A NARROW ESCAPE.— What might have proved to be a serious fire occurred in Victoria on Saturday, February 12, when the blacksmiths forge owned by Mr. Jos McLeod was discovered to be in flames. HOCKEY.— A very interesting game of hockey took place at Victoria on Saturday afternoon, February 12, between the "Allies" of Tryon, and the "Unions" of Victoria. Owing to the smallness of the rink (which is not the new rink Victoria now boasts of) both teams were at a serious disadvantage. But in spite of difficulties the game was a good one and at the close the score was 3-0 in favor of the "Unions." It's a hard thing to beat the "Unions." It is expected that a return match will be played in Tryon next Saturday.—V.

WAS INVALID FOR HALF A CENTURY

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 15.—Miss Mollie Fancher, who celebrated her "golden jubilee" as an invalid eight days ago, died today at her home in Brooklyn.

Miss Fancher was known to thousands of people all over the world through the extraordinary correspondence she built up during the half century of her invalidism. Although bed-ridden and only able to move her right arm, she worked unceasingly at knitting and embroidery and is said to have used up 100,000 pounds of worsted.

In 1865, when Miss Fancher was 17 years old, and noted for her beauty, she was thrown from her horse and terribly injured. A year later she was the victim of a street car accident, which deprived her of all use of her legs, except her right arm. For nine years she remained in a trance-like condition, during which period, her friends insisted she was clairvoyant. It was in these years that she built up her correspondence, dictating a total of 6,900 letters. During the fifty years of her imprisonment in a sick room, Miss Fancher's chief nourishment was the juice of fruits.
