—RECOVERING—Mrs. Wellington McWilliams, West Cape, who, as already reported in these columns, was severely injured when the sleigh in which she was driving was overturned, was removed on Tuesday morning to Prince County Hospital for treatment. Her many friends trust that with the help of the expert care which she will receive at this institution she will make a rapid and satisfactory recovery. O.

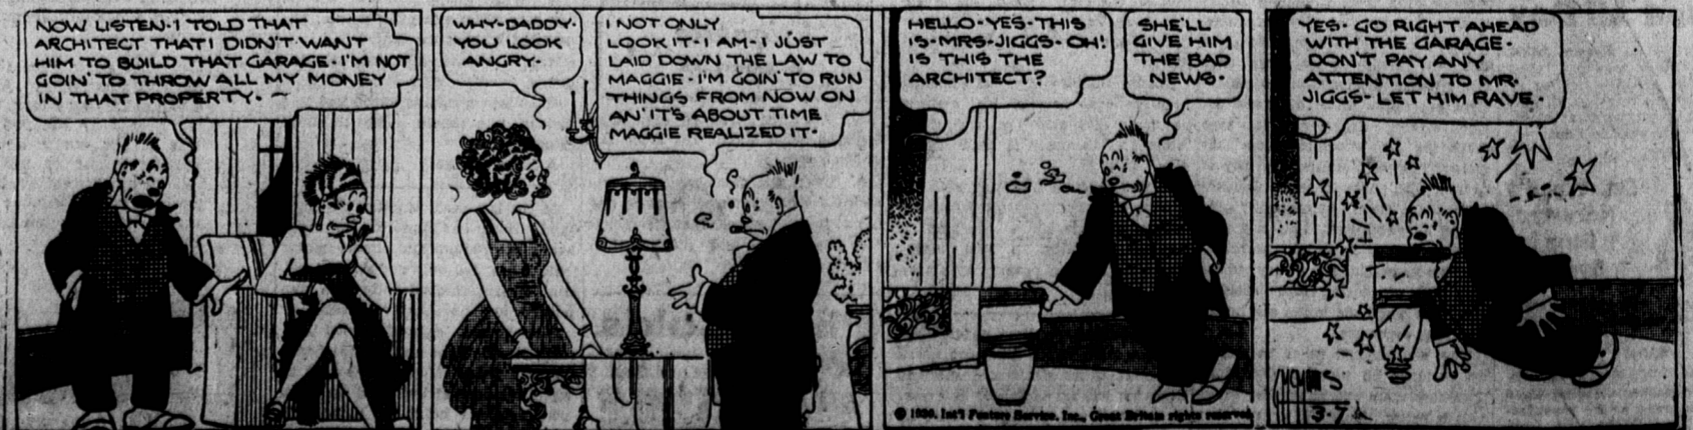

—SERIOUS INJURY—Her many friends will regret to learn of the serious accident of Mrs. Wellington McWilliams, of Cape Wolfe, on Tuesday. Whilst driving home from a visit to her aged father, Mr. L. Hart, the sleigh slid at a bad spot in the road near her home, overturning the sleigh and throwing the occupants out. Mrs. McWilliams sustained a badly fractured hip. She was brought to the Prince County Hospital by Dr. Kennedy, of O'Leary, who was called at the time of the accident. Her fracture was set and Mrs. McWilliams is now resting as comfortably as can be expected, after such a painful injury.—S.

—A QUIET WEDDING—The marriage was solemnized on Tuesday in the Church at Egmont Bay, Rev. F. X. Gallant officiating, of Miss Bella Arsenault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arsenault, of St. Gilbert's, and Mr. Ernest LeClair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie LeClair, of Summerside. Miss Caroline Arsenault, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Jerry Richard, of Summerside, was groomsmen. That evening a sumptuous supper was served at the groom's home, at which a number of friends of the bride and groom were present. The young couple were the recipients of many lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. LeClair will make their future home in Summerside, and have the best wishes of a host of friends.—S.

