs. Geo. Pope, Daly avenue, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Calhoun, in Charlottetown (P. E. I.) has returned home to Ottawa.

Every mile covered by the circulation of The Guardian affords golden opportunities to those who patronize the Classified Columns. You're no exception.

Any good strong country boy, fair size and from fifteen to seventeen years of age, who desires to learn the printing should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right boy.

A FAREWELL party was given on Friday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Jangraw at the residence of the latter's father, Alexander Anderson, Orwell. Appropriate games, recitations and singing were indulged in after which a "Boston" lunch was partaken of with a relish. Mr. and Mrs. Jangraw have made many friends during their visit to the Island. They will return to the Mainland as soon as the winter steamers resume their regular trips.

The Busy Man's Magazine for March sustains the splendid reputation that periodical has established in the magazine world. The articles in this issue will prove of genuine interest to every reader in America. A clever sketch of Rt. Hon. George Houston Reid, ex-Premier of Australia, show what that gentleman has accomplished for the great commonwealth. An equally interesting sketch is that of Luis Terrazas, the world's largest landowner. There are many other articles of special timeliness.

The twenty-four diplomas which Inspector McCormac recently received from England for distribution to the successful competitors in his penmanship competition are really works of art. They are of a very pretty floral design, buff ground, printed in gold and seven colors, and are all in a most attractive tin. The diploma line. The fortunate pupils are indeed to be congratulated on winning such valuable certificates, which in the coming years they will appreciate more and more as a pleasing remembrance of their school days.

INSPECTOR MCCORMAC writes regarding his Free Lending Library:—"In March, 1907, I established a free lending library of professional literature for the use of the teachers of the Eastern Inspectorate. Last March I added to it fifty volumes. I now have the pleasure of adding thirty-six more which will materially increase the usefulness and scope of the library and bring the number of books up to a total of 333. I trust before March, 1908, to be able to add fourteen more volumes, when I shall consider the library complete, and have new catalogues printed. Teachers will please cut out the following list of books just added and append it to the library catalogues already in their hands."

LANTON McCABE, of Alexandria, has received a letter from the Rev. J. Webb, formerly in charge of the Hazelbrook and Pownall Baptist Churches, in which he says, "that he and his wife and daughter have quite recovered from small-pox, and he is preaching again. Mr. and Mrs. Webb had it a mild form, but Miss Webb was very ill, indeed they almost despaired of her life. They were shut in for five weeks, with the words "small-pox" in large letters on the front of the house. They are thankful to be getting stronger, and no pit marks are left on any of them. They were treated most kindly by the Health officers and neighbors."

On Tuesday evening the 5th instant a large basket social and entertainment was held in Elliot Hall, Fair View, under the auspices of Elliot Division, No. 224, S. O. T. The fine hall was crowded to the doors and the order was most excellent while the following program was rendered: A. S. McNeill acting as chairman;—Reading, Josie McNeill; Viola Selection, John McLean; Recitation, Miss McNeill; Recitation, Miss McDonald; Song, Alphonso Murphy; Dialogue, W. S. McNeill, J. Webster; Recitation, Josie McNeill; Reading, James Webster; Viola Selection, John McLean; Song, Mr. Murphy. At the conclusion of the program the baskets were auctioned by Herbert Brown of Charlottetown and realized good prices. The sum of $37.00 was netted which goes to purchase an organ for the hall.
