

ACUTE NERVOUS EXHAUSTION

All Treatments Proved Useless Until He Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES".

MR. JAS. S. DELGATY.

R.R. No. 4, Gilbert Plains, Man.
"In the year 1910, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form; was reduced in weight from 170 pounds to 115 pounds.
The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take "Fruit-a-tives".
I began to mend almost at once; and after using this fruit medicine for 8 or 4 months, I was back to my normal state of health.
I never had such good health for twenty years as I have enjoyed the past six years. We are never without a box of "Fruit-a-tives" in the house."

Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up
This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick relief. Ready and cheaply made.
Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness, croup, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.
To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get 16 ounces—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.
Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.
To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded.

MONDAY
DIED IN HALIFAX.—A telegram received in Charlottetown yesterday afternoon from Halifax brought the sad announcement that Mr. Weston Newbery, son of Mr. Angus Newbery, City, had passed away in the Military Hospital after a short illness of pneumonia. Deceased was a seaman on one of the Canadian Naval vessels at Halifax having only joined the navy a short time ago. He was about 28 years of age, a young man of a quiet and very agreeable disposition and his death is deeply regretted.

—NEW FACTORY and stores for Summerside in the Spring.—The W. A. Leard Canning Company, of which Mrs. Bessie Wood is proprietor have purchased a lot of land known as the Ellis property situated on Water Street opposite the Railway Freight. On this lot, as soon as the frost is out of the ground, they intend erecting a factory where they will have all conveniences for canning fruit, vegetables, meat as well as chicken for which they have been noted for the past fifteen years. Messrs H. R. Crockett and J. E. Gallant, owners of the old Gardner property on the corner of Water and Summer Streets, intend erecting a two story building which will be divided into two parts—one to be occupied by Mr. Crockett as a jewelry store; the other for the Red Cross Drug Store of which Mr. Gallant is proprietor. Both parts will front on Water Street. At the back there will be another store which will be for rent, fronting on Summer Street.—L.

AUTOGRAPH PARTY.—The Tryon Mission Circle held a most enjoyable autograph party on Feb. 12th. The vestry of the Methodist Church was crowded. Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick, acted as chairman. The opening chorus "O Canada" was splendidly rendered. The pastor then read the Scripture lesson and offered prayer. This was followed by the audience joining in singing "The Better Day". A splendidly rendered reading by Master William Lea was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Emma Thompson favored the audience with a pleasing solo. Mrs. Metcalf gave one of her humorous readings in her attractive way. Owing to illness several solos and other musical numbers had to be cancelled. Messrs C. Morrison and B. Lea kindly responded to entreaties of the Committee and most acceptably filled a vacancy by singing two inspiring solos. A. R. Toombs delighted the crowd with his well rendered reading. Miss Wanda Lea was heard to fine advantage in a nice solo. After a brief address by the chairman the offering was taken. This was followed by a social time and delicious refreshments were served. The collection amounted to over Twenty-one Dollars for missions.

On Monday evening, Mrs. John MacFadyen of Clyde River was taken suddenly ill with heart trouble and in the early hours of Tuesday morning, Dec. 17th her spirit was released from the burden of the flesh to be forever at rest "in the Lord". She had not been enjoying good health for a number of years, but her condition was not considered serious and many hoped to see her restored to health, but he who doeth all things well had decreed otherwise. Besides a sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn their loss to cherish and honor her name, a family of three daughters and three sons. The sons are, Norman with the C. E. F. along the Rhine; Millar, teacher at Cornwall and Eric at home. The daughters are, Florence, Jeanette, and Alexandra, all at home. Mrs. MacFadyen was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Campbell of Darlington, who survive her. She is also survived by six sisters and one brother. The sisters are; Mrs. Archibald Beaton of Winsloe, Mrs. John Deacon, Mrs. Luke Deacon, and Charlotte, of Regina, Sask., and Mrs. Dr. A. H. Coleman, Phil. Ohio, and Annie of Darlington P. E. I. The brothers, name is Archibald, Dalton Sask. Another brother Norman predeceased her two year ago. Mrs. MacFadyen was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Brookfield for 26 yrs. and for some time was an active worker in that Sabbath School. She was a woman of the highest moral attainments kind and hospitable, and departed this life as she had lived sustained by an unflinching faith in the christian hope. On Thursday December 19th a large number of people assembled at her late residence to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of one who was dearly loved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, an impressive funeral service was conducted by the Rev. R. H. Stavert. Interment took place at Clyde River Presbyterian Cemetery where all that was mortal of a loving wife and mother was returned to its kindred dust. She will long be missed in the community in which she lived where her memory will be most fondly cherished and her life will be a model for all who wish to tread the path of "the Righteous."

