

Joy The Whole Year Round

A Camera makes an acceptable gift at all seasons of the year, and at Christmas time no one present carries with it more of genuine pleasure. With it the joys of the holiday season can be perpetuated in pictures which will revivify the happy hours of Christmas day.

Perhaps next year the old folks will no longer be here. Changes are bound to come. The baby whose first Christmas this is will next year be toddling youngster glorying in the festivities which now he views with open eyed wonder. A picture of him will be priceless later on, for somehow you know these babies have a way of fading from our memories and nothing but a picture can preserve them.

Throughout the whole year the Anso Christmas gift daily bespeaks the thoughtfulness of the giver Surely a camera is a gift ideal, and by giving an Anso you can make your gift distinctive. They range in prices from $2.00 to $50.00
