THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

..*IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

..*T. GORDON IVES is Guardian agent in Montague.

..*HOLY TRINITY CHURCH.—Service will be held at Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, next Sunday at 11 and 7 o'clock. Mr. A. G. Cribb will officiate.

..*Rev. A. J. W. and Mrs Back, left yesterday morning for Milltown, St. Stephen, New Brunswick, to assume charge of the Presbyterian Church in that locality. Mr. Back has been pastor of St. Davids Presbyterian Church, Georgetown for two years or more and was a popular preacher and admired by very many out side of his congregation. In social circles they will be much missed as Mrs. Back was an accomplished singer and the family had no mean vocal abilities. A large crowd of their friends assembled at the station and wished them a successful journey.—G.

..*CONCERT.—A number of young people of Georgetown attended the concert and pie social at Cardigan in aid of the Belgian Relief Fund on Wednesday night last. The chairman of the evening was Hon. J. A. McDonald and after the opening address by Rev. J. C. Martin a splendid programme was carried out. Solos were rendered by Miss Jacqueline McDonald, Mr. J. McPherson and Miss Hilda Morson. Readings by Mr. Gerald McCarthy of Georgetown, Master Donald McLaren, Miss Hazel Lewis and Miss Jacqueline McDonald and the three choruses were much applauded by the large audience. Altogether a most enjoyable evening was spent.—G.

..*WEDDING BELLS.—A pleasing and happy event took place at St. Teresa's Church on Tuesday the 20th inst., when Mr. Raymond A. McKinnon of St. Peters Bay and Miss Teresa McDonald of Peake's Station were united in the Holy bonds of matrimony. The bride looked charming in a suit of blue broad cloth with black beaver hat. The groom was supported by Mr. George McInnis of St. Peters Bay while Miss Ida Macdonald of Monticello, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. R.J. McDonald of Brae, brother of the bride, assisted by Revs. I. R. A. Macdonald of St. Teresa's and S. J. Macdonald of St. Mark's, Lot 7. After the wedding ceremony the newly married couple repaired to the home of the bride's father, Mr. Allan Macdonald where a sumptuous repast was partaken of by about fifty invited guests being the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties including a few from the city. The presents being numerous and costly. At three o'clock they left for their future home at St. Peter's with the best wishes of all their friends for a long and happy life.

...RED CROSS CONCERT.—A concert and basket social in aid of the Red Cross Society was held under the auspices of the Annandale Dramatic Club, assisted by several members of the Dundas Comedians in Annandale school room on Friday evening, October 9th. A very interesting and highly entertaining programme (judging by the vociferous applause at the conclusion of each number) interspersed with several violin selections by Mr. Irving Lapiere, of Annandale with organ accompaniment by Miss Mary McFarlane, of Annandale, and Miss Ida Turner, of Dundas, was rendered in a very capable manner and which was as follows: Chorus, by mixed voices, "Canada;" recitation, "The Immigrant," Mr. A. Ross; male quartette, "The Spanish Cavalier;" recitation, "The Private of the Buffs," by Mr. G. E. Saville, (encored); male quartette, "Just Before the Battle;" recitation, "The Old Grenadier's Story," by Mr. Roy Howlett, (encored;) chorus, by mixed voices, "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp;" recitation, "Whispering Bill,' by Mr. Walter Bividitt solo, "The Song That Reached My Heart," by Miss Annie McDonald," (encored;) solo, "The Weddin' o' Sandy McNab," by Mr. Roy Howlett (encored); chorus by mixed voices, "Tenting To-night."; Misses Sadie McLeod and Jean Howlett presided at the organ during the entertainment in their usual capable manner. The thanks of the management are due to Mr. Joseph Chaffie, of Glenside, who very kindly consented to act as chairman and auctioneer during the evening, and to all those who helped to make the undertaking such a decided success, the sum of $90 having been realized. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close the most successful gathering of its kind ever held in this vicinity.
