to the disappointment of his friends and relatives, it failed to have the results for which they hoped. It is only about four weeks ago that his wife, formerly Miss Carrie Saunders, of this city, died. The funeral which was under the auspices of the I. O. O. F., took place on Tuesday, Dec. 21st, from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mayor J. H. Slackford, Truro. Mrs. Nelson was a native of P. E. Island and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn their loss.

CHRISTINA STEWART
Passed peacefully to rest, at her home, Flat River, on Dec. 5th, 1915, Christina Stewart, relict of the late Alexander Beaton, in the 82nd year of her age.

The late Mrs. Beaton was a woman of high and most exemplary character. In the home the loss is irreparable. Unceasing in the discharge of her manifold duties, and tireless in her efforts to advance the educational interests of her family, her example and life still live, as a guiding star to others in the great battle of life.

The end came peacefully after a short illness, borne with true Christian faith and resignation. She died trusting in the merits of her Redeemer, and she now awaits, with yearning love the time, when the great reunion shall be completed—when her loved ones, and others dear to her—in life's journey, shall greet her in that land where sorrow and parting shall be no more.

Of the family of six the following survive: Alexander at home, Mrs. John Cameron, Caledonia, Mrs. John Gillis, Belle River, Mrs. Hugh McLean, Peters Road, Malcolm of Holden, Sask. The eldest, Allan, having died some years after.

The funeral services were most appropriately conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McKenzie, who took as his subject the 23rd Psalm.

The remains, accompanied by a large number of relatives and friends was interred in the cemetery at Flat River.

To the bereaved family the heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended.

Dearest mother! thou hast left us Here thy loss we deeply feel; But 'tis God who has bereft us He can all our sorrows heal.

—A most pleasing and interesting time was spent last evening in Southport School House, the event being a magnificent entertainment given by the pupils of the district. In connection with the concert was a Christmas tree loaded down with scores of useful and valuable presents both for the teachers and for the pupils. Mr. Harvey Christopher, the Principal, and his assistant, Miss Pearl Bell, deserve the greatest praise for their thorough training of the different performers in the evening's programme, and the people of the district proved by their remarks and the frequent outbursts of applause the appreciation which they felt. The evening's programme was opened by an excellent address by Mr. Christopher, the Principal, who dwelt on the progress of the school, which now ranks as one of the finest in the inspectorate and also thanked the parents and ratepayers of the district for their kindness to him during his stay with them. The following programme was then carried out with excellent rendition throughout:

Excellent recitations were also given by Miss Rose Crossman and Mr. McKinnon, the latter being encored and responding with an excellent rendition of "Keep the Home Fires Burning", the pupils joining in the chorus. Among the many visitors was Sergt. Vernon Crockett, of the 105th Highland Battalion, formerly an Inspector of Schools in the Island. Mr. Crockett, who always took a great interest in the Southport School was taken very much by surprise by the welcome accorded him and made a very fitting reply in the course of which he thanked everybody for the kind remarks they had made about him. He also said he was very sorry to leave his work in the Island but he felt it was his duty to don the King's uniform and take his part in the great conflict which was now taking place in Europe. At the close of his oration Mr. Crockett was tendered great applause and three cheers and a tiger which was given with great enthusiasm.

The most pleasing event of the evening to the children was the Christmas tree which was made complete by the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Santa who distributed the presents in a very amusing manner.

During an interval in the programme Miss Gussie Alyward and Mr. Edward Trainor on behalf of the pupils presented Mr. Christopher with an exquisite shaving outfit and address (which appears below) to which Mr. Christopher replied, saying he was quite taken by surprise and had nothing to say but that his heartfelt thanks went out to the pupils and ratepayers of the district for the beautiful present and the remarks they made in reference to him.