SALE OF FARM.—The sale of Mr. Russel E. White's farm and other property at York Point on Saturday was well attended. The farm of 100 acres, comprising a splendid residence, and outbuildings was sold to Mr. George A. McAulay, of Stanley Bridge, for a sum upwards of $6,000. The stock and implements all brought good prices. Mr. J. A. McDonald was the auctioneer.

A ROW.—A nasty row occurred near the corner of Kent and Queen streets late Saturday night. The police were endeavoring to arrest some intoxicated soldiers acting in a disorderly manner, when some of their companions interfered and for a time things looked anything but pleasant. The policemen as a result of the strong opposition against them did not make any arrest. Officer Taylor in the melee was badly bruised about the face and some present felt the weight of his cudgel. One of the soldiers fired a number of revolver shots during and after the row imparting a flavor of the wild and woolly west to the occasion.

RED CROSS WORK.—The monthly meeting of the Red Point Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Peter Rose on Dec. 29th. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the attendance was not large, and the meeting assumed a social character. A letter was read from one of the boys over there expressing his gratitude and appreciation of his Xmas parcel. The following program was rendered: Reading by Mrs. Peter Rose (a Soldier's farewell) reading by Bessie Robertson "The Brother Ben" by Hazel Rose. "The Brave Soldier Boys" poem by Rhoda Robertson. "It Pays to Advertise" Reading by Minnie Rose. "The Sailor Boys." Reading by F. A. Yates. "My Altar" Miss Leah Ching invited the Institute to meet at her home on February and the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

Mrs. Murdock McLeod, of Richmond Street, received a telegram Saturday being the sad news of the death in Trinidad, Col., of her son John, aged forty-one years. The deceased had been a resident of Colorado for thirteen years, and up to last autumn had been with the Victor Fuel Company as auditor. Subsequently he was appointed City Clerk of the City of Trinidad. He took ill about three weeks ago. His father, Mr. Murdock McLeod, of the Prince Edward Island Railway, left Wednesday morning to visit him, but could not arrive there in time to see his son before he passed away. The late Mr. McLeod leaves to mourn a widow and three children in Trinidad; also his parents, one sister, Miss Florence, and one brother George W., in Charlottetown. There is also another brother, Fred in Auburn, R.I., and another sister, Annie M., in Chestnut Hill, Mass. The late Mr. McLeod, who passed away in the very prime of manhood, was a man of splendid qualities and was most favourably known in this city, where his numerous friends will learn with deep regret of his death. To the bereaved relatives the sympathy of all will be extended.

—WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.—On Tuesday evening the 28th ult. the eve of their fifteenth anniversary of wedded life, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baraby Croken, Freetown, was visited by a number of their friends and neighbors who presented them with two valuable chairs and an address. Mr. Croken, though taken by surprise, in a few well chosen words, thanked the donors for their thoughtfulness and well worded address, after which a very pleasant evening was spent. Following is the address:—To Mr. and Mrs. Baraby Croken,—We the undersigned, representing a few of your many friends have taken this opportunity of assembling here tonight to tender you both, our heartiest congratulations upon having reached your fifteenth wedding anniversary. To us it is a great source of joy to know that in these years, you have both been blessed with heaven's choicest gifts, Health and Happiness. Kind providence has blessed you with a family which we have every reason to believe, will rise up to honor you both in later years. During our years of acquaintance, we have found you to be true and worthy friends, ever willing and ready to help in any movement tending to further the interest of the community. Your kind disposition and generous hospitality has always made us feel a warm welcome when coming to your home. In the school you have taken a great interest in the children's education and welfare. In the Church your strict attention to duty has always been the best. In addition to these few expressions of our esteem and respect for you we ask you to kindly accept these small gifts as a remembrance of our presence here tonight on your fifteenth anniversary with the wish that you both may have health and happiness in the many years to come. The address was largely signed.—K.