—CONCERT ENJOYED—A very enjoyable entertainment was held in Springfield Hall on Tuesday evening Feb. 25th, when Springfield Women's Institute staged the play entitled "The Sweet Family." Following is the cast of characters:—Ma Sweet—Mrs. Robert L. England; Araminty Ann Sweet—Miss Iva Buchanan; Betsey Bellinda—Miss Verna Frizzell; Caroline Cordella—Miss Ella Currie; Dorothy Delilah—Miss Clara Wilkinson; Elizabeth Eliza—Miss Claretta England; Francis Feodora—Mrs. Charles Dymont; Gloriana Gadabout—Mrs. W. S. Loring; Jemima Jane—Miss Glen Boulter. Much credit is due all the players for the effective manner in which they performed their parts. Special mention should, however, be made of Mrs. W. S. Loring, who as Gloriana Gadabout kept the audience in gales of laughter from start to finish. A chorus by the Institute—A Vagabond Lover—and singing by Mr. Alton McIsaac were also important and much appreciated features of the programme. Splendid instrumental music was furnished by Messrs. Ralph Cain, Alton McIsaac, and Nelson Mudge accompanied by Mrs. Melvin Ellis. The Springfield Hall was filled to its fullest capacity and a large audience was also present at Cape Wolfe Hall where the entertainment was repeated on the following Thursday. The cast of characters on this occasion was the same except that the part of Caroline Cordella was taken by Miss Jennie Moreshed. Recitations were rendered by Misses Mary Dorgan and Verna Frizzell. A dialogue—Taking the Census—was well-presented by Misses Iva Buchanan and Verna Frizzell. These entertainments were successful both from a social and financial standpoint and the members of the Institute are to be congratulated upon the satisfactory results which they attained.—O.

—DEATH OF MR. WILLIAM P. WOODSIDE—The death occurred on Tuesday night at his home in Malpeque, of Mr. William P. Woodside, at the advanced age of 80 years. The deceased had been in failing health all this winter and his death was not unexpected. He was a man of very fine physique and was hale and hearty until a few months ago, working at his trade of blacksmithing and building until his illness. He was born at Clinton and had been married twice, his first wife being Miss Donalds and his second wife Miss Taylor, both of whom predeceased him. Forty one years ago he started business as a blacksmith in Darnley and was well known there by his business integrity and genial manner. He later went to live with his daughter, Mrs. George Mountain, of Malpeque. There are left to mourn three daughters and five sons, namely, William A., James and Melford, at Delaney; Cheloy and McNeill in the West; Mrs. George Cousins, of Kensington; Mrs. Harold Stewart and Mrs. George Mountain, of Malpeque; to all of whom the sympathy of the community is extended.—S.

—MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—A miscellaneous shower was tendered to Miss Doris Woodside, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Woodside, on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Waugh, Summerside. There were about forty of the girl friends of the bride-to-be present, including members of the Telephone Staff, Baptist Church, Choir and Sunday School class, of which she was a member. The living room was daintily decorated for the occasion in pink and white. A carriage, prettily trimmed in the same dainty colors, contained the gifts and was drawn into the room by little Miss Ilene Woodside. The presents were opened by Miss Clara Mountain and the verses, which caused a good deal of fun and merriment, were read by Miss Rosamond Harding. Many beautiful gifts of china, cut glass, silver ware, ivory and linen were received by Miss Woodside. The choir presented her with a silver electric waffle iron and a pair of solid silver candle sticks. A collection of flat silver from the Telephone girls was much admired. The bride-to-be, in a neat speech, thanked one and all for their thoughtfulness and good wishes. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and recitations. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Assisting Mrs. Waugh were her three daughters, the Misses Jeans, Ruth and Vera. Before leaving for their homes the guests extended their best wishes to the future bride and all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."—S.