A Tribute to the Hardest Worked Merchants in Our Country

HAVE you ever considered the important part played by the grocer in our daily life?
From early morn and often until late at night the grocer keeps open for our convenience.
Whether we want a 5-cent bar of soap, a package of tea or a sack of potatoes he is there to serve us—and with a cheerful "thank you".
You trade with him almost every day. You look upon him as a friend. He treats your children kindly when you send them to the store.
When sickness, accident or unemployment occurs, it is the big-hearted grocer who supplies the home with the necessities of life and often waits a long time for his money.

He has had many trials during the past four years. Government regulations have hampered his business. Goods have been difficult to procure. Help scarce. Profits small. He sells on a closer margin of profit than probably any other line of retail trade.
For nearly twenty-five years, the T. H. Estabrooks Company has been distributing millions of pounds of Red Rose Tea through the grocers of Canada. Our relations with them have been very intimate and very friendly. We, therefore, know something of their difficulties and something of the services they are rendering, which we think deserve recognition and appreciation.

TUESDAY
FOX CARE-TAKERS ASSOCIATION.—At the last meeting of the Fox Care-takers Association, Mr. George Tweedy, who has made a success of the fox business both in Charlottetown and Alberton, gave an excellent address on the care of foxes. His remarks were practical and to the point and were greatly appreciated. The Care-takers are in earnest on the subject of care and attention and with the present upward look in the fox business their frequent conferences and mutual helpfulness will prove a strong factor in placing the business on a stronger and healthier basis than ever before.

WAR SAVINGS SOCIETIES.—Mr. Lewis A. Sheaf, General Organizer National War Savings Committee, Ottawa, is at present in the City and is registered at the Victoria Hotel. Yesterday morning Mr. Sheaf, accompanied by Captain U. G. Dawson, Provincial Secretary, War Savings formed a War Savings Society at Messrs Bruce Stewart & Co. This firm has a splendid record in patriotic work, having not only sent 57 of their employees overseas but contributed most generously to all patriotic funds. They then visited West Kent School where they organized ten societies, one in each room with the teacher as Secretary. Much enthusiasm was shown by the pupils in the project and interest manifested particularly in the choosing of names for the different societies. No doubt war savings in this school will receive an impetus and will set a good example for other schools. The names chosen for these different societies were: Mr. Johnston's Room, Ypres War Savings; Mr. Campbell's, Vimy; Miss McMillan's, Victory; Mr. Yeo's, Carry On; Miss Taylor, Liberty; Miss Smith, Forward; Miss Bell's, Beaver; Miss Yeo's, Maple Leaf; Miss Boate's, Boosters; Miss Jones, Little Helpers. Each one of these societies will receive a charter showing application with the National War Savings Committee, Ottawa. Literature giving information regarding the War Savings Campaign, and any information, can be obtained from the local office 140 Richmond Street.

—LETTER OF SYMPATHY.—The following letter of condolence was received by Mr. Nelson Caseley, from Regal Lodge, No 22, I.O.O.F. Kensington, January 29, 1919. Dear Brother Caseley. Your Brother Oddfellows of Regal Lodge, desire us to express their profound sympathy for you and yours, in the great loss you have so recently sustained. All the world recognizes, that a mother's love is priceless, and that her place in the home can never be filled by anyone else. It is at her knee that the eternal principles of our beloved Order are first learned and the regard for to the Father in whom we all believe comfort, is the confident assurance of friendship, love, and truth has its beginning in the homelife of childhood. is renewed from day to day. That he Fraternally yours C.W. Nelsh, C.J. In your sorrow, we would direct you will prove a never failing source of Cook.—R

Chocolates as a Dessert

"PASS the chocolates again, please." They certainly give a finesse to the meal, which is a most decided improvement over the customary heavy puddings or fancy pastries.
Good chocolates are quite the vogue now for the third course and as a tasty, profitable and beneficial dessert their use is a most sensible custom.
The many occasions on which chocolates can be served with relish and appreciation make them almost a household necessity.
As delicate, delicious desserts—at afternoon tea—as a relish for luncheon—'mid the family circle in quiet hours—or at late suppers—chocolates may be served with excellent taste and good form.
Chocolates are not a luxury. They are energy-producing food and can be eaten in your home with benefit to both old and young.
Canadian-made chocolates have no superiors. Their high standards of quality and wholesomeness are obtained by purity in manufacture and the careful selection of all materials used.
Serve Chocolates as a Dessert. They are a Splendid Food.
